PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

Wickinson

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I am convinced that the defendant had no criminal intention. He was intoxicated at the time he decided to take a ride in the vehicle which is the subject of the charge on which the indictment was found. He is respectably connected and this is his first offense. He has a widowed mother now 77 years old to support and in view of the fact and the others already cited I ask that the court may show him extreme clemency.

said firm then had a branch house at Madison Avenue and Forty-second Street in the said City of New York; and that the said Arthur B. Williams was then and there authorized by the said Firm then and there to obtain and receive from the said corporation, the goods, chattels and personal property hereinafter described for and on account of the said Firm, and to be charged to and paid for by them.

By color and by aid of which said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations, the said

— Arthur B. Williams —

did then and there feloniously and fraudulently obtain from the possession of the said corporation twelve mix boxes of the value of sixty-five cents each, twelve other mix boxes of the value of fifty-eight cents each, twelve half pin boxes of the value of forty two cents each, two other half pin boxes of the value of forty two cents each, twelve ready pin boxes of the value of forty two cents each, and twelve ear-ring boxes of the value of forty two cents each. — of the ~~proper moneys~~, goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation, with intent to deprive and defraud the said corporation — of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Arthur B. Williams was not then and there the authorized agent of the said Firm of Briggs and Williams, and the said Firm did not then have a branch house at Madison Avenue and Forty second Street, or at any other place, in the said City of New York; and the said Arthur B. Williams was not then and there authorized by the said firm then and there to obtain and receive the said goods

chattels and personal property from the said corporation, for and on account of the said firm, or to be charged to or paid for by them.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Arthur B. Williams — to the said corporation — was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as the said Arthur B. Williams —
at the time of making the same then and there well knew;

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
Arthur B. Williams —
in the manner and form aforesaid and by the means aforesaid, the said ~~proper moneys~~ goods, chattels and personal property of the said corporation, — then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

For the defence .

Indicted for burglary in the third degree. (Guilty of the attempt in the third degree.)

Indictment filed October 3rd 1893

J O S E P H J E N N I N G S called for the people being duly sworn testified as follows :

Am attached to the 9th precinct; had the Christo per street beat west of Greenwich avenue from 12 midnight to six o'clock A. M. About half past two was in the neighborhood of 105 Christopher street, which is in the 9th Ward . and went into the hallway of that house as far as the halldoor and shoved it open. As I did so I met the two men standing in the hall right in front of me, Howard Cole and William Wilson. They were standing right back of the door that I opened. There is a door in the hallway leading into a liquor store in the premises 105. It is the only door in the hallway , and right near the door I opened . It was half past two in the morning. Besides the two men I found a chisel and a piece of wood. (Articles produced) I looked at the panel of the door in front of which the men were standing, and the piece of wood fitted the door where it was broken leading to the liquor store . Didn't have any conversation with Wilson in Coles presence . I asked what their business was, and Cole said they came there to sleep. I said "Sleep on a marble floor?" He said "That is the best we could do."

On cross examination witness testified as follows :

When I first opened the door and had a conversation as stated I called Wilson into the street and felt about him and found he had nothing , and then called defendant and felt of him in the same way, and left them on the street. I struck a light to see where the panel was cracked, and this thing was on the floor (indicating chisel). I immediately turned and took up the two men, and rapped for assistance. The two men left the doorway afterwards and went down the street half a block but not out of my sight. There was nobody else around the doorway at the time. After I blew the whistle a private watchman and two officers came. First the watchman and an officer, then the officer went after another officer. Immediately after I left the boys go I found the iron instrument and the piece of wood on the floor. The iron instrument is a steel file sharpened; it may be called a jimie; it looks very much like a burglar's tool; never saw a jimie. Didn't make any examination of the hallway before I let the boys go. Found the Chisel alongside the door below the panel just where the two boys were standing. I saw marks on the door and the instrument fitted in them. The defendant was about two feet from the door, and the jimie was near their feet. It was a tenement house. The door leading into the hall is the common doorway leading to all the apartments in the house, and then there is a glass door. The liquor store man lives on the floor above the store. Didn't take the defendant into custody after I searched him until I discovered what had happened, when he was half a block away, on the corner of Bedford and Christopher streets. There was not a young man standing at the door who said he lived in the house 105. there was no other man at all.

§ G E O R G E R O S S L E R called for the people being duly sworn testified as follows :

I live at 105 Christopher street with my family on the first floor and kept a store on the ground floor; kept it there on the 27th of September last at 12 o'clock I know the side door leading from my store into the hall way; I had closed the door; noticed the panels on the bottom of the door and know they were perfect and nothing was broken on them when I saw them previous to closing the store 12 o'clock midnight. Didn't notice the door again until three o'clock in the morning when the officer called me up. Then I got up and looked at the door that was locked leading into the store. The door was destroyed, the molding of the panel was taken off and there were little chips here and there in the hallway. There were no other marks on the door. You could see where the iron instrument went in and they pried it off. Had the iron instrument there at the time.

On cross examination witness testified as follows:

The door was not broken open and I didn't loose anything; nothing happened except the breaking off of that piece of wood. Don't know the defendant; he does not live in the premises 105.

H O W A R D C O L E called for the defence being duly sworn testified as follows :

I did not attempt to break into this saloon at 105 Christopher street through the door by the use of an iron implement on the night in which the policeman said I did; don't know anything about that iron instrument and never possessed it . Don't know how it got into the hallway. I am not guilty of the crime alleged and know nothing about the place only when I was put under arrest.

I do not know the defendant. I never saw him until they brought him to my place. When I returned from my store I found the door open which I had locked a half an hour before.

MAX WELTZ, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 144 Ridge Street in this City. I saw the defendant coming out of the complainant's house 202 Rivington Street on the day in question with a bundle. It was about five minutes past eight o'clock. He had something in a blue bag and he put it on his shoulders. I saw a woman come out of the house and commence to holler. She ran after the defendant and began hollering "Thief, thief." A policeman caught him and brought him back to the house.

There were several other people came out of the house that morning, but I noticed the defendant particularly because he had a blue bag and because the woman followed him. I did not see any one come out immediately ahead of the defendant.

They are located in the Eleventh Ward. I was on duty near Pitt and Rivington Street on the 20th of October at about eight o'clock. I saw him throw the bag away. I took the defendant back to the apartments of the complainant and examined ~~the~~ the door of her room. I found the marks of an instrument like a jimmy on the door/

LOUIS WOSOFISKY, the defendant, being sworn, testified:

I am nineteen years of age. I did not throw that jimmy away. I did not have it at all. I did not break into this woman's apartments. I was going through Rivington Street looking for work. When I reached the house of this woman I saw two persons standing there and I went up to them and asked them if they knew of a tailor shop in the neighborhood, because I wanted to look for work. Then they asked me, "Do you want to carry a bundle to Third Street; we will pay you for your trouble." Then I went upstairs with them. The bundle was lying right next to a door. They gave it to me and I carried it downstairs. These two men followed me, and as soon as we got to the street began to run. When I saw that they commenced to run, I threw
