CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK,

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

That

Augustus E. Pabel.

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid, on the twenty-eighth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy-eight~~ one, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud ~~the~~ The Twenty-Third Street Railway Company a corporation incorporated and organized under the laws of the State of New York.
did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to Charles Lewis who was then and there an agent and servant of employed by the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company.

That he the said Augustus E. Pabel was then and there named Johanie Terry (John Terry meaning thereby).
That he the said Augustus E. Pabel was then and there one Johanie Terry (one John Terry meaning thereby) the son of one George Terry the superintendent of the said the Twenty third Street Railway Company.
That he the said Augustus E. Pabel was sent by the old man (the said George Terry meaning thereby) to get and procure horse medicine.
That he the said Augustus E. Pabel was told by the said George Terry to get and procure the sum of three dollars in money of and from him the said Augustus E. Pabel with which to procure said horse medicine and that he the said Charles Lewis could and would get the sum of three dollars in money from the Receiver of said Company at the office of said Company.

And the said

Charles Lewis

then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said

Augustus E. Pabst

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Augustus E. Pabst, the sum of three dollars in money and of the value of three dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company and the said Augustus E. Pabst did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of three dollars in money of the value of three dollars of the said Charles Lewis, as such servant agent and employee as aforesaid and of the Twenty-third Street Railway Company of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company of the same.

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was not then and there or ever named John Perry or Johnie Perry but was then and there named Augustus E. Pabst: and

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was then and there John Perry, the son of the said George Perry the superintendent of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew: and

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was not then and there or ever sent by the said George Perry to get or procure any horse medicine or any medicine whatever as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew:

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, ^{he} the said Augustus E. Pabst was never told by the said George Terry to get or procure the sum of Three dollars in money or any sum of money whatever of or from him the said Augustus E. Pabst or any person whatever with which to procure any horse medicine or any medicine whatever as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew: and Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was never told by him the said George Terry that he the said Charles Lewis could or would get the sum of Three dollars or any sum of money whatever from the Receiver of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company at the office of said Company or elsewhere as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew:

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Augustus E. Pabst to the said Charles Lewis was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Augustus E. Pabst well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Charles Lewis to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Augustus E. Pabst by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly did receive and obtain from the said Charles Lewis ^{his agent, agent and employee aforesaid} the sum of three dollars in money and of the value of three dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud them of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

And the said

then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said

and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Augustus E. Pabst, the sum of three dollars in money and of the value of three dollars.

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

and the said

did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of three dollars in money and of the value of three dollars.

of the said

Charles Lewis

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said

by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said

of the same.

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was not then and there or ever named John Terry or Johanne Terry but was then and there named Augustus E. Pabst: and

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was then and there John Terry the son of the said George Terry the superintendent of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew: and

Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was not then and there or ever sent by the said George Terry to get or procure any horse medicine or any medicine whatever as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew:

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, ^{he} the said Augustus E. Pabst was never told by the said George Jerry to get or procure the sum of three dollars in money or any sum of money whatever of or from him the said Augustus E. Pabst or any person whatever with which to procure any horse medicine or any medicine whatever as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew: and Whereas in truth and in fact, he the said Augustus E. Pabst was never told by him the said George Jerry that he the said Charles Lewis could or would get the sum of three dollars or any sum of money whatever from the Receiver of the said the Twenty-third Street Railway Company at the office of said Company or elsewhere as he the said Augustus E. Pabst then and there well knew:

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Augustus E. Pabst to the said Charles Lewis was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Augustus E. Pabst well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Charles Lewis to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Augustus E. Pabst by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Charles Lewis, the sum of three dollars in money and of the value of three dollars

Charles Lewis with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.
