Indicted for grand larceny in the first degree.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

Asst. District-Atty. James W. Osborne;

Mr. J. Canton.

I live at 454 West 37th. Street in the city of New York. I have been living there for the past two years. I know the defendant. On the 10th. of April 1893 I saw him at a pool room on Tenth Avenue and 37th. Street. I had a watch in my pocket at the time I saw him. The watch which is now produced was the one which I had in my vest. I had it in my vest-pocket at the time I met this defendant. I value it at $50. At about half past two o'clock in the morning I left the pool room in company with the defendant. He came along with me to my house. When the defendant saw me going up the stoop of my house he asked me if I lived there. I said yes. He says: "Have you got any key?" I said I had, and when he got me engaged in looking for my keys he took hold of the chain of my watch, grabbed it and off he started. I went down to the corner after him. I could not see him, as he had turned the corner. I went as far as 38th. Street and I asked an officer if they had seen him. I did not see my watch afterwards until I saw it in a pawn-office in Brooklyn. I went over there and identified it as my property. I then made a complaint in the Police Court against the defendant and had him arrested.

Cross-examination:

I am a bar-tender. I was not working at my business on the night of this occurrence. I had one drink of whiskey on that evening. That is all. I was not under the influence of liquor. I never had any conversation with the defendant previous to this evening, although I knew him by sight. My watch and chain was ^{not} exposed to the view of any person who passed me on the street. I am quite certain that the defendant grabbed my chain while I was engaged looking for my keys. I did not call "Police" but started after him and he disappeared around the corner.

CLARENCE H. HAMILTON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

My grandmother is sick and she sent me here to take her place as a witness. I know the defendant at the bar. He came to our house 445 West 26th. Street in the month of April and hired a room from my grandmother under the name of Johnny Reilly. I am certain that that is the name he gave her. I never knew him by the name of Haggerty at all.

JOSEPH HARRIS, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a pawn-broker doing business at 245 Court Street, Brooklyn. About the 10th. or 12th. of April a young man giving the name of Reilly came to my pawn-shop and pawned the watch and chain which I now produce with me for $10. I am not positive but I think the defendant is the man who pawned it.

Cross-examination:

I did not look very particularly at the face of the man who pawned the watch. I could not swear positively that the defendant was that man.

PATRICK CURRY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer connected with the 20th. Precinct. I arrested the defendant on the 26th. of April. I searched him and found fifteen keys on him. I also found three pawn tickets. Another officer brought the man as far as the Station House and then I took him into custody. I do not know anything about the defendant whatever.

D E F E N S E:

CHARLES HAGGERTY, the defendant, sworn, testified:

Previous to my arrest I lived at 428 Seventh Avenue. I am 19 years of age. My occupation is that of a painter. The last work I did was about three months ago. On the morning of the 10th. of April I did not steal a watch from the complainant. I did not see him on the 10th. of April. I have been in his saloon quite frequently and he has sold me drinks, but I did not know him intimately at all. On the night of the 10th. of April I was in a pool room at 478 Tenth Avenue during the evening. That pool room closed up about fifteen minutes after two o'clock. When it closed up I went to the opposite corner with the pool balls to leave them there for the night. The proprietor asked me to go over there with four boxes of pool balls and that he would give me a drink. We had a drink together. I then went to a lodging house on Eighth Ave. I did not see the complainant on that evening at all and had no knowledge that his watch was taken until I was arrested. I did not pawn any watch in the pawn shop in Brooklyn. The little boy who was here to take the place of his grandmother told the truth so far as my going to his grandmother's house was concerned. I did go there, but I gave my name as Charles Haggerty, and not as Reilly.

Cross-examination:

I have never been convicted of any crime. The proprietor of this pool room can testify that I was with him until his place closed up on the night of the 10th. of April. As soon as he locked up the place we both went across the street together, had a drink and shortly after that I went home.

5.

FRANK MERKLE, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I know the complainant. I also know the defendant. The defendant was in my pool room on the night of this occurrence until the place closed up. I then asked him to take some pool balls across the street for me, which he did. We then had a drink together and he left me. The complainant came to me on the next day and asked me about his watch. I told him I would try and get it for him, but was unable to do so.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

you for taking Thomas Minnagh's watch. and he said I did not take it. I do not know anything about it.

I searched the defendant when I brought him to the Station House. and found 15 or 18 keys. and two pawn tickets. and a plain common watch chain. I asked him what he was doing with the keys and he said he found them. The pawn tickets were for clothing.

He was arrested before for stealing a watch but was discharged. He told me of the loss of his watch the following Sunday. He described the man as wearing a light suit of clothes and hat.

I told him that I would try to get it before 12 tomorrow if I could. I was going back to Haggerty. He had it. I thought I might find it as he was only before accused of stealing a watch. I saw a piece of paper on which was written the number of the watch and the no. of it where found. It was in Brooklyn. I have seen the fellow who had this ticket containing the no. He comes into my ^{billiard} room I have seen him quite Statement of Thomas Minnagh.

