Indictment filed October 29th, 1889.

Indicted for Burglary in the Second Degree.

New York, November 19th 1889
APPEARANCES: For the People, Assistant District

Attorney Jerome.

For the Defendant: J. W. McLoughlin

~~and John H. Alexander.~~

John H. Alexander, a witness for the people sworn testified:

I am a salesman employed by A. H. King & Co. 629 Broadway in this City. I was in their employ on the 11th of October 1889. On the night of that day about half-past 7 o'clock before the shutters were closed in the rear of the store. I went back to look after some over-coats that had come down some time before and I found that one of the overcoats was hanging out of the window. I pulled the coat inside. I didn't miss any of the coats at that time. I closed the window; that window opened on Mercer Street. At about nine o'clock I met the officer on the post and while I was speaking to him our watchman came up with an overcoat on his arm. He told me he had found it in a little box in the rear of the building close to where I found this coat hanging out of the window. We instructed the watchman to replace the box in the position it was and put the coat back in it again. He did so. Then the officer and I waited there in view of the boxes for a couple of hours. It was shortly after 11 o'clock when we saw two persons come along on the opposite side of the street. One of them passed over and stood looking into the box and took up something. Then I heard the word "Cop" and the two men ran across the street. The officer caught them, and then this prisoner in one of the vans which was standing right near this place.

Cross-examination.

I am not certain whether this window had been closed for the night or not. I didn't see the defendant go near the box. We kept full view of the box all the time while we were waiting. It was one of the other defendants whose hand I saw go into the box.

WILLIAM H. CORNFELL, a witness for the people sworn testified:

I am an officer of police attached to the 15th precinct. I know the premises spoken of by the last witness. I was with him as he has described. I watched with him until about 11 o'clock when we saw two persons passing down along Mercer Street, and we noticed one man go into a wagon opposite where this store was. The two men who came along stopped in front of the box which had been placed there by the watchman. Beaver was the one who put his hand into the box and then jumped into this wagon where this defendant was with the other man Nelson. I pulled out my revolver and told the three of them to stand which they did until I got assistance and took them to the Station House. While taking them to the Station House the defendant Morgan said to Beaver; "You are a lug; this is the second snap you gave me away in".

Cross-examination.

This box was in full view of everybody passing. It was three feet high from the ground.

D e f e n c e .

DANIEL MORGAN, the defendant sworn testified:

I reside at No. 163 Bowery this City. I am a painter by trade. On this day I had been drinking considerable. In the evening as I was passing along this street I saw one of the covered vans, and as I felt tired I went into one of them and went to sleep. I slept very soundly there until I was awakened by a couple of men going in there and looking around. I thought it was morning and that they were the drivers, and told me to keep quiet and went out again. Some time after that I was awakened by an officer and he pointed a revolver at me and arrested me.

Cross-examination.

Before I got into this wagon I had been sitting up in Washington Park on a bench. I had been out of work for a week. I live in a lodging house in the Bowery. I was walking through Canal street when I saw these vans up in Mercer Street. I walked through Canal because I had an engagement to meet a friend of mine in a saloon on Canal Street at six o'clock. I have never been convicted of anything. I have been arrested once ofor being drunk. I have never gone by any other name than Morgan.

0387

The Jury returned a Verdict of Guilty of Burglary in the Third Degree.

Hon. Judge William
I hope your Honor will take into consideration that I have never been arrested
before for any crime.
My counsel advised
me to plead guilty
as the evidence was strong enough to convict me, and he would get me a light sentence.

I am innocent of the crime. I was asleep in the wagon when the arrest was

ROME.

For the defendants R. H. RACEY, Esq.

JAMES P. DALY, a witness for the People sworn, testified:

I am a physician and surgeon practicing in this city
I attended the complainant Vincenzo Verallo about the 8th of September this year . I found him suffering from considerable hemorrhage . He had seven stab wounds on the left thigh; two similar wounds on the inner side of the thigh and one penetrating the abdomen ; all caused by a sharp pointed instrument . The wound in the abdomen was dangerous to human life . If peritonitis had set in the patient would have probably died . He recovered very nicely and is now quite well .

VINCENZO FURELLA, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the complainant in this case against these three men . I am a contractor by occupation and employ a number of men in this city at times . I remember the 8th of September this year . I live at 158th Street and Cortland Avenue . I know these three defendants . ON the afternoon of the 8th of September, three of our persons were fighting in my yard. I went down to separate them and I got in between them and it was at that time in that fight that I received the wounds which I now have on my body . The three defendants at the bar were among those who were fighting . I saw the defendant Lacomani strike me with his knife; it was he who hit me in the stomach with his knife . The two other men pitched into me and were fighting me . I got the stab wounds in the fight; but all three of these men stabbed me in different places .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I had a club in my hand which I found in the yard at the time I went to separate this fight. After having been wounded the first time I hit one of these men over the head with the club . I never had any trouble with these men before that . I never was convicted in any court of anything .

LOUIS ROSASCO, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I work on the Harlem Railroad for a living . I know the complainant and I know these defendants . I saw this trouble on the 8th of September . I saw Nicola Biondi in the yard with a knife fighting. Myself and a man named Dibalazio were talking English in the yard and these defendants with some others could not understand us and they began to quarrell with us for talking English . When we got into the fight the complainant came down out of the house and tried to separate us . I saw Nicola Biondi cut the complainant. Then Mr. Furella got a club and hit Nicola over the head with it and he fell down . I Lacomani did not stab Furella at all as he ran away out into the street .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I saw Nicola after he had been hit with the club lying on the ground bleeding freely . I have not talked with Mr. Furella about this case . . He wanted me to say that I saw all three of them stab him , but I told him that I only saw one .

