OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AGAINST

Hamilton Spelt

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse
Hamilton Spelt

of the CRIME OF Peck LARCENY, —
committed as follows:

The said Hamilton Spelt, —

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the seventeenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ninth at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one John Broderick who was then indebted to one Frank H. Chase in the sum of one dollar, —

of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said
John Broderick, —

That the said Hamilton Spelt was then and there a collector for the said Frank H. Chase, and was then and there authorized by the said Frank H. Chase to demand, collect and receive from the said John Broderick, the amount of the said indebtedness for and on behalf of the said Frank H. Chase.

And the said John Braden

then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Hamilton Lytle

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Hamilton Lytle, the sum of one dollar in money, lawful money of the United States of America, and of the value of one dollar, of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

John Braden

And the said Hamilton Lytle did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said John Braden

by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said John Braden

of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Hamilton Lytle was not then and there a collector for the said Frank H. Chase, and was not then and there authorized by the said Frank H. Chase to as aforesaid by the said Hamilton Galt to the said John Braden was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said John Hamilton Galt

at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said
Hamilton Galt
in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said John Braden then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and

THE PEOPLE

vs.

EDWARD GAVACAN.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART I.

BEFORE JUDGE COWING.

Wednesday, April 23, 1890.

Indictment for burglary in the first degree.

George B. Mertz sworn and examined.

I am a servant for Mr. Livingston at 18 West 10th Street in this city, I was in that house on the night of the 7th of March last and slept down in the basement, my room is in the middle and then comes the kitchen. I saw the prisoner at the bar that night in my door, he was not employed by Mr. Livingston as a servant, I never saw him in that house before; on the night of the 7th of March I was awakened by a sort of dead sound upstairs, I was in bed, I was dozing, I got up and lit my gas and looked at my watch, it was ten minutes to four in the morning, I dressed myself; as my bedroom door opened the man stood there looking me fair in the face; the light was as bright as I could turn it on, he stood right in the door and stared me in the face, I had a good look at him and I am positive he is the man. I asked him what he wanted and I told him he had better get out; he went out through the basement hall, I started upstairs and looked up and there was another man at the top of the stairs with a candle; the prisoner made no answer when I spoke to him; he was dressed as far as I could take notice that night in a sort of dark suit, he had a hat on, I did not notice anything in his hand, he went out leisurely, I think he opened the basement door to go out; that door was locked that night, the cook locked it up, I saw that the door was locked up before I went to bed, I saw him walk up through that door into the street; the other man whom I saw at the head of the stairs halloed, "is that you"; the prisoner at the bar went out when I started to give the alarm upstairs.

The man at the head of the stairs said, "is that you?" I says, "yes", and he threw a piece of sperm candle at me and let a vile name fly at me. I picked up that candle afterwards; that man did not belong in the house, I went upstairs after him and do not know what became of him, he went out through the window where they came in. I looked at the window which was hoisted, the lower panel was broken. I did not see that window when I went to bed, the parlor maid generally locked it in front. The next time I saw the defendant Gavacan was in the 18th precinct, it was along about the 25th of the month, he was among four men, I had no difficulty in identifying him, I walked up and said that was the man that was in my room.

Cross Examined. I can't tell the size of my room for I never measured it, the gas is about eleven feet from the door, I saw the defendant after he had the door open, I heard the door open, that was not the noise that attracted my attention and it was the sound upstairs; the gas fixture was a little over five feet high upon the wall; I was five feet seven inches from the threshold of the door at that time, I spoke first but he never opened his mouth. I did not follow him, I went upstairs to give the alarm, I could hear him at the basement door, it was the only door that he could get out in the road, I heard the door open, I did not see him go out because the hall was dark, I did not examine the doors but I saw that they were locked, I turned the knob of the door that goes out into the street. I saw the other man distinctly who had the sperm candle in his hand. Mr. Livingston was in his room at the time. I don't know just the date when I saw the defendant at the 18th precinct. I got word from Mr. Mulvey to go down to the Station House, I met him on the way but nothing was said going to the precinct, I had a little idea in my head what it was for.

I came out of a little room and there were four besides the Defendant standing there; the officer asked me if I could identify the man, I walked up to him and said that he was the man that was in my room; the other men did not resemble him, one of them was I suppose a little taller than the Defendant, I never saw the men before, I am positive the Defendant did not say a word. It was just ten minutes of four when I looked at my watch. I can positively identify the prisoner as the man who was in my room.

