The People
vs.
Patrick Hart

Court of General Sessions, Part 1.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

December 10, 1885.

Indictment for robbery.

Charles Kern sworn and examined. I am an officer of police of this city, on the night of the 2nd of November my attention was called to the prisoner at about 11.45 at night, I saw the prisoner with Frank Wright coming out of a liquor store on the northwest corner of South Fifth Avenue and Canal Street, Wright being very much under the influence of liquor so as not to be able to take care of himself, I followed both up to the next corner of Worster and Canal and saw the prisoner leading Wright by his right arm and placing him against a building on the northwest corner of Worster and Canal, I saw him place his right hand in Frank Wright's left vest pocket and take the contents out and then keep hold of him all that time, he threw Frank Wright down and the prisoner ran across the street opposite Canal Street, when I saw him take something out of the pocket I saw the reflection of a watch, I saw that he had taken a metallic substance of some kind, I then ran after the prisoner and asked him what he had been doing to the man? He denied knowing anything about anybody. I says, we will see, I took him back, he said, Oh, that man is my friend, I will take him home. I said, Oh no, I will take care of you and him both. I rapped and got the assistance of another officer to take care of the drunken man, I wanted to search the prisoner and he resisted. On the way to Spring Street he offered to take the man into a liquor store and make it square. All this while he had the watch in his pants pocket, I had hold of his right arm and as I turned the corner he changed the watch into his left hand to throw it away I suppose, I grabbed his left arm and he resisted; there was another officer standing on the opposite side of the street, I summoned him, I took the watch which was in his left hand and a dollar note. At that time Wright was too much under the influence of liquor to know anything, I showed the watch to Wright on the following day but he did not identify it as his, I saw the prisoner take the watch from Wright and he retained it in his hand all the time up to the time that I took it from his hand. When the prisoner took the watch from Wright he used no more violence then to hold him with his left hand, he took hold of Wright right arm and after he had taken the watch he threw him down and ran across the street, he pushed him away and threw him down; the complainant was too drunk to make any resistance; when the prisoner took the watch away he ran across the street on a dog trot, I overtook him near Church Street and when I got him he denied any knowledge of the complainant or of taking the watch until I took him back where the man was. The watch is at the Property Clerk's, it was a double cased gold watch I should judge worth about forty dollars.

Cross Examined. I do not know the proprietor of the saloon on the northwest corner of South Fifth Ave. and Canal Street out of which I saw the complainant and the defendant come, I have been on that beat seven or eight months and have been on the force six years. The saloon goes under the name of Ah Coakley's, I could not swear he was the owner of it, I do not know that it commonly goes by the name of Ale Coakley's saloon, a notorious place, I have perhaps heard that it has, I have never been in there, I do not know that that saloon is run without a license, I followed the prisoner before I arrested him about a hundred feet from where this depredation was committed. I produced Wright at the Police Court and confronted him with the prisoner, he stated that he never had seen the prisoner to his recollection and he could not identify the watch, I have had no conversation with the complainant since the last trial, I recollect very well that the night of the occurrence was a dry night, I did not ask Wright to-day to say when he came upon the stand that the prisoner knocked him down.

Frank Wright sworn and examined. I am a resident of this city and my place of business is 56 Worth Street, I remember to have been in this city on the night of the 2nd of November, I left my place of business at half past three, I had been sick previous to that for some considerable time, I took during the afternoon and morning to my knowledge three glasses of beer and I am perfectly unconscious of what occurred after that; by reason of my physical condition the liquor exercised a peculiar power upon me. When I left my business I had a watch which I carried in my right-hand vest pocket with an albert gold chain attached with a hook, the value of the watch and chain was over two hundred dollars, I do not remember to have been in the saloon that has been spoken of and do not remember to have met the prisoner. I do not know anything about where my watch was taken or any other substituted, I was shown on the following day a watch by Officer Kearn which was not my watch, I do not remember to have met the prisoner, he was not an acquaintance of mine and I have no business relations with him whatever.

Cross Examined. It had been raining that night and I should say the streets were in pretty bad condition from the fact that my shoes were very muddy, the next morning I did not notice any dirt upon my clothing except my shoes and hat were muddy, my clothing was perfectly clean. I had I believe from seventy to eighty dollars in money before I was knocked down and the next morning I did not have any, I had never seen to my knowledge the watch that was shown me at the Police Court before and I have not seen my two hundred dollar watch since.

The Case for the Defence.

Charles H. Park sworn. I reside in this city and am in business and for a number of years was on the police force, I have known Hart over fifteen years and know a good many people who know him, I have lived in the same house with him and slept in the same room with him at one time; after I got on the police force I got him two or three positions, his character is very good and I have always known him to be a hard working man.

Cross Examined. He worked alongshore down at Pier 11 I have seen an account of Ale Coakley's saloon in the papers, I left the police force about two years ago, I have seen in the papers that it is the resort of thieves, I never knew that Hart was at that saloon.

