<sup>12</sup>
Mr. Mahon

Peter Howard Locksmith
residing 343 - 9th Avenue.

I was engaged at No 45 N 24th St. about the 29th of October '87 to make & fit keys for certain locks.

I went to said home on the 29th said morning the first time & saw what there was to do. From Mr. Robert who had charge of the carpenter. said was to be done on the 1st floor front.
On the 28th of Nov. day (Friday) I commenced to work by fitting keys in locks for top floor down - on said day - about 8 I finished stopped working and I did not return said home until the following week.

I was not in the said home on Sat. falling morning Tuesday or Wednesday or Thursday.

I knew nothing of the robbery until told by Mr. Phillips on the 11th or 13th of November.

Carlos C. De la Torre residing at No 43 West 44th St. says:- On the latter part of September 1907 I hired Hugh McManus, to watch my house No. 43 West 44th St. & keep the same clean while workmen were in it making repairs. I gave him my key. It was customary for him to remain in said house until I would reach it. I would open the door with my own key when he reached the house. When I got into the house he left. would leave. The head carpenter & plumber had keys for the front door. I do not know what time he reached the house in the morning I do not know but I found him there every morning that I called from the Buckingham Hotel at 50 St & 5th Ave. where I was stopping.
He remained there and in my employ until almost the beginning of November; about one month in all.
About the 14th of October I cleared out the drawers of an old bureau and removed all its contents to another bureau in another room on the same floor & while doing so the defendant who carried said contents to me handed me amongst other things a box containing the jewelry in question and other articles of jewelry.

I sent her out of the (make same statement as the informant made - the police court.)

The room containing the bureau was locked. <sup>My daughter took away the key</sup> I day or two afterwards Left came to me in my house & said that my daughter had taken away the key of said room, and as it might be necessary for the plumber to test the faucet etc. he wanted it. The next morning I brought it & the plumber came to me for the key which I gave to Left. I never saw the key after that.

Things went on until Saturday Oct. 29 - in the evening when I locked my house & found a note affixed to the front door. (see note.)

I waited a long time, & trying to wait or or needing <sup>some</sup> <sup>one</sup> <sup>to</sup> <sup>go</sup> <sup>to</sup> <sup>the</sup> after waiting three Left came from <sup>the</sup> <sup>door</sup> at around the corner and the first thing he said "have you missed anything from the jewelry box. I missed something blue from it."

I went to the house with him, went to the drawer above mentioned & found all the described in the information missing.

I said "Why could take the things when you had the key?"

He replied "I forgot to lock the room".
She began to cry and said he did not know & thought he took them.

~~I had my room locked & sent him away home.~~

I asked him "How did you know I had the key?"

He said "Do you remember the. I discovered it accidentally the evening you sent me for your overcoat.
I went to that drawer to look for it. That's how I knew the key was there & I have been taking care of it ever since. I sent today when I went to look at it again, I found something blue missing. & I thought perhaps you might have taken it yourself."

Affidavit—Larceny.

Police Justice.

in said room and was being assisted by said defendant, said deponent opened said bureau drawer and said said property there, sent said defendant on a message, and when said defendant left said room, deponent took said property out of said bureau drawer and placed the same in a bureau drawer on the third floor front room of said premises. Deponent all the doors leading to said room with a key and placed the same in his pocket. That between the 20th to 24th days of October 1887 said defendant came to deponent with a view of the plumbers so engaged in said premises and asked deponent for the key of said room stating to deponent that the plumber wanted to test the water faucet in said room. Deponent gave the said key to said defendant. Deponent told him to be sure and lock the said room again and not to allow any one in there, and return the key to him that night when he deponent again returned.
Deponent further says that when he returned that night, he did not receive the said key, but two days after wards said defendant came to deponent and gave him the said key, and asked deponent if he had missed any of the said jewelry, when deponent replied to defendant "how did you know I had any jewelry here?" when said defendant replied "I saw it once when you sent me to wash after your arrival in the bureau drawer by mistake." and Deponent watching it ever since and having failed to carry out of our orders to lock the door I missed a blue locket from the jewelry case. And I thought you (meaning deponent) might have taken it. Thereupon deponent went to the drawer in the room where said property was and found said property gone: when deponent asked him why he did not lock the door as he was ordered to do, said defendant replied he had forgotten it but that he had seen <sup>one</sup> man who was employed in said house enter the said room where said property was about 11 o'clock that morning and that they may have taken it. Dependent is informed by Samuel Mills of 902 3rd Avenue that at said time he was one of the floor polishers and was employed in said premises, and that he is one of the persons referred to by said dependent as the person who entered said room where said property was, and that he was company with George H. Knight of 195 West 10th Street were employed on the 2nd floor of said premises on said day, and that he did not leave the said floor at the time mentioned by said dependent and that he comes back here left the same without said Knight knowing it. Dependent is further informed by George H. Knight that neither himself or said Mills left said floor on said day from the hour of nine o'clock am until 12<sup>30</sup> m. when they left said floor together; Dependent is further informed by said Mills that the day before forenoon referred to he saw the said dependent in a room on the top floor of said premises examining the drawers in said room.

Dependent therefore charges said dependent with the larceny aforesaid. Dependent further says that when he sent said dependent for his account he told him it was in the pocket, and that said dependent had no right to go to the upper drawers where said property was.

in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a brick building in the English Ward of said City and which was occupied by deponent as a Liquor Store and in which there was not at the time a human being, by Brokers and were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking off for the reasons following, to wit: That about the hour defendants within said store on their knees behind the bar and saw them crawling into

Called an officer and entered the store and found that the window opening into the yard from the back room had been forced open, the iron bars securing the same having been wrenched off. That the cigars had been taken from behind the bar and tied up in a paper, and that the money and picture had been carried away. That defendant is now here informed by officer Harold that the stolen picture aforesaid was found in the possession of the defendant Ignace after his arrest, and defendant identified it as the stolen one above described.
