The People
 vs. Ludwig Schrader Indictment for grand larceny of money.

Court of General Sessions. Before Judge Geldersleeve. Nov. 7. 1879

Herman Krahner sworn and examined.
 I live at 231 Broome St. and lived there on the 8th of last July. I keep a lager beer saloon and live overhead. I occupy two rooms; the prisoner lived in my house from the 12th of June to the 8th of July; the prisoner did not work for me; he only boarded there; he is a half brother of my wife; he left my house on the 8th of July; he was not employed anywhere; he only paid three dollars and a half board; on the 8th of July I had $225 in my house; there was near seventy dollars in silver, ten dollars in gold and the rest paper money; there was one twenty dollar note and the rest in fives, twos and ones.
 This money was in the top drawer of the bureau; it was in two pocket books; the gold and silver in one part and the paper in one part. What time did you last see it there? At 10 o'clock at night. I changed a five dollar note. I went right down to the saloon again; my wife had been in the room then; about 11 1/2 o'clock I went to bed; there was nobody in the room at the time I changed the note but my wife.

When I came back at 11:12 o'clock there was nobody in the room but my wife. I saw the prisoner a little after ten; he went up stairs and ten minutes after he came down again and went off, and I never saw him until I saw him in Brooklyn on the 18th of October; he did not tell me he was going away, and I had no idea from anything he said that he was going away. I found the prisoner in a hospital in Brooklyn. I missed my money the next morning; my wife was in the room at the time; nobody had been in the sleeping room. Cross Examined. The prisoner arrived in this country on the 11th of June and he came to my house. I live in a tenement house; there are people living on the same floor and also up stairs; there is a window from one of my rooms into the hall, but it is always closed; it was closed that night and is never open. I know a man by the name of Fritz Shaffer. During the time the prisoner lived with me I talked with him about buying a farm in the that I was waiting for the prisoner to receive a letter from Germany with funds and the letter came; the letter says, "Take care of him, he can't have no money; we did not have any hard words over the receipt of that letter. I received it on Saturday and on Monday the 8th of July [?] he left. My wife came down in the saloon to get some brandy for Shaffer's baby; when the prisoner came down into the saloon he did not say a word; the drawer in which the money was was locked, but he took out another drawer and got the money that way. Detective King looked at the drawers and said he could get the money easy enough in that way. I have been married nearly eight years. I will be 35 years old next April. Lerna Krahnner sworn. I am the wife of the last witness. I remember the time when my husband had some money taken from him. My husband came up and changed a five dollar bill, and five or ten minutes after I went down stairs to get some brandy for the child. I locked the door at the time I went down stairs, he (the prisoner) was playing bafatle at the time; he came and took the key out of my own hand and went up stairs; as I returned I met him coming down and he gave me the key on the stairs; when I went up stairs again the door was locked as usual. From that time until we missed the money I was in the room all the time. I did not see the prisoner until I saw him before Judge Duffy in the Tombs; the prisoner did not tell me he was going away; we spoke very friendly together at supper time. I spoke the evening that the prisoner was gone to my husband about him he was anxious lest something happened to him. I was very sorry about him because I knew he had no money; he left all his clothes, everything he had there; we advertised the next day in the newspaper if he came back and gave an explanation that we would not do anything to him. Ludwig Schrader, sworn and examined through the interpreter. I lived with my sister one month. My brother in law and I agreed that we should buy a farm, and from the letter he received from Germany he found out we could not do it; we had a dispute and I left. I did not take the money out of the bureau. I was ten weeks in the hospital at Brooklyn. I did not have to pay any money. I was never arrested for crime. On the 25th of December I will be 18 years old. I had fifty German marks from my mother and thirty dollars from my father. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy. He was sent to the State Reformatory.