This is the dwelling house of Henry B. Livingston. I was aw wide awake as I am sitting on the chair when he came to my door; the reason why I did not catch him was because I had nothing to defend myself and I did not wish to be cut up.

Henry B. Livingston sworn and examined.

I live at 18 West 10th Street in this city and resided there on the 7th of March of this year. I heard the testimony of Kertz as to the occurrences in that house at four o'clock on the morning of the 7th of March, I remember being awakened by him early that morning, I should say about four o'clock. I looked at my watch after some time had elapsed and it was about fifteen minutes past four, I was wondering if the police would never come; Mrs. Livingston had rung the district alarm and called out of the window but her voice is very delicate and she did not make much noise so I thought I would try myself. I returned from a little whist club of ours where we play whist once a week with Mrs. Livingston about half past twelve and the house was then securely locked, I locked the front door which is my habit always before going to bed and I look at all the front windows. Did you on this night? I presume I did because I invariably did it, I have no positive whether I did it or not that particular night. I went downstairs in the house before the police came in the house. The police had arrived but were outside but would not come in the house until they got more policemen and a lantern. By that time we had lit the gas in the upper halls which had all been put out. Mertz started to go downstairs by the front stairs which lead from my part of the house down and I was behind him, having by that time a revolver which had not been loaded. I told him that he had better not go down; then we went down and we saw the curtains that separated the drawing-room from the hall blowing into the hall and we went into the room, he went in first and lit the gas although I told him he had better not. I found my stick and another silver headed umbrella lying on the carpet alongside of the door, then there was a cloth which I used to cover the card tables, a little green cloth on the floor. I found that the lower blind on the right hand side going into the house from the street was blowing; that blind we secured by an iron bar an inch wide and three eighths of an inch deep; the lower right hand side of the blind had been kicked away from its fastenings, the hinges had given way and it had been picked up and put on the side of the window and the other side was barely hanging on, the bar was bent certainly an inch out of plumb; the window had been simply raised up, I think the window had not been fastened because it has a very peculiar lock and if the sashes are not exactly even it does not hook and you can raise the sash very easily. When I came into the house I noticed the window was down and afterwards when I went in the room the window was up. I did not touch the window until the policeman came and he entered under the bar, he said he supposed that the man came into my house that way instead of through the door; he and two others came through the basement because Mrs. Livingston asked the policeman to come in the house; the policeman said the basement door was open. The prisoner is not in my employment. I missed some property that night; I missed a silver surrounding to a photograph frame which was on velvet also a brass medallion, a little old curio thing and a silver paper cutter, I suppose the property was worth $18.50. I was awakened by a confused noise from below and I went out in the hall, the hall was dark and the servants were alarmed upstairs and they shrieked in a very fearful manner.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

POOR QUALITY

0000

The Case for the Defence.

Bridget Gavacan sworn and examined.

I am the step-mother of the Defendant and live at 398 Front Street and recollect the 6th and 7th of March last because on the afternoon of the 6th I had been very sick all night, I was waiting for a bill to be paid for my rent was due on the 7th; a young lady named O'Connor who is in Court came down on Thursday about half past five o'clock in the evening on the 8th of March and paid me $4.50 that she owed me; I was very sick and she came in and I asked her to remain till my step-son came home as I was alone; she remained until he came home and I was in bed when he came at half past nine, he said to me, "Mother, have you got one of those attacks again?" I said, "yes, I am very glad that this girl came in to stay with me for I was here alone"; he asked me if he could do anything for me, I said no, I did not think there could be anything done just then unless I got worse, then he would have to go for the doctor; this girl and him stayed up and I was getting worse and I asked this girl if she would make a fire and put some warm water on and apply some flannel cloths to my stomach; she did so, that was after twelve o'clock and it did not seem to give me any ease and after that I don't remember anything at all. In the mornin she asked me if I felt any better, she left ten or five minutes to six, my step-son went with her to go to the cars and he told me he would bring some brandy in when he came back. I only wish to swear to the events that occurred up to twelve o'clock.

I asked the girl what time it was when I asked her to put the water on and she said it was twenty minutes past twelve.

I asked her in the morning what time it was she was going to work and she said it was ten minutes to six.

Cross Examined.

I have got three rooms.

