Thomas M. Dermott

of No. 181 Hudson Street, aged 62 years, occupation Book Keeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 12 day of October 1892 at the City of

New York, in the County of New York, was ~~feloniously~~ ^{attempted to be} taken, stolen and carried away and person from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

A Gold watch valued valued at Forty Dollars

the property of Deponent and that this deponent ~~was~~ ^{attempted to be} has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Thomas Daly (now here) for the following reasons Deponent was standing in a crowd on the north East corner of Broadway and Duane Street - and he had the said watch in the left hand pocket of the vest that he then wore - deponent felt caught defendant's hand under his (deponent's) coats and he defendant had hold of deponent's watch -

Deponent therefore charges defendant with attempted at Larceny

William Williams:

I made up my mind to sell the stuff. I hired the horse and truck from Geo. Fetcher and said I would send someone for it. I met Dooley and asked him if he would drive a truck for me and said it was worth $3. I gave him a note saying "Deliver to bearer" so as to throw him off his guard, and so that he could get the stuff if I was not there, (but I made sure to be there). I went on the truck with him on the 28th of May, with the stuff to Solominous in Roosevelt St. I was paid for it inside and gave him the $3.

I got Dooley again on Tuesday to take the other load. I sent him to Fetcher for the truck. He put the stuff on the truck and I went with him. I was getting off and on the truck trying to sell the stuff; he asked me why I got off. I said "to get a drink". He said "it looked crooked and I was at the storehouse 130/134 Charlton St about 7⁴⁵ a-m. on the 31st of May 1892. Dooley drove up with a single truck. He handed a paper to Williams. Williams pulled out the hand trucks with pigs of tin on it, and he said "help him to load it Pete, and ^{fill} get the price of a ball" I did so, and Williams gave me 10¢ for whisky. When I came back the truck was gone and Williams was still there.

The larceny was reported at the Station House. Could get no information as to the man who drove the truck. Ferrigan told us Williams had called him Mike, and said he saw him sitting at a window in Greenwich near Van Dam St. This was in August. We found his name was Dooley. He went there, the woman said he had gone to Brooklyn and would be back at 7 P.M. He did not return until 3 a-m next morning. Could not find

Michael Drummond

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. As I believe that I was too hasty in making the Complaint, for I have known ^{him} intimately for a number of years. He returned the watch to me the same as he took it, and I believe he only took it for company me - and that he did not have any intention of stealing it.

I am acquainted with his family and they are very respectable people, and I have never known the defendant to do any dishonest act, and I therefore avail the privilege of withdrawing my Complaint
