Bartow S. Weeks, Esq.,

Dear Sir:

In addition to our interview with you of yesterday we write to respectfully call your attention to the case of William Shannon, who has been arrested we are informed on a charge of grand larceny alleged to have been committed on New Year's day, the complainant being Louis C. Hofer, 530 West 49th Street. The act we ascertain was committed while the man was very much intoxicated and Mr. Hofer does not wish to prosecute.

Shannon has been employed by us for several years in the capacity of a driver of a valuable team, and we have known him well for many years previously. He is a young man, absolutely honest and trustworthy, and never to our knowledge has he been arrested before, and has always borne a good reputation.

His wife is about to be confined, and was threatened with ejection for non-payment of rent, which we have advanced and thus averted.

We are ready to re-employ him, and we believe his release under the above circumstances would be a great charity, as he now doubtless has had a lesson the effect of which will last him the rest of his lifetime.

Yours truly,