I am no relation to the girl, I sewed for her the last eight or nine years, she is a domestic, she lived in the Cambridge, she lives with her sister now in First Avenue between 16th and 17th Streets, she is no relation to my step-son, he has seen her several times coming on business to my house. My husband is not living, he died in New York at 528 East 14th Street, I knew this young woman at the time, she did not attend my husband's funeral, I have known her since she was a little girl; she never visited me at 528 East 14th Street, I lived there in 1876, I moved up to 76th Street and Second Avenue, I went to live with my mother, this girl did not visit me there, I moved from 76th Street to 508 East 13th Street and have lived there two years.

Annie O'Connor sworn and examined.

I live 289 First Avenue with my sister and mother and before that I lived in the Cambridge Hotel for seven months. I recollect the 6th of March last, I was paid on Monday, the 3rd of March and I owed Mrs. Cavacan a bill of $4.50 for making a dress, I went up to her house in Front Street to pay her bill at half past five on Thursday, March 6th, and I found that she was very sick and there was nobody there and I stayed until half past nine when Eddy Cavacan the defendant came in. I told him I left my place and he said, "you can stay all night as long as my mother is so sick"; she is his step-mother; so I said I would and I stayed all night; at half past twelve she got very bad, I lit the fire and prepared hot cloths for her and coming on morning she got worse and I asked Eddy if there was any mustard in the house? He said no, he would try and find some in a neighbor's house, he went out and returned, he went out about twenty minutes past three, the clock was on the shelf in the bed-room, he was gone about five minutes and came up again, he took a small flask and went out again when the half hour struck by the clock, he was gone about ten minutes for I watched the time, I was afraid of his mother on account of her being so sick, I watched the clock, it was twenty minutes to four when he returned without the liquor, he said there was no store open, he stayed in the house till six o'clock, I put on my clothes and told him I was going home, Eddy left me to the car in Grand Street at six o'clock. I am positive that from twenty minutes to four o'clock until six o'clock that the defendant was in my presence at 393 Front Street on the night of the 6th and the early morning of the 7th of March.

Cross Examined.

Mrs. Gavacan was awake in the morning and she was very bad, I told her I would call back and see her, I did not see her again until about two weeks after, the Defendant was arrested at that time. I was very small when I knew Mrs. Gavacan first, I was living in 15th Street when I knew her first, I left home to go into service seven months ago, she has always made my clothes, I remember when she lived in Second Avenue and in 13th Street. I know I paid her the bill I owed her on the 6th because I got paid on the 3rd. She told me that Eddy was arrested, I did not know what it was for, she said he was charged with committing some offence on the 7th of March. I says, How could that be for I was there all night on the 6th and he left me at the car on the 7th. She said he was down in the Tombs charged with burglary committed on the 7th of

0684

March, I did not go down to the Tombs to see him until last Friday when I went down with his mother, I did not speak a word to him about the burglary but I told him I was very sorry to see where he was. Mrs. Cavacan did not tell me what she was going to swear to. I am not engaged to be married to the Defendant and I am in no way related to him.

Mary Hartnedy sworn.

I reside at No. 807 Ninth Street, my husband died on the 6th of January, I recollect the 6th of March last and on that evening I was in 398 Front Street with the housekeeper Mrs. Wooley, I remained there all night, I saw the Defendant on Friday morning, I should judge it was twenty minutes past three when a knock came to the door; the lady that I had remained with is an invalid and not able to get out of bed, she asked me to see who was at the door, I asked who was there and the answer I got was, "Eddy"; she told me to open the door, I opened the door and the prisoner came in, he asked for some mustard, that his step-mother had been very ill; there was none in the house and she suggested that he should get brandy; he returned up stairs and came back in the space of five minutes, it was then twenty minutes after our; while he was speaking to the lady it was twenty minutes past three; I waited until he returned, I asked him if he got the brandy and he said no, it was then twenty minutes of four, I saw him again a few minutes ~~at six o'clock~~, he was leading a young lady to the car I suppose, I know her when I see her, she was a witness before me. I am in no way connected with the defendant, I never saw him over twice in my life until that night.. The reason why I know that these occurrences happened on the morning of the 6th instead of the morning of the 7th is that my husband was two months dead at that time, he died on the 6th of January and this was on the 6th of March. I did not go there on the 5th of March and stay over until the morning of the 6th, I went there on Thursday night and left there on Friday morning, I saw the prisoner there at twenty minutes to four.

