NEW YORK, March 10, 1898.

F.J.King, Esq.,

Comptroller's Office

280 B'way, City.

Dear Sir:--

In the month of December last, after having filed a claim with the Comptroller for the rebate due on Excise License to Isaac P. Merser, the original license was left with you. At the time you informed my representative that an action was then pending to recover the rebate, of which fact I was not aware until so informed.

Will you kindly deliver to Mr Kaufman Simon, the attorney who brought the action, the license so that he can proceed with the action.

(Dictated)

Resp'y yours

Louis Lowenstein

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE
Rec'd by [illegible] Comptroller
DEC 9 1897
NEW YORK.

In the matter of the claim of

Isaac P. Merser

against

The Mayor, Alderman and Commonalty of the City and ~~and~~ County of New York.

To

Hon. Ashbel P. Fitch,

Comptroller of the City and County of New York.

You will please take notice that the undersigned has a claim against~~x~~ the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City and County of New York arising out of the following facts.

That heretofore, and on or about the 23 day of November, 1895, a license was duly issued by the then existing Excise Board of the City of New York to the claimant, Isaac P Merser, as a restaurant keeper at No/ 188 Sixth Avenue in the City of New York, said license by its terms to expire on the 23 day of November, 1896, that subsequent to the issueing of said license and on or about the 23 day of March, 1896, the Legislature of the State of New York duly enacted a law known as the "Liquor Tax Law" intending to regulate the traffic in Liquor,

That by the terms of said Liquor Tax Law said license was rendered inoperative after June 30th, 1896, and on that day, June 30th, 1896, the said license was terminated by said act of the Legislature.

That by the further provision of said law the holder of said license after the same became inoperative under the new law, was entitled "to receive and to recover from the town or city in which said license was granted such proportion of the whole license fee paid therefore, as the remainedr of the time for which such license would otherwise have run, shall bear to the whole period for which it was granted, and the same shall be paid by such town or city upon demand."

The said Isaac P. Merser demands the immediate payment of the sum of $39.42 as the rebate or proportionate sum to be paid for the unexpired term of said license, to wit: 146 days at $.27 per day.

Dated, New York, December 9th, 1897.

Respectfully submitted,

Louis Lowenstein, Isaac P. Merser
