City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 2092 7th Avenue Street, aged 38 years, occupation Jeweller being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 18th day of January 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the Night time, the following property, viz:

One hunting case gold watch.
 one diamond ring, and one gold ring, together of the value of two hundred and twenty dollars.

($220.00)

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
 has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Hugh L. Clark. (now here) from the fact—that at about the hour of 7.30 o'clock P.M. said date, the said deponent came to deponent's place of business at the above address, and purchased said property from deponent, giving deponent the instrument in writing, hereto annexed, which said instrument purport to be checks on the Clinton Bank, one for one hundred dollars and the other for one hundred and twenty dollars. Each of them payable to the order of deponent, and signed by this deponent and dated January 18th 1890 deponent believing said checks to be good

Police Justice

let the defendant have said property and accepted said checks in payment thereof. Defendant thereafter telephoned to the Clinton Bank and asked if the defendant had an account in said Bank where defendant received money from said Bank that the said defendant had no account there.

Defendant is informed by Samuel Price a detective attached to the 29th Precinct Police that he went to said Bank in company with Detective Mott. and was then informed that the said defendant had no account in said Bank and that said checks were worthless. and that after he arrested the said defendant he the Detective found said rings in the possession of the said defendant and learned from him the said defendant that he had pledged said watch in Renthals pawn office for fifty five dollars.

Wherefore defendant charges the said defendant with feloniously obtaining possession of said property with the intent to defraud by color or aid of false and fraudulent checks for the payment of money. And prays he may be held and dealt with according to law.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

Wm. S. Blau

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Wm. S. Blau

of the CRIME OF Grand LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Wm. S. Blau, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the eighteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one William Hooley of the ~~proper moneys~~ goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said

William Hooley,

That two certain paper writings which he the said Wm. S. Blau then and there produced and delivered to the said William Hooley, one of the said paper writings being in the words and figures following, to wit:

"New York January 18 1890 No. 193

Clinton Bank

Pay to the order of William Hooley $120.00

0450

One Hundred & Twenty Dollars. of State "
and the other of the said paper writings being in the words and figures following to wit:

"New York, January 18, 1890 No. 194
Pay to the order of William Kooty $100.00
One Hundred Dollars.
of State."
were then and there good and valid orders for the payment of money, and were then and there together of the value of Two Hundred and Twenty Dollars.

And the said William Kooty, then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Hugh S. Clark, and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Hugh S. Clark, one watch of the value of one Hundred Dollars, one quartz ring of the value of one Hundred Dollars, and one other quartz ring of the value of Twenty Dollars, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Kooty,

And the said Hugh S. Clark did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said William Kooty, by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said William Kooty, of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said paper writings which the said Hugh S. Clark then and there produced and delivered to the said William Kooty as aforesaid

were not then and there good and valid orders for the payment of money and were not of the value together of two hundred and twenty dollars, or of any value whatever, but were then and there both and each of them wholly invalid and worthless.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Wm. S. Clark to the said William Hootky was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Wm. S. Clark
at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
Wm. S. Clark
in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Hootky, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

For the People,

Assistant District-Attorney William T. Jerome;

For the Defendant,

Mr. Frank Oliver.

E D W A R D O ' D O N N E L L , a witness for the People,
sworn, testified:

Q How old are you ?

A Going on seventeen.

Q What do you do for a living ?

A I work in a soap factory.

Q Do you remember the 7th. day of last month ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you know the defendant at the bar, this boy William Coleman ?

2

A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you see him on the 7th. of last month ?

A In a candy store in Market Slip.

Q What time of day was it ?

A About half past three in the afternoon.

Q Was there anybody else with you, or were you alone ?

A There were two more boys up there.

Q What were their names ?

A Donovan and Ennis.

Q Tell the jury what happened between you and Coleman at the bar ?

A All the boys in the store were playing cow boys.

Q And you were playing cow boy ?

A Yes, sir. I just came in from my aunt's upstairs.

Q You were playing cow boy ?

A Yes, sir; I came down and played with them.

Q Now, in the course of your play, what happened ?

A All the boys said: "I dare you to stick me with a knife".

Q Who did they say that to ?

A To me.

Q Who dared you to stick him with a knife ?

A Any one of them.

Q Did you stick any one with a knife ?

A No, sir.

A What else did they say ?

A They didn't say anything else. Then Coleman stuck me with a knife. All the boys said to him, "I dare you", and when they said that he stuck me with a knife.

Q What did he do then ?

A Then Donovan took the knife away from Coleman. I turned around and passed Coleman and he ran the knife right into me.

Q Did he stick you, or did you stick yourself ?

A No, sir; I did not stick myself.

Q Then what happened after you had been stuck ?

A I went to the hospital.

Q How long were you there ?

A About three or four days.

Q And then you got out and made a complaint against him ?

A Yes, sir; I didn't want to go against him though.

GROSS EXAMINATION:

Q He had the knife open, did he ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was your jacket on at that time ?

A Yes, sir; it was on me.

Q Did you open it ?