Patrick Hart sworn and examined. I know the defendant for five years and he has been a hard working man, he has never been arrested to my knowledge and never stole anything, I do not know anything about where he was on the day of this occurrence, the 2nd of November, I have no idea of what he was doing at two live o'clock at night at Coakley's saloon.

James McGovern sworn. I work alongshore and know the defendant five years, he worked with me three on the Morgan dock and boarded with me about fourteen months. There could be no better character for honesty, the latest time he was out was eleven o'clock and he always worked every day; he worked on the 2nd of November but I do not know where he was at twelve o'clock at night.

James Jordan sworn. I am a shipping clerk and know the defendant about twelve years, he boarded with me for three years, his character for honesty is good, he worked all the time and I never knew him to be arrested.

Patrick Hart sworn and examined in his own behalf. I was going home on the 2nd or 3rd of the month from my work, I had been working over on the east side all day till ten o'clock, I came across Canal Street to get my supper to go to bed; on the corner of Canal Street where the 4th Avenue cars run up Center Street I found a watch on the sidewalk, I picked up the watch and put it in my pocket and came as far as <sup>Wester</sup> ~~West~~ Street when this policeman arrested me, I asked him what he arrested me for and he told me that I was after taking a watch, I told him no I never took a watch from anybody but that I found the watch on the corner of Canal and Center Streets, he fetched me to the Station House and I put it on the desk with $1.73, I got the money back in the morning, that is all I know about the whole thing. I did not as the policeman states approach the complainant and knock him down and I never robbed a person of a cent's worth. The streets were wet and it was raining the next day. The next morning when the watch was shown to the complainant he said that he could not identify it, that his watch was gold, it was a silver watch that I found, he said he never seen me since the hour he was born. It is not true what the policeman says that I offered to fix it with him.

Cross Examined. The watch I found looked like a silver watch to me, I heard the officer say it was a silver watch, I had the watch in my possession about ten minutes until I came as far as Webster Street, I did not examine it very closely, I could not state positively whether it was a gold or silver watch; it was about a quarter to eleven when I found the watch, it was a quarter to ten when I got through working, I went to work at nine o'clock in the morning, I get from twenty-five to thirty cents an hour, I work from nine until about a quarter to eleven. But you worked from nine o'clock in the morning until twelve at noon and then took an hour off for dinner didn't you? Yes sir. You worked from that time until a quarter to ten without any supper? Yes sir., I had $2.73 in my pocket and spent fifteen or twenty cents out of it there was two more men working with me and we had one drink. That part of Canal Street is rather brilliantly lighted with a great many electric lights; there was not a person on the street within a block of me where I found the watch that I know of, I met several persons on Canal Street on the other side from the Bowery but there was nobody on the corner of Canal and Center Streets. I was not in the saloon spoken of that night and never had a glass of beer there, I saw in the paper about two or three years ago that a man was shot in Coakley's place, it had a very bad name, I used to pass it going to St. Francis's church in South Fifth Avenue.

Charles Kearns recalled by Mr. Fellows.

The watch now shown to me is the watch I found on the defendant upon the night spoken of, the chain was hanging down from the complainant's vest.

Thomas Dowd sworn and examined. I keep a liquor store between Greenwich and Washington in Canal Street, 512, one block from the river, I saw the prisoner in the saloon one night about six or seven weeks ago, he came in before Mr. Wright, the defendant was in ahead of him, Mr. Wright came in about fifteen or twenty minutes after the defendant with a colored man, I think it was between seven and eight o'clock that the defendant came into my saloon, I could not say how long he staid, I think he staid about half an hour and whilst he was there Mr. Wright came in, Mr. Wright staid about five or ten minutes and then went away. The colored man came along with Mr. Wright and Wright said he wanted something to drink and I said he could not have anything but seltzer water, that will sober you up, I says to the colored man, take this man home and Mr Spriggs and the colored man walked out with him and where he went after I do not know. I have known Hart for the last fourteen or fifteen years and worked with him at Pier 20, North River, he was always an honest man.

Frank Wright recalled. Part of the chain now shown me is my chain but the watch is not my watch, I do not remember to have been in Dowd's saloon that night I have no recollection of going into his saloon with a colored man.

John Doherty sworn. I am a roundsman of the 8th precinct and remember the night of the 2nd of November I saw the defendant about twelve o'clock when I went in response to a rap for assistance by Officer Kearn, I saw Hart near the corner of South Fifth Avenue and Prince St., I held the prisoner while the officer took his left hand and took a watch like the one now shown me out of his hand.

Charles K earn recalled. I had never seen the defendant before that night, it was right opposite an electric light that the defendant made an attack upon Wright, , there was no other person round about, I had my eye upon Hart from the first time I saw him in company with Wright until I arrested him, I saw them coming out of Coakley's saloon together and saw the defendant put his hand in the pocket of Wright and take the watch.

