has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by

George W. Kelly now present for the following reasons deponent was walking through Eighth Avenue with said pocket book in deponents hand and while deponent was so walking and when at the corner of Eighth Avenue and Fifty third Street some person or persons came up behind deponent pushed deponent violently, throwing deponent upon deponents knees and at same time reaching over deponents shoulder and taking said pocket book from deponents hand. When deponent raised deponent saw said ^{person} Kelly a few feet from deponent when deponent was cried out stop thief. said man ran away. Deponent is informed by Charles Jones that he saw said Kelly and said unknown man walking and talking with each other immediately previous to the taking of said pocket book

Eighth Avenue being duly sworn says that on 23rd day of December 1874 deponent was at the corner of Eighth Avenue and Fifty third Street. Deponent saw George W. Kelly ^{now present} and another man standing on the opposite corner from deponent talking with each other - Deponent's attention was directed to Sarah Lewis now present who had been pushed or fallen down on the same corner that deponent saw said men talking with each other. Deponent at the same time saw the man who was talking with said Kelly running away and said

Kelly walking away from where they stood

Said Kelly and other man who ran away were the only men who were near said Sarah at the time deponent saw her raise up from her fallen position -

Deponent is positive that the man deponent saw running away was the man who was talking to said Kelly immediately previous to said occurrence

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Frank King

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Frank King of the Crime of Grand Larceny in the first degree, as a Second Offense, committed as follows:-

At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, holden in and for the City and County of New York, at the City Hall of the said City, on the seventeenth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, before the Honorable Frederick Conyngham, Recorder of the said City and County and Justice of the said Court, the said Frank King was in due form of law convicted of Petit Larceny, upon a certain indictment then and there in the said Court depending against him the said Frank King, by the name and description of Frank King, for that he the said Frank King, then late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid

on the Eighth day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty three, at the said, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one promissory note for the payment of money, of the kind commonly called United States Treasury notes, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied, for the payment of and of the value of five dollars, and one other promissory note for the payment of money, of the kind commonly called Santa notes, the same being then and there due and unsatisfied, for the payment of and of the value of five dollars, of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Robert Becker, then and there being found, then and there unlawfully did steal, take and carry away. And thereupon, upon the conviction aforesaid, it was considered by the said Court of General Sessions of the Peace, in and for the City and County of New York, and ordered and adjudged, that the said Frank King, for the Petit Larceny aforesaid whereof he was so convicted as aforesaid, be imprisoned in the Penitentiary of the City of New York for the term of one year, as by the record thereof

both more fully and at large appears.

And she said Franka King, late of the City and County of New York, having been so convicted as aforesaid of the Petit Larceny aforesaid, and having been duly discharged and remitted of the said judgment any reason of the expiration of this said term of imprisonment and by commutation of time duly allowed according to law, afterwards, to wit on the thirtieth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty four, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, one trunk of the value of twenty dollars, one hundred and fifty watch cases of the value of four dollars each, fifty other watch cases of the value of twenty dollars each, one hundred and fifty watch movements of the value of ten dollars each, twelve watches of the value of ten dollars each, two hundred pairs of the value of two dollars each, two hundred pairs of the value of one dollar each, two hundred pairs of the value of two dollars each, of the goods, chattels and personal property of one James C. Aldrin, and one trunk of the value of twenty dollars, one pair of the value of twelve dollars, and divers articles of clothing and wearing apparel, of a number and description to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, of the goods, chattels and personal property of one John A.