A Yes, sir.

Q And opened your shirt ?

A Yes, sir.

Q And exposed your breast ?

A Yes, sir.

Q He held the knife in his hand, and you went towards him, or he went towards you, is that it ?

A Yes, sir.

Q He put the knife against you ?

4

- A Yes, sir. I opened my shirt and my coat and vest.
- Q Then the other boys said to the defendant, "I dare you"?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q And then he stuck you ?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you walk towards him ?
- A Yes, sir. I don't think he meant to do it.
- Q Did he walk towards you, or you towards him ?
- A I walked towards him.
- Q Where was the knife when you walked towards him ?
- A In his hand.

No witnesses were called for the defendant.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree.

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this Indictment, accuse ALPHEUS A. COURTER of the C r i m e of F O R G E R Y in the Third Degree, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit, on the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and ninety, the said Alpheus A. Courter, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, was an officer, to wit, the Cashier, of a certain Banking Corporation, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of this State, and known and designated as the Equitable Bank of the City of New York; and, as such Cashier, he, the said Alpheus A. Courter, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, made and signed a certain instrument and writing, as such Cashier of the said Equitable Bank, ^{to wit:} a certain instrument and writing, commonly called a certification, upon the face of a certain order for the payment of money, dated the day and year aforesaid, drawn by James A. Sumner, upon the said Equitable Bank, whereby the said Equitable Bank was directed to pay to the order of P. J. Claassen, Pres., the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars; by reason of which said certification, and the placing of the same upon the face of the said order for the payment of money, the said Alpheus A. Courter, as such Cashier, did then and there certify and declare on the behalf of the said Equitable Bank, that the said ~~James~~ A. Simmons, was then justly entitled to draw and order the payment of the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars out of the moneys and funds of the said corporation, and that the said order for the payment of money was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, and that the said Equitable Bank then had in its possession, and did hold and retain, the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, wherewith and whereby to pay the said order for the payment of money, upon its presentation to said Bank, and by means of which said certification of the said order for the payment of money the said Equitable Bank then and there became charged with, and liable for, the payment of the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars.

And thereupon it became and was the duty of him, the said Alpheus A. Courter, as such Cashier, then and there to make true entry of the fact of such certification in a certain book of accounts, belonging to and appertaining to the business of the said Equitable Bank, known as the "Certification Book," the same being made, written and kept under his direction, the said certification being a material particular in the affairs and business of the said Equitable Bank.

the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with intent to defraud, feloniously did wilfully omit to make true entry of the material particular aforesaid, in the said book of accounts so made, written and kept under his direction, as aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment, accuse ALPHEUS A. COURTER of the Crime of FORGERY in the Third Degree, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit, on the 27th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and ninety, the said Alpheus A. Courter, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, was an officer, to wit, the Cashier, of a certain Banking Corporation, duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of this State, and known and designated as the Equitable Bank of the City of New York; and, as such Cashier, he, the said Alpheus A. Courter, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, made and signed a certain instrument and writing, as such Cashier of the said Equitable Bank, ^{to wit:} a certain instrument and writing, commonly called a certification, upon the face of a certain order for the payment of money, dated the day and year aforesaid, drawn by John Satterlee & Co, upon the said Equitable Bank, whereby the said Equitable Bank was directed to pay to the order of P. J. Claassen, Pres, the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars; by reason of which said certification, and the placing of the same upon the face of the said order for the payment of money, the said Alpheus A. Courter, as such Cashier, did then and there certify and declare on the behalf of the said Equitable Bank, that the said John Sartorius & Co, was then justly entitled to draw and order the payment of the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars out of the moneys and funds of the said corporation, and that the said order for the payment of money was then and there a good and valid order for the payment of the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, and that the said Equitable Bank then had in its possession, and did hold and retain, the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, wherewith and whereby to pay the said order for the payment of money, upon its presentation to said bank, and by means of which said certification of the said order for the payment of money the said Equitable Bank then and there became charged with, and liable for, the payment of the said sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars.

And thereupon it became and was the duty of him, the said Alpheus A. Courter, as such Cashier, then and there to make true entry of the fact of such certification in a certain book of account, belonging to and appertaining to the business of the said Equitable Bank, known as the "Certification Book," the same being made, written and kept under his direction, the said certification being a material particular in the affairs and business of the said Equitable Bank.

Nevertheless, the said Alpheus A. Courter, well knowing the premises afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with intent to defraud, feloniously did wilfully omit to make true entry of the material particular aforesaid, in the said book of accounts so made, written and kept under his direction, as aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Indictment filed February 21, 1890.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second de-

New York, March 27, 1890.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Assistant District-Attorney Jerome.

For the defendant,

Mr. G. R. Westerfield.