Patrick Hart recalled. I am acquainted with the witness Dowd and was in his saloon that night, I swore yesterday that I was at work till ten o'clock, I came home to get my money from Pier 36 where I worked, I had only an hour for my supper, I went home to my house and called my board and started to go back to work, I had one glass of beer at Thomas Dowd's and went to my work and got through a quarter to eleven and was going home when I found the watch. I might have been mistaken yesterday when I said I had an hour for my supper, I am not much of a scholar. I have been often times in Dowd's saloon.

Thomas Dowd recalled. I do not remember ever to have seen Officer Handley, I remember someone coming into my saloon and talking to me about the case, I told him Mr Wright was in my place, a boy read to me of the robbery out of the paper, I told the man that the prisoner went away with Wright saying that he was going to take him to the Manhattan Hotel, I told him Mr Spriggs, not Hart, I have lived in New York thirty-five years and have never been in trouble.

Charles A. Handley sworn. I am an officer of the central office attached to Inspector Byrnes detective force, I guess about the 15th or 16th of November I visited Dowd's saloon and had a conversation with him, he said all he knew about it was that Hart and several others left the place to see Mr Wright to the Manhattan Hotel, corner of Canal and Broadway.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

Examination before Justice Power
Oct 28 1885

Eunice W. Woodbridge, the complainant being duly sworn and examined by Justice Power deposes and says:
2 - Describe, if you please, how the defendant came to your house;
what she said when she came to your house, and all the particulars connected with her coming; what was said; how she was seen going; the disappearance of the garment and all about it.

A She came to me and told me
she was sent by Mr Kimball to select rooms in my house for himself and family. She said he told her to remain and get rested as she was very much tired taking care of the children. She remained,
I think about one week. I 0301

asked her how they could get along without her? She said that Mr. Kimball's sister was taking care of the children. Day after day she said she was going to morrow or next day. She remained perhaps ten days around the house. She said once or twice that she was going to the Kimballs, and was going to buy groceries to take there. She left on Sunday for good, taking her things with her. Sunday night, about ten o'clock she came into my house and wanted to remain there. There was no bed for her and she slept on the floor. The next morning she went and did not return. I know of my own knowledge that she went off.

- Q Did you see her go off?
- A I saw her in the hall, about 6 o'clock
- Q How soon after that did you discover the loss of your garment as described in the complaint?
- A As soon as the servant told me she had been in the dining room.

Q What time was that?

A about 7 o'clock in the morning, that I discovered the loss of the garment.

By direction of the Court all the witnesses except the one testifying were directed to leave the room.

Cross Examined by the Progenit

Q - How long have you known the defendant?

A About five years

Q - And during that five years has she been a reputable member of your household in any capacity?

A No Sir; but for two weeks work at one time when I wanted a cook. Then she came several times and stayed one or two days and nights - not more than that.

Q - How many different times?

A - Perhaps three times

Q - Had she not resided in your house for some time in the capacity of nurse for one of your boarders.

0303

- A Yes - perhaps three months - she was there some time as nurse.
- perhaps three months - I think that was about five years ago.
- Q When did she work for you these two weeks?
- A A year ago: Since that time she has come in for a night; or come in saying she wanted a lunch.
- Q Was she in the habit of calling upon you?
- A No sir, I had occasion to caution the help not to allow her to come in the house - not to allow her around.
- Q How many times did she call during the last year?
- A I could not say.
- Q How long was she there the last time?
- A Ten days.
- Q The morning that she left did she apprise you of the fact that morning or the night before?
- A The morning previous - she told me she was going to Mr Kimball.

0304

- Q Did you see her when she took her departure that morning?
- A No Sir
- Q Do you know at what time she took her departure?
- A - No Sir. I saw her that morning going down stairs. I did not speak to her.
- Q From whom did you obtain the knowledge that morning that she had left the house?
- A From Maggie Sheridan one of my domestics about half past six or seven o'clock.
- Q What premises do you occupy there?
- A Four houses. They are connected by doors from house to house. The dining room referred to is not for the four houses but for one. The door in that dining room connected with the hall, one hall, which leads into another dining room. There is a door in that dining room leading to another house.
- Q How many boarders have you?
- A I suppose I have about forty.

0305

Q Did you have forty boards at the time you lost these goods?

A I could not say about that

Q How many domestics do you employ?

A Seven

Q This garment that you speak of having lost was it as described in this affidavit - a brocade sack - or was it a silk sack (sacque)

A - It was a brocaded sacque
- a polonaise - so called.

Q Was it your property?

A Yes, Sir.

Q Your personal property

A Yes.

Q Did you wear it that day?

A I saw it that day.

Q When had you worn it previous to that day?

A I could not tell about that them previous to that day?

A Yes, Sir.

Q About what time in the morning did you miss your property?

A Between half past ~~six~~ six and seven I should think, when I went down stairs at first.

0308
