COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS,
Part III.

The People of the State of New York, :

-against- :

Florence Scott. :

Before
HON. RUFUS B. COWING and a jury.

Indictment filed April 3rd, 1891.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, April 8th, 1891.

A p p e a r a n c e s :

For the People, Assistant District Attorney
Wauhope Lynn,

For the defendant, Mr. J. W. McLaughlin.

H E N R Y H O G A N, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 34 Delancey Street in this city.
I met the defendant on the 12th of February last, between half past 10 and 11 o'clock at No. 132 Chrystie Street.
As I was passing the place I heard music and I went in there.
I sat down at a table and had a glass of beer, and while sitting there, this woman came up to me, and asked me if she could have a drink with me; I said, "Certainly," and she sat down and we had five or six beers. She then asked me if I wouldn't like to see her home. I asked her where she was going to, and I think it was No. 154 Chrystie Street.

I went upstairs with her, into a room; there was nobody there but she and me. She asked me for a dollar and I gave her a dollar. She began to embrace me, and was trying to make love to me, and all of a sudden, she rushed out of the room. When she had gone, I found that my watch and chain which had been in my vest pocket were also gone. It was a double case gold watch with a silver chain attached to it. I valued it at about $60. and $10. for the chain makes $70. I made a search for this defendant, but could not find her on that night. I informed an officer about the case and described her to him. She was afterwards arrested and on my complaint locked up.

CROSSEXAMINATION:

It was between 10 and 11 o'clock when I went into this saloon. I had never been in there before. I was perfectly sober at the time I met this girl. I am quite positive that what I stated was the truth.. The defendant was arrested some three or four days after I had been with her. I have never made a mistake in regard to the identification of anybody in my life.

J E R E M I A H J. M U R P H Y, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am a detective sergeant connected with Police Headquarters. I arrested the defendant in the Essex Market Police Court. When she saw me in this court, she started to go out and I told the officer at the gate not to let her out. I arrested her right then and there in the Court room and told her that she was wanted for taking a watch from a man in Driscoll's store; she said she did not take it. I brought her over to headquarters and had her remanded there until the next morning. When I brought her to Essex Market Police Court on the following morning, Mr. Hogan identified her as the woman who had stolen his watch. The defendant said she was drinking with Hogan, but did not take his watch.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

There was nobody present but the woman at the time she was identified by Hogan.

D E F E N C E .

F L O R E N C E S C O T T, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I have never been convicted of any offense before this. I am a woman of the town. I frequent Driscoll's saloon, and while in there one evening, I met this gentleman who has testified against me and had a drink with him. I left there that evening in company with a man who could not speak English. I left there about 12 o'clock and went home.

Q Did you go to any room with this complainant? A No, sir.

Q You have heard him describe how you grabbed his watch and ran away? A Yes, sir.

Q Did that occur? A No, sir. The lady of the house could identify me if I was there.

Q You did not steal the watch? A No, sir.

Q Were you in there on the 12th of February last? A Yes, sir, I don't remember any other occurrence except that I was in there.

Q You have known Officer Murphy for the last four or five years haven't you? A I have known him quite a while.

Q Do you know the house in Chrystie Street, No. 144? A No, sir.

Q It is your practice to leave Driscoll's and to go home with men, isn't it? A No, sir, nobody of any account goes in there.

Q Hogan was a pretty good fellow, wasn't he? A I didn't have the fortune to meet him, but I have the misfortune to be here in this trouble.

Q You know Driscoll, don't you? A Yes, sir.

Q And you say positively you did not take this man's watch.

A I did not.
