The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Henry Smith } Before Recorder Smyth. Nov. 28. 1853 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.
 Charles E. Hackett sworn. On the 9th of this month
 I had a store at 60 Nassau St. for the sale of umbrellas and traveling bags; on that day the prisoner came into the store about 20 minutes to six o'clock in the evening. I had a gold watch and chain lying on a shelf where a young lady sits all day at 22 minutes to six. I picked it up and looked at the time.
 I always clear my window out every night and I put the watch back in the box before the prisoner came in; the box was on a shelf under the window; the watch and chain were worth fifty dollars. I put it in this box two minutes before this prisoner came in. I turned round very quietly, I seen the prisoner in the store and I asked him what he wanted; he must have seen the watch in the box as he came in; he was standing very near to me; he pointed to a bag in the further corner of the window and wanted to see it. I went for the bag; he was at the side of me; my face was to the bag in the window; it was turned away from him. I showed him the bag;
 it was thirteen dollars, and he offered me ten dollars for it. I told him, no, and he backed out of the store, and then as he got on the block to go to John St. I thought his actions suspicious and I went to the door of the store to look for him and I could not see him. I went directly back and looked for my watch; the box was there, but the watch and chain were gone. No other person came into the store while the prisoner was there. There was no other person in the store up to the time that I detected that my watch and chain were gone except the prisoner. Cross examined: I did not call the prisoner back until I missed my watch and chain. I called my man to stand and watch the door while I went to look for him; he had run up in the building; the tenant up stairs brought him down. When he backed out of the store he went towards John St. I saw him. That was before I missed my watch. I next saw him with one of the tenants in the doorway of my building, 62 Nassau St. This was two or three minutes after he left the store. He came back into the store with me. I caught hold of him and brought him back. I charged him with taking my watch. I told him to own up to the truth of it. I asked him to give me my watch and chain. He said he had not it. I said, you had better give it to me or I will send and get an officer. He said, "I have not got it." I demand my liberty. I sent for a police man and the prisoner remained in the store till he came and he arrested him. The box in which the watch was placed was not covered. A person standing as close as the prisoner was to me could see the watch. The young lady who was working there all day went home at a quarter past five. The man I had working there was in the basement at the time the prisoner was in the store. I recovered the watch and chain.

0203

The next morning we found it in the cellar way of 64 Nassau st. the prisoner was standing in 62. I know well how the prisoner got down there.

Thomas M. Cunningham sworn. I am a member of the police force and arrested the prisoner at the bar on the 9th Nov. at 60 Nassau street about ten minutes to six in the evening. I took him to the station house and searched him and only found a few cents on him. I did not find the watch. I went to search for it and did not find it. That is all I know about the case.

Herry Smith, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I am originally from Chicago and have been living in Baltimore running on the boats. I was in the city four days before I was arrested. I was stopping in Wooster Street, 218 I think is the No. I am a waiter. I heard what the witnesses testified against me. I went into this store to purchase a bag. I had a bag like one I saw in the window. I wanted to price it thinking I might get it cheap. He asked me $13 for it. I told him it was too much; he would not sell it for less than $13. I went out and enquired for a man named Johnson who told me he worked in Nassau St; the evening before that I loaned him a dollar. The complainant came after me; he said after I got in the store, "I want my watch that you have taken." I said, "What are you talking about? I have no watch. You are at liberty to search me." He said, "If you give me the watch and tell me the truth about it I will let you go." He said, "I have not it." They did not take my money. I had $4.50. I did not offer ten dollars for the bag. I said it was not worth more than ten. I have some of the money in my pocket now. I spent some of it at the Tubs for something to eat. The jury rendered a verdict of Guilty.

CASE 13,249.

Dec. 5, 1883.

Officer Young went to Tombs Prison and learned that boy Thomas Duffy was sent this A.M. to General Sessions Court, to receive his sentence and hasn't returned yet.

Went to General Sessions Part 2 and there learned from Justice Gildersleeve that he would like Officer to see the parents of boy and have them in Court, and also make an investigation in regard to boys character and surroundings &c. and report to-morrow A.M. will remand the boy till that time.

Officer Y. found boy in General Sessions Prison. Learned from him that he will be 16 years of age on the 8th of January next, mother Mary Fagan, resides on the South side of 96th Street, between Lexington and 3rd Avenue, on the Rocks, occupies a whole shanty. Stepfather Christopher Fagan was a drunkard, and so mother turned him out of doors, which was 2 years ago, at home are step-brother John Ward 15 years and James Duffy 17 years. Mother has been married 3 times, says he was employed up to 3 months ago in the American District Telegraph Company, corner of 64th St. & 3rd Avenue, and since then has been doing nothing, was in the Company's employ 2 months, left of his own accord, was never arrested before. Officer Y. went to 96th St. on the Rocks, Mrs. Fagan not at home, gazed in the window and found her house comfortably furnished, clean and tidy.

Learned from neighbors on the Rocks that boy Thomas does not work and associates with a gang of idle boys all day, he is very mischievous and has no respect for his mother, he is constantly pilfering and will not look for work, talk well of Mrs. Fagan, say she is a temperate and hardworking woman, also learned that some 2 weeks ago John Ward stepfather to Thomas was arrested for burglary and discharged for want of evidence. Left word for Mrs. F. to be in Genl. Sessions Court Part 2 to-morrow 11 A.M. Officer Y. went to 64th St. & 3 Ave. South west corner and there saw Supt. in charge of Am. Dist. Telegraph Co., learned from him that he never had a boy in his employ named Thomas Duffy, also made a search in his Time book for the last 7 months and the name of Duffy did not appear thereon.