Cross Examined.

My husband's name was John A. Hastedy and he died at 132 Avenue D in this city, he was attended by Dr. Vandergrift, he had a complication of diseases, he was twenty-six years old and was born in the 7th ward.

Thomas Mulvey sworn.

I am an officer and arrest Gavacan on the 24th of March in 57th Street, I told him I arrested him for a burglary in Mr. Livingston's house in West 10th Street, he said he did not know anything about it; Mr. Livingston reported the burglary at Headquarters and he gave a description of the man that his servant had seen and afterwards this defendant was arrested by Officer Wade of the 18th precinct and brought to Police Headquarters at nine o'clock in the morning, he was placed between forty or fifty men and in my opinion he filled the description given by Mr. Livingston's man.. I went to Mr. Livingston's house and made an appointment with his man Mertz to meet me at the 18th precinct Station House; he came there and Detective Corey went out and brought two young men in something about the prisoner's age and there were two importuned deponent to give him said sum and he would make ^{deponent} a partner and of the great advantages and success it would be for deponent financially. Deponent believing that the defendant would take deponent as a partner and permit deponent to share in the profits and advantages of said business, gave to the defendant said Three hundred and fifty dollars. The defendant thereafter continued to treat deponent as an employee and deponent at every opportunity demanded of the defendant that he should keep his promise and permit deponent to act in the capacity of a partner but the defendant put deponent off from time to time until deponent insisted strenuously upon the agreement the defendant discharged deponent and would not permit deponent to continue in the business. The defendant has at various times given deponent various sums of money amounting to the sum of One hundred and twenty seven dollars and the defendant still retains the sum of Two hundred and twenty three dollars. That since deponent has been ejected from said business the defendant has sold or transferred said business and deprived this deponent of his share or interest therein to which he was justly entitled to and the defendant appropriated the proceeds to his own use and benefit.

The said Thomas Fendley,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fourteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one William A. Henthorn

of the proper moneys, goods chattels and personal property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said
William A. Henthorn,

That he the said Thomas Fendley then carrying
the name
on business in partnership with one Spencer
in and by the name and style of Gawley & Spencer
at number 11 Duane Street, had made arrangements with the said Spencer concerning the dissolution of the partnership between them; that the said Spencer was about to go out of the business and to go to his home in Washington in the District of Columbia, and that the said

Thomas Spender had arranged to procure for the said Spencer a situation in the Government Printing Office in Washington aforesaid, that the said Spencer had agreed the sum of five hundred dollars in and about the business of the said copartnership and that he the said Thomas Spender desired to return to him the same amount, that the said business was a well paying and profitable one and its daily receipts amounted to from forty to eighty dollars and sometimes as much as one hundred dollars in Kentucky for hours; and that he then desired to go with to have the said William Henthorn as a partner in the said business, and to give him a half interest therein for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, And the said William Henthorn

then and their believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Thomas Spender

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Thomas Spender the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars in money, lawful money of the United States of America and of the value of three hundred and fifty dollars,

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said

William Henthorn.

And the said Thomas Spender did then and there feloniously receive and obtain the said proper moneys, goods, chattels, and personal property, from the possession of the said William Henthorn

by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, with intent to deprive and defraud the said William Henthorn

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Thomas Spender had not made arrangements with the said Spencer concerning the dissolution of the said partnership; and the said Spencer was not about to go out of the business or to go to his home in Washington aforesaid; and he the said Thomas Fugate had not arranged to procure for the said Spencer a situation in the Government Printing Office in Washington aforesaid; and the said Spencer had not spent the sum of six hundred dollars in and about the business of the said partnership, and, he the said Thomas Fugate did not desire to return to him the same amount; and the said business was not a well-paying and profitable one, and its daily receipts did not amount to from forty to eighty dollars and sometimes as much as one hundred dollars in twenty-four hours; and the said Thomas Fugate did not then desire in good faith to have the said William Thornton as a partner in the said business, or to give him a half interest therein for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Thomas Fugate to the said William Thornton was and were then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as the said Thomas Fugate at the time of making the same then and there well knew

And so the Grand Jury Aforesaid, do say that the said Thomas Fugate in the manner and form aforesaid, by the means aforesaid, the said proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said William Thornton

then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.