JOHN DILLIAZO, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

On the 8th of September I was in this yard . While I was speaking to Mr. Furella these three defendants assaulted me; the two Biondi's struck me with a knife and I ran away . After I ran away they struck Furella . I saw each of these three men have knives in their hands with which they tried to stab me .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I had no knife with me at all . I did not use any in this fight . I got out of the yard when I saw that they commenced to cut me with their knives and I was not there at the time the complainant was stabbed .

MARY FURELLA, a witness called on behalf of the People, sworn, testified :

I am the daughter of the complainant in this case . I saw this occurrence on the 8th of September this year . My father was in the house, and when he heard some voices in the yard he went down and began to separate some men who were fighting . . I did not ^{first} see Lacomani there . I saw Nicola and Libmo Biondi there . I afterwards saw Lacomani there and saw him take out a knife and stab my father.

I saw one of the Biondi's there, the smaller one with a knife in his hand--Nicola.

I saw the three of these men at my father when he was down on the ground and two of them had knives .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

This happened at about half past five o'clock in the afternoon . After my father got stabbed in the abdomen he picked up a stick which was in the yard and held it in his hand. After my father was stabbed he fell right over . It is not a fact that the only person who cut my father was Libro. They all three made cuts at him that I saw . It is not a fact that my father hit Nicola Biondi on the head . My father did not hit him two or three times . My father struck one of the men once. My father was arrested at one time for blasting . He had me sent to the Catholic Protectory when I was a little girl .

THOMAS McQUADE, a witness for the People , sworn, testified:

I am an officer of Police . I arrested these defendants on the 8th of September this year . Nicola was all covered with blood . The complainants pointed out these men to me as the ones that done the stabbing .

After some consultation Mr. Jerome recommended that the defendant Libro Biondi be allowed to plead Guilty to Assault in the 2nd degree, and moved that the other defendants Iacomani and Nicola Biondi be discharged .

the Jury returned a verdict finding Libro Biondi Guilty of Assault in the 2nd degree .

April 15th, 1890.

Hon. Frederick Smyth, Recorder.

Sir:

I am in receipt of a communication under date of April 14th, inst., addressed to your Honor by Joseph Romelius, the complainant in the case of indicted for grand larceny, second degree, in which he says that after many attempts to reach a trial the defendant fled from the city, but has now returned and is in the employ of Kaufmann & Worms, 3rd Avenue, between 28th and 29th streets, and appeals to you to know why the case could not be called and the man punished as he deserves; and remarks that it had been very hard to get the case pushed in the District Attorney's Office.

The facts are these: The complaint was made on the 15th of July, 1889, and the papers were received in this office on the 13th of August following; being a bail case action was not taken by the Grand Jury until the 23th of October when an indictment was found and the defendant pleaded "not guilty". The case was put on the October calendar for trial and marked off at the request of the defendant. It was on again in November and was put off because of pressure of other business, and at request of defendant. It was on for trial several times in December and was forced off at the request of defendant's counsel and on a medical certificate and affidavits that the defendant was too sick to go to trial.

On the 9th of January the case was again on the trial calendar and defendant not appearing his bond was forfeited and a bench warrant issued. It was subsequently ascertained that the defendant had left the city and gone to Canada.

Recently it was rumored that Blume had returned to this city and the bondsmen, with Detective Sergeant VonGierck, has for the past ten days made every effort to arrest him, but without success.

In consequence of the information contained in Mr. Romelius' letter to you, Detective Kearns visited the factory where the writer said he was working, but he is not there and has not been recently, nor do the people there know of his whereabouts.

The detectives have located the residence of Blume's wife and in concert with the bondsmen are watching it in the hope of capturing him.

Very respectfully,

Chief Clerk.

Person of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

David Gyle (now Lee) and a woman who is unknown to deponent and who is as yet not arrested and who were acting in concert with each other for the reasons following to wit That about the hour of 4 o'clock P.M. on the afternoon of said day deponent met said woman in Greenwich Street and asked him to treat her and when he consented she took him to a little room in the rear of the saloon of 87 Greenwich Street, and when deponent entered said room in said saloon he had the said money in a pocket book in the inside pocket of his coat he then took out said watch for which was attached said chain. We said looked in the upper left hand breast pocket of the vest he then had on. And while in said room drinking with said unknown woman said unknown woman grabbed the said watch chain. We looked from deponent's neck and ran away with the same. When deponent came out of said room into said saloon we halted, that said unknown woman had stolen his watch chain. We looked, said Boyle who was then in said saloon left said saloon. We went out on the street. We brought said woman back and took said property from her, we let her go. And at the same time said deponent while passing the said watch in deponent's pocket, said deponent took said pocket book containing said money out of deponent's coat pocket. We took said watch chain. We looked, we hurriedly left said room. Deponent is further informed by Fred C. Schlotman, a partner in the 2^d precinct that about said time they entered said premises and as they were going into said saloon they saw said deponent hurriedly leave said saloon & walk away. And when said Cosgrove and said Schlotman entered said saloon they saw deponent there who was talking that his watch & chain was stolen. And they immediately left said saloon in search of said Boyle. That about the hour of 6 o'clock said said Cosgrove and said Schlotman again returned to said saloon and were then informed by John Foley, a bartender in said saloon that he went to said deponent's residence 89 Greenback street which was the saloon in question. And accused him of stealing said property. When said deponent replied I will give you said watch & chain if you don't say anything to Mr. Harrison (who is the proprietor of said saloon). We then gave said property to said Foley, who took the same with him.

and gave the same to said Schottman & said Cargue, and told them how to become possessed of it. That Thompson said Schottman & said Cargue arrested said defendant who admitted & confessed to them that he had said property and gave the same to said Foley. Defendant therefore charges said defendant with having acted in concert with with the woman who is as yet not arrested & charges him with the conspiracy afore said.