I live at no 454 W 37th and work at no 480 - 10th ave. I am a bar tender for Peter Donnelly. On the morning of the 10th of April 1893 between half past two and three o'clock. he took from me, snatched out of my ^{vest} pocket breaking my watch chain, leaving only the pin in my button hole, a gold watch and chain and charm. I was at this time coming from a walk in 36th St. He was walking by my side from 37th St & 10th ave up 37th St. I was going up the steps when he said "do you live here." I said "yes." I said "have you no keys." He said "no." we walked up the steps. I was looking for my keys. had my hands in my pockets when he snatched my watch and chain and ran away. I ran after him to the corner and there missed him.

I sent the det. Hayes & Cunniff after this fellow and they arrested him on the 26th of April.

I can identify the defendant as the man who ^{snatched} ~~snatched~~ my watch and chain.

This was the only conversation I had with the deft.

The watch.

I was told by Andy Morris a pal of Haggerty's that the watch was pawned at 245 Court St Bklyn. Morris had a note containing No. of Base. and place where watch was pawned. I went to Bklyn. got out from 3rd Precinct. D. Bklyn went pawn shop. and saw the watch and identified the watch. The watch is still there.

Haggerty has been living at 445 W 27 under the name of Johnny Reilly and the watch was pawned under name of Johnny Reilly 320 Court St Bklyn.

Frank Merkall keeps a pool room at 484-18 ave told me about Apr. 20 that he thought he could get the watch for me. I said alright I will pony up. Morris was there at the time. and Morris said give the ticket to me and I will give the ticket to Minnagh and no one will know anything about it.

Julius Urban heard conversation between Merkall and myself when he said that he could find watch.

Minnagh. " Mrs. Haggerty he had a furnished room with her 445 W 27.

The People
v.
Thomas Hanley

Count General Sessions. Part I Before Recorder Smyth. May 22. 1893 Indictment for grand larceny first degree James Schanck sworn and examined.
Testified. I am fifteen years old; I live at No. 332 West Fifty Ninth street. I work as a hall boy in the Revere apartment house, Seventh Avenue and Fifty Ninth streets. I have been employed there since last Tuesday. I left P. H. Vanderhoof. I was in Fifty Second St. on the 5th of May between seven and eight o'clock in the evening. I was walking through there and a lot of boys says, "Will you give me the price of a pint of beer?" I says, "I did not have it. They said, you had better or I will take all that Co. D. money off you." I was going to give them the price of the beer when Hanley jumped up and took the pocket book and took all the money out of it and gave it back to me; there was 56 cents in it. Had you ever seen the boy Hanley before? Yes, I seen him before in Fifty Third street. How long had you known him by sight? About a year.
Do you know any of the others who were with him at the time? No.
Where was the pocket book when Hanley

Took it? In my right hand Cross Examined. After he took the pocketbook what did he do then? He took all the money out, gave it back to me and they all ran away. What did you do? I went down to Policeman Wayne and told him. Where did you see the policeman? Fifty Second street and Tenth avenue. Whereabouts in Fifty Second street did they take the money from you? Right near Tenth avenue.
 Did the policeman go after him? No; he said he knew where he was and he would get him for me. I did not tell the officer the boy's name, but he knew it.
 When was Hanley arrested? I do not know.
 Cross Examined. How many other boys were there at the time?
 I do not know how many, seven or eight.
 I was excited; the boys came up to me.
 A big fat fellow spoke to me first. I do not know his name and I could not identify him. Were all the boys standing close by you? Yes; they had me in a regular ring; they were all surrounding me. Some of the boys were larger and some smaller than Hanley. It was the large fat boy asked me for money for the beer. Then the defendant came up and grabbed the pocketbook. I had it in my fist and my hand down by my side. This little boy walked up and opened your hand did he? Yes, not only him, but a whole lot more. Did the others help him to open your hand? No, he opened my hand. This little boy took you with one hand and forced your hand open with the other, did he? Yes. Did you have a struggle there? Yes. I had a big basket on my back and I could not do anything. Did any of the other boys help this little boy? No, he ~~did~~ ^{did} it all himself; there were a whole lot surrounding me. What did you have in your other hand? I was holding my basket. You did not drop the basket? No. Whereabouts, on the corner was this? I guess about fifty feet. It was rather dark was it not? No, it was between dusk and dark; it was between seven and eight o'clock in the evening of May 8th. How long after that was it you say the defendant, three or four days? No. I did not see him again till I went up to Fifty Seventh street. How many days after he took your money out of the pocket book was that? I think three. Then I saw him up at the Fifty Seventh street Police Court. This officer had him there. The defendant is the only boy I could identify. The fifty cents I had was not my money; it was Mr. Vanderhooft's; it was C.O.D. money. Did you give that money back to Mr. Vanderhooft? yes.

