FOURTH DISTRICT POLICE COURT.

of No. the 16th Precinct Police of the City of New York being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 12th day of December 187*9* at the City of New York, in the County of New York, and at about the hour of 4 o'clock on the afternoon of said day, one Mr. Edgar, of the New York Stamping Company, called deponent into the office of said Company, at premises No.

311 and 313 Avenue A., for the purpose of putting out of said office two men who were acting in a disorderly manner.
 That said Edgar then and there pointed out to deponent James Murphy (American) Thomas deponent by the alias of Dennis Silluppi, and John Connors, New York, known to deponent by the alias of Liverpool Jack, and stated to deponent that said men had no right or business in said office and had been violent, abusive and disorderly therein, and requested deponent to put said men out of said office. That deponent ordered said men out of said office and persuaded them to go away.
 That deponent then walked up Avenue A. to 22nd Street and returned to 311 and 313 Avenue A. and saw a crowd of men and Cops collected about the entrance to the office of said Company. That deponent then went into said office and found said James Murphy and said John Connors again within said office. That Mr. Edgar asked deponent to arrest said men, charging them with Disorderly Conduct and a breach of the peace. That deponent thereupon placed his hands upon the shoulders of each of said men and said to them "I am going to arrest you on this gentleman's Complaint." That said 0865

Murphy then pulled away from defendant and jumped back some three or four feet from defendant, and defendant instantly heard the report of a pistol and felt himself wounded in the right thigh. That defendant then saw a pistol in the right hand of said Murphy and saw said Murphy raise the hand containing said pistol and aim and point said pistol at defendant's breast. That defendant then attempted to close with said Murphy at the same time letting go defendant's hand of said Corcoran, whereupon the said Murphy did while holding said pistol to pistol at defendant. Fire off and discharge the contents of one shell of said pistol at defendant a ball from said pistol so fired off by said Murphy entering and wounding defendant in the right fore arm. That defendant then closed with said Murphy and threw him to the floor and attempted to take the pistol out of his grasp and succeeded in causing him to drop the pistol on the floor. That while struggling on the floor with said Murphy defendant received a kick on the left eye and looking up defendant saw said Corcoran standing close behind defendant and no one else near to defendant; and defendant is informed by George Goettmann, here present, that

He, said Gottmann, saw said Connors administer said stick to deponent.
That deponent then succeeded, with the assistance of officer Smith and other officers, in conveying said Murphy and said Connors to the Station House.

That deponent therefore charges and alleges that deponent was so feloniously assaulted and beaten by said James Murphy alias Kennis Gillespie and said John Connors alias Simpson Jack, with the felonious intent to take deponent's life or do deponent great bodily harm.
While deponent was in the proper discharge of his duties as an officer of Police, and deponent being so feloniously assaulted and beaten by said defendants without any cause or justification on the part of said assaults.

 That deponent has ^{read} the foregoing Complaint of Sergeant Michael Fanning and knows the contents thereof and that the same is true of deponent's own knowledge.
 Deponent further says that while the said Sergeant Fanning was struggling on the floor with the prisoner James Murphy, now here, deponent saw the prisoner John Corran, now here, violently kick the said officer, with his right foot, upon the eye, after the said officer had been twice shot by the said Murphy.

Edward Newman
 No 84 Broadway
 (with Stiles as Partner)

Edward Newman states that some time in July 1879 he saw an advertisement in the N.Y. Herald which set forth that a young man was wanted who had Wall St. references, and he thinks the answer was to be directed to "Wall St. References, Herald Office". Newman answered this advertisement and 2 weeks later received a Postal Card signed J. F. Morse requesting him to call at some number in Dry Street after 3 pm. Newman called at the number given in Dry St. (below Church) and saw Morse and the latter told him that he had been engaged in the grain business in Phila. and had failed consequently he could not use his own name. He had come on to New York with a little money and he wanted to find a young man with good Wall St. references, banking references, prepared, to go into business with him. He then asked Newman for his references and upon hearing them he turned to Dun & Barlow's register and examined it and said they were first class. He then asked Newman if he (Newman) went to his references and told them he had made $10,000 in stocks and intended going into the grain business would they believe it. Newman told him that he didn't know. Morse then unfolded his plans which were that Newman should use his references in buying grain. Morse was to order cargoes of grain from Chicago to St. Louis and use Newman's name and references, that this grain was to be at 60 days, and Newman was to give his note for it; that on its arrival it was to be sold for cash or at 15 or 20 days and with the proceeds they would start a truck shop in Hall St or neighborhood. Newman was to be in the office and Morse was to do the purchasing and selling.

Newman promised to call on Morse the next day but did not do so.

Some short time after this Newman answered another advertisement similar in purport but worded differently and received another Postal Card signed "J. Morse" asking him to call after 3 p.m. but Newman did not call.
