John Kennedy

of

65 Sullivan

Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the day of 188

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, about twelve days ago I left the two scarf neck ties with the defendant Henry Baudin at about half past six in the evening at the store at n^o 53 & Broome Street. I told him keep them for me & he bought the light ties from me, he paid me fifteen cent for it. That was all that was said & done on that occasion. The supranings rolled up separately, the pocket took the rule & the pawn ticket for the opera glass & the two three cent stamps. I think I bought to his place last Friday in the night time at half past six o'clock. I told the defendant to mind these for me & then he gave me two cents for the stamps. He wanted me to get a nice picture for him. I told him I couldn't get one. Nothing was said after that. I never told him that any of this property was stolen. I took the property there for him to keep till I should call for it. About three weeks ago a boy came into defendant's store & gave him some three cent stamps & got some cigars for the stamps. The boy told him he found the stamps up town in some theatre & when the boy went out, the defendant said he didn't find them. He got them out of the office. I never told him at any time. I was stealing. I pawned the opera glass & left the ticket with the other property with the defendant. I hadn't my mind made up whether I intended to leave the things there or not. I expected at some time to go back & get them.

Re-direct: — I told him I was working at 243 Broadway at a picture store. I told him that in a month. He kept a cigar store. I told him I was around there. He put the engraving in a little box & told me to get him a nice picture. He gave me nothing in return for the pictures. I told him I couldn't get him a nice picture. He didn't say anything after that.

By the court. I went in that store for cigarettes a couple of months ago. I paid for them. I never left anything else there but the things I have spoken of. The neck ties were not done up. I didn't tell him where I got them. He didn't ask me. I asked him for twenty five cents for the tie he bought. I live right around the corner from him. He didn't know where I lived. I asked him if he would buy the neck tie he liked that the best. He said: He said he wanted to wear it. He looked at me & asked me if he wanted to buy it.

On the last Friday David sold him more than the two stamps, about four or five. He bought many before that fifty or a hundred. He gave me a cent for three cent stamps & two cents for two ten cent stamps. Sometimes sometimes I would buy about twenty cents worth of three cent stamps & get ten cent & some cigarettes. Six bags me. On election day I went in there with another boy. The boy sold the defendant a ten cent stamp & the defendant said I would send him picture home. After that I went in

OFFICE OF HORACE BARNARD,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,

98 Broadway,

New-York, July: 10th 1881.

George Lyon Esq.

Wt. Lyon,

The above named Henri Baudin, was for some time a waiter in my family - and if there ever was a place in which a dishonest man could easily steal - it is in my house - My wife leaves her watch, money pocket book &c &c all over the house - but she never has suffered -

I mention this to show why I never doubted the honesty of Baudin - As I have taken some pains to get at his history, I will give it - As I have got it - His mother was a woman of respectable position in Paris - and he was a clerk there in the breaking out of the Franco Prussian War - Entering the French

0043

Army he fought through the War and at the end, found that his mother had left Paris - and ^{he} went to London - where he lived three years - as a clerk, part of the time in a wholesale grocery store -

Coming thence to this Country, he could not find a situation in a store - and was forced to go out as a waiter - Came & was sent to us, and served us faithfully - until he left because of his dissatisfaction with his position as a Menial -

As a Frenchman I cannot suppose him familiar with our ways or laws - And as a Man I cannot believe he would descend to petty trafficking in postage stamps for unlawful gain - knowingly - I should consider him too proud for such petty performances -

OFFICE OF HORACE BARNARD,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,

98 Broadway,

New-York, _____ 188

His Wife tells me that he did not like his neighborhood and had been trying since last July to sell ~~out~~ his store in Broome St. This does not look like the plan of a man seeking to make money guiltily - and should tell against the charges of the boy - Baudin claims only to have known him, from his coming to his store to buy cigarrettes ~~habitually~~.

The only dealings that ~~this~~ boy alleges that he personally had with Baudin - were the sale of a necktie for 15 cents - the deposit of a bundle to "be minded" and the sale of "two" or "ten" (I could not make out which) 3 cent stamps for a cent apiece -

Baudin was arrested on Sunday Jan'y 30th - and the bundle was found where he had put it on the Friday before - on the shelf back of his counter - as I am told - in open sight - It was not concealed by him - so he would hardly have any guilty intent about that.

As to the boys' allegations about the postage stamps - if they were true - I could not believe that Baudin would buy them with any guilty intent - It seems to me almost absurd to think that he would descend to such petty tricks.

As a Frenchman, I suppose, him ignorant of much both of our laws and ways - but I would hardly suppose him stupid enough to do such a thing as this - with guilty knowledge -

Even if he should be guilty - he has been in prison twice - his shop has been shut up - save when his wife could be there, and he has a wife and baby dependent on him -

Under all the circumstances I would give more weight to his

looked them to that of the thieving boy - and give him a chance to remove the blot which his wretched misdeed have put on his reputation -

Please excuse this scrawl but I am "crowded". The pow devil's wife is just here and I shall take the liberty of sending this to you by her -

Yours truly
