Count of General Sessions

The People }
vs

William Adler }

City & County of New York Q. D.

William Adler being only sworn says: that he never before has been convicted of any offence; that he is and has been simply a clerk at a salary of $10. a week; that he has no other interests and never had any directly or indirectly in the business of selling lotteries or policies; that he has only been such clerk for about one month that the acts charged against him in the said indictment were performed and committed by him as such clerk. That since the said indictment against him he has left said business, and does not intend to again engage in it.
