Doming DiViggo

Indictment.

Assault in the 1st degree §§ 217 & 218 P.C.

for having on the 19th of March, 1889, assaulted Giuseppe Di Agostino by firing two pistols shot at him with intent to kill the said Di Agostino.

Giuseppe Di Agostino, 61 Mulberry Street, Hatter. At about half past nine o'clock in the morning of the 19th of March, 1889, I met the defendant at No. 14 Franklin Street. I demanded $50 from him and he gave me $1. At about half past one o'clock P.M. of the same day I met Louis Varagano, and I said to him, that I would get the defendant's watch and chain. I did not say anything about ^{using} my knife against the defendant, in case he would not

give me his watch and chain.
While I was speaking with Paragano, the defendant came along. I invited him to take a drink with me, but he refused. After a little while, Paragano and his friend Perugini, myself and the defendant went into a liquor saloon at the corner of Ely and Franklin Streets. After we ^{had} left the liquor saloon, we, the whole party, took a walk. At the corner of White and Elm Streets, the defendant left us, saying: "Good night, boys, I'll see you to-morrow." After he ~~had~~ gone about a quarter of a block, I went after him, and asked him ^{the next day} for $10, which I had loaned him. He replied that he had not got the money. I thereupon gave him a slap in the face and put my hand upon his watch chain and said to him, he should go and pawn it, to get the money for me. I did not take the watch from his pocket. When I slapped him in the face, the defendant

0581

commenced to cry; After I had let go his watch chain, I took him by the lapel of his coat, ~~and~~ to take him to my house. There upon the defendant fired two shots ~~at~~ upon me. I do not ~~think~~ think that he intended to shoot me because we had always been good friends, and he was somewhat under the influence of liquor, as he was celebrating his patron's saint's day. The knife which I had in my pocket at the time, is a spring knife.
It is about double as long as an ordinary pocket knife.
I had it not in my hands at the time, ~~of~~ when I wanted the defendant to remove his chain and when he fired the said shots at me. At the time the defendant fired the said shots, ~~he had~~ ^{think} ~~reasons~~ he believed that he was in danger of his life.

0582

Israel M. Rosenberg, 162 East 105 Street, Pawnbroker at 385 Canal St.
I know the defendant herein. On the 4th of March, 1889, I sold him ~~a watch and chain~~ gold chain, the same which he wears now.
(the defendant being present)
He paid $25 for it. I am positive ~~as to~~ the identity of the defendant and the said chain.

Juri Varagani, 55 Mulberry Street, Tailor. I work with my mother.
On the 19th of March, 1889, at about half past nine o'clock in the morning, I was present when Dr. Hootins came up to the defendant at No.
44 Franklin Street, and said to him, You must give me $25. The defendant ^{gave him $25} ~~refused~~. At about half past one o'clock P.M. of the same day, I met Dr. Hootins again.
He and heard him make the remark: "I am now going to get this gold watch and chain ^{meaning} from the defendant herein. If he does not want to give them to me, you know the knife I got, I am going to stick it into his arms ^{and} legs so as not to kill him. When Agostino immediately thereafter spoke to the defendant, the latter refused to have anything to do with him. The complainant thereupon grabbed the defendant by the lapel of his coat and said: "Come on, do not make a noise in the street. Let us have a drink together!" The defendant refused to go with Agostino. Upon the invitation of Joseph Romanini I went into the liquor saloon of at the corner of Elm and Franklin Streets, and soon thereafter the defendant and the complainant joined us there. We had four drinks together. After a short walk which we took together, the defendant left us at the corner of Elm and White Streets, saying "Good night, boys, I'll see you to-morrow!" When he was gone about ^{quarters of a} three blocks Agostino said: "Wait, I and all, how I'll get his watch and chain of him" and he was

0583

0504

after the defendants. I pursued my horse and did not pay any more attention to them.

Bernard O'Reilly, patrolman, Tomb Police Court. On the 17th of March, 1889, at about 3.30 P.M., while standing on the stoop of the Tomb I heard two pistol shots fired, in front of the Tomb. I arrested the defendant, who admitted to me that he had fired the said shots at Agostino, but claimed that he had to do it because Agostino wanted to rob him. That he grabbed his watch and chain. At the Police Court a knife was found in the possession of the complainant. It is a knife which is larger than a pocket knife and is opened by a spring.

Joseph Porciani, 19 Mulberry Street, Bar tender. On the 19th of March, 1889, at about half past three o'clock the defendant left me and the complainant and Vozagani at the corner of White and Elm Streets. When he was gone about three quarters of a block, Hyattino started to run after him, but I did not pay any more attention to him.

Domenico Drogio, 141 Sullivan Street, Clerk in Mr. Gallagher's office, 317 Broadway. On the 19th of March, 1889, in the afternoon at about half past two, in front of the Courthouse, the complainant demanded my watch and chain from me. I refused to give them to him. Thereupon he exhibited a spring knife to me and said, he would cut my belly open. At the same time he hit me in the face with his right hand. Putting the knife into his right hand, he grabbed my watch and chain with his left hand. Thereupon I fired my revolver upon him. I was afraid that he would kill me. I know that he shot his own father-in-law and a man by the name of Philip Barbieri.

I also know that he robbed a number of people and that he extorted money from a number of persons by threats.
