Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Annie Williams

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Annie Williams

late of the ~~Tenth~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~10th~~ day of ~~December~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~three~~ and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Annie Williams on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Annie Williams of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Annie Williams

late of the ~~Tenth~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the ~~10th~~ day of ~~December~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~three~~ and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did maintain a certain common, ill-governed house, and in ~~her~~ said house, for ~~her~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, as well men as women, of evil name and fame and dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and willfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, and on said other days and times there to be and remain, tippling, drinking, gaming, cursing, swearing, quarreling, making great noises and otherwise misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and willfully did permit and suffer, to the great annoyance, injury and danger of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State there residing, and passing and repassing, to the common annoyance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.—And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Annie Williams of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said Annie Williams

late of the ~~Fourth~~ Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the ~~seventh~~ day of ~~December~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~three~~ and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in ~~her~~ said house and place of public resort, for ~~her~~ own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women, in ~~her~~ said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully, did permit, and yet continues to permit, by which the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

the second floor of _____ and which was occupied by _____ as a Dry Goods Store and in which there was at the time a human being, by name Mrs. Jolly were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly breaking open the door of the said store leading into the hallway on said second floor, or unbolting the locks thereof on the 30th day of November 1883 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz: One Box of made up goods for ladies and childrens wear, containing one Ladies' Opera cloak of the value of Twenty five dollars a number of articles of infants clothing and other property, of the value not all of Three Hundred dollars and good and lawful money of the United States nickel and copper coins of the value together of Fifty Four cents; in all of the value of Three Hundred dollars and Fifty Four cents, the property of the New York Exchange for Women's Work, a corporation of the State of New York and in the care and custody of deponent as janitor of said premises and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by William H. Williams, now here for the reasons following, to wit: Deponent is informed by Ann Mangar, wife of deponent, that at about six o'clock on the afternoon of said day she closed said premises, locked said door, and took the key thereof which she kept in her pocket until she gave it to deponent at about seven o'clock, when deponent put it in his pocket and retained it there until after the time of said burglary. Upon receiving said key from his said wife deponent attached the burglar alarm on said premises which connects with said door and with the office of