Thomas Wayne, sworn and examined. I am a police officer connected with the Twenty Second Precinct of this city. This alleged larceny was reported to me on the evening of the 8th of May between seven and eight o'clock. Where were you at the time it was reported to you? At the corner of Fifty Second street and Eighth Avenue. The complainant told me about it, and the next night I passed there I looked around for this Haukey boy, and a woman came down and made another complainant against him of stealing. I found him in Fitzpatrick's saloon No. 428 West Fifty Second street between Ninth and Tenth Avenues; he was up against the bar. I told him what I arrested him for, that the boy Schenk charged him with stealing. He denied it and had no other conversation with him.

Thomas Hankley, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified:

By General You know what you did when you took that book in your hand and kissed it, you mean to tell the truth? Yes.
You have heard the story told by the little boy upon the stand? Yes. He says that you stole a pocket book from him, did you ever steal it? No sir. I hope I may die in this chair if I ever do it; I hope I may never get up off this chair with my life.
State what happened? I stood by the iron railing, and a couple of more boys went out and asked him (the complainant) for ten cents, and the fellow said, he aint going to give them ten cents, and a couple of more fellows said, "If you dont give us ten cents, I will take all the money you have off you." One fellow walked out and grabbed the pocket book out of his hand. He was just taking the pocket book to give the fellows ten cents and one of the boys grabbed the pocket book out of his hand. Were you with the other boys who asked that little boy who was on the stand for ten cents? Yes. Did you have anything to do with taking that pocket book? No. I live with my mother at No. 463 ^{4th} Second street. I scrub and sweep for her; she is a janitor. I have never been convicted of anything before.

Cross Examined. Where were you at the time when you saw these boys come up and ask the boy Schenck for ten cents? I was standing by an iron railing on the sidewalk and a couple of more fellows. I was on the up town side, the same side that they were. I only know the name of one of the boys who was there; it is Murphy; he lives in Fortieth street. I know him well; he took the pocket book.

When you were arrested did you tell the police officer that you knew this defendant Murphy? Was he the one who took the ten cents? Yes. Did you tell him you would try to find him? No. I did not tell him I would try to find him. I saw the pocket book taken from the complainant. Did you call any one's attention to it in order to get the money back for this boy? No sir. Did you call it a shirt? I walked right away when it was done.

Q You did not go and tell a policeman?
A No. You knew they were doing wrong when they took that boy's money away didn't you? Yes. You knew there was a big crowd and he was all alone didn't you? Yes. Did you not know it was your duty to call somebody's attention to it? Yes. What did they do with the money afterward? I could not tell what they done with it. What were you doing in this saloon at the time you were arrested? I just walked in with a fellow; it was Murphy; the boy who took the pocket book. This was two nights after the boy had lost his money.
Had you ever been in that saloon before? No; never in my life. How long had you been in the saloon before the officer arrested you? About a minute.
You did not have a chance to get a drink? No. I had never been in the saloon before. Murphy and the other fellow who was in the saloon ran away and I got grabbed. Murphy went in with me. Did the officer tell you what he was arresting you for? No.
I could not tell you who the other fellow was. I don't know where he lives.

Have you ever worked for anybody else except for your mother? Yes, about six months ago. My mother used to keep me home. Six months ago I was working in a paper factory at Campbell's Fifth Eighth street and Sixth and Eleventh Avenue. I left it because I only got three dollars a week. I did not work for anybody after that. I saw my mother last about two weeks ago; she is sick; she has not been to see me, but my brother has; my brother is twenty years old. My brother has been to the rooms of the Society to see me.

Attorney: Officer Wayne recalled by the District I heard. The statement made by the last witness. I heard what he told about the boy Murphy at the time I arrested him. He did not have anything to say about Murphy. They were all standing at the bar, and as soon as I walked in they all ran out. Knowing this particular boy and having a complaint against him I looked him up. Have you ever seen them in their company before? Every night in the week in the company of the other boys. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

of No. House of Detention Street, aged 37 years.

occupation carriage painter being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 24 day of April 1893 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the Great Britain consisting of One hundred and fifty three sovereigns of the value of Seven hundred and forty nine dollars the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by John Hurley (now here) for the reasons that deponent was temporarily stopping with the defendant at his residence at 46 Rutgers Street and the defendant had knowledge that deponent was in possession of said money. Deponent had said money in a bag which deponent carried in the pocket of the coat which deponent wore on his person. That in the afternoon deponent while under the influence of liquor, was lying ^{asleep} on a lounge in the apartment. Deponent was suddenly deponent's body and saw the defendant leave the room and deponent discovered that said money had been stolen. Deponent pursued the defendant but he escaped. When defendant returned deponent spoke to the defendant of said loss but the defendant disclaimed all knowledge of it and deponent retired and on the following ~~morning~~ deponent found said bag in said pocket and upon examining it found that it contained thirty nine sovereigns. Deponent by reason of the circumstances charges the defendant with stealing said property.