E L L E N M U R P H Y, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a general servant. On the 13th. of February of this year I was walking in East 31st. Street between First and Second Avenues at a quarter past two. I had my pocket book in my pocket containing $1.10. I came out of a store, and when I got on the street I put the pocketbook in my pocket and walked down. I felt something in my pocket. I turned around, put my hand in my pocket and I caught the defendant Collen's hand in my pocket. I am certain that he is the man. I told him to give me my pocketbook, but he ran away. The defendant John Feery was with him. I ran after them, but did not catch them. I saw them afterwards at the corner of 31st. Street and First Avenue. I was with an officer, and he went over and arrested both of them. When we got near them, the officer asked me who took my pocketbook, and I said Cullen, and pointed to him.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q What pocket did you have the pocketbook in ?

A In the pocket of my dress.

Q What time was it ?

A About a quarter past two.

Q The man that took your pocketbook came up from behind ?

A Yes, sir.

Q You say for a quarter of an hour after that you were on First Avenue and saw the defendants ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Have you lived in that neighborhood for some time ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you catch hold of the man that took your pocketbook?

A No, sir. I only just got his hand.

Q Could you identify the other man that was there ?

A Yes, sir. Feery is the man.

Q You are positive of that ?

A yes, sir.

3

Q Did you see the defendants in the Station House ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did they deny having taken your pocketbook ?

A Yes, sir.

J O H N T. N I L A N, a witness for the People, sworn,
testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police in this city. I arrested the defendant Cullen in East 34th. Street on the 13th. of February, this year. I had previously seen the complainant and talked with her. She told me of her loss. When I arrested the defendant, himself and Feery were standing still looking down First Avenue. I ran up to Second Avenue, and they ran around the corner. I charged them with taking this woman's pocketbook, and they said they did not do it. I brought them back to where the complainant was, and she identified Cullen positively, and I took them to the Station House.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Can you fix the time that Ellen Murphy first spoke to you ?

A I think it was between fifteen minutes and ten minutes to three.

D E F E N C E :

J O S E P H C U L L E N, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a printer. I was arrested once for drunkenness. I remember the 13th. of February. On that afternoon I had an appointment with Feery and about half past one I went to his house at 324 East 34th. Street. I waited there until two o'clock. He came downstairs and we went across to No. 349 East 34th. Street to a woman's house. Feery went in the house and I waited for him on the stoop. It was after three o'clock when we left there. We walked to the corner and while on the corner this Murphy woman came along and looked sharply at us, and we walked away. A short time afterwards the officer came up and arrested us. I did not steal this woman's pocketbook and did not have anything to do with the taking of it. I do not know anything about it.

CROSS EXAMINATION: "

I have been locked up about two weeks. I have worked at the printing business for six or seven years, but not steadily. I was never arrested but once for drunkenness. I got six months. I first met Feery that afternoon at half past one o'clock at his own house. I did not leave 34th. Street from half past one until after three o'clock. I was not in 31st. Street that afternoon at all. I did not know anything about this woman until she came up and looked at Feery and I. Feery was waiting in 34th. Street to get some washing from a laundry which he was to deliver uptown, and as I had nothing to do I waited with him. Feery runs errands for a woman who keeps a laundry opposite his house .

J O H N F E E R Y, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am jointly indicted with the defendant Cullen . On the afternoon of the 13th. of February, I met the defendant at half past one o'clock. I was with him between my own house and the house of a lady across the street until about three o'clock. At that time the lady told me the washing would not be ready until five o'clock and we went down and stood on the corner. We had been standing there but a few minutes when this woman came along and looked at us, and afterwards came along and arrested us. I had nothing whatever to do with the stealing of her pocketbook. I was with the defendant all the time from half past one until the time we were arrested.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I met the defendant at half past eleven in the morning and made an engagement to meet him at half past one at my own house. He was not working on that day. My present employment is delivering bundles for a laundry across the street from where I live. Some weeks I earn as much as $7. As we were standing on the corner my attention was attracted to this woman by the sharp way in which she looked at us. I have never been arrested for anything in my life.

E L L E N L A R K I N, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I keep a private laundry at 349 East 34th. Street. The defendant John Feery is employed by me. On the afternoon in question he was in my house at about ten minutes after two. He remained there until about a quarter of three, then left. I did not notice the defendant Cullen with him at all.

M A R Y B U R N S, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a laundress employed by Mrs. Larkin. On the 13th. of February, I noticed the defendant Cullen sitting out on the stoop waiting for John Feery who was in our house. He sat there from about two o'clock until a quarter of three, when they both left and walked down the street.

0528

WILLIAM ANDERSON, a witness for the People,
sworn, testified:

I am the official stenographer of General Sessions, Part I. I produce my note-book of trials in this court during the present term. I took the evidence of Ellen Murphy, the complainant in this case, on the previous trial. In her evidence she stated that her pocketbook was taken at about half past two.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by James Cumiskey now here, under the following circumstances: Deponent stood in front of his own door at 121 Ninth Avenue about 6 30 o'clock P. M. on said date, and the said watch chain was attached to his vest, and the said vest pocket contained a watch attached to the said chain. The defendant jumped at deponent and grabbed the said watch chain and pulled at it and deponent held on the said watch.

The defendant jerked the chain off and ran away with it. With
