Court of General Sessions. Part 4.
 Before Judge Cowing. April 28. 1884.
 Indictment for grand larceny in the second Charles L. Ross sworn. I resided at 9 Washington Place and my business is traveling salesman for the firm of Rigley & Co 79 and 81 North St; on the 1st of April about 11 o'clock in the morning I was in the neighborhood of Astor Place. I don't know exactly. To the best of my recollection I had about eight or ten dollars. I was landed in the station house and afterwards taken by the officer to Jefferson Market. I never had seen the prisoner before. Cross Examined.
 He gave me between two and three dollars back; it was in my vest pocket where I always carry it. I think it was about 11 1/2 o'clock; it was 12 1/2 when I was at the station house.
 Frank Barter sworn. I reside 66 East Third St. and am in the picture frame business at No 6 Astor Place. I was present when the prisoner was arrested. I gave the information which led to his arrest. I was crossing Astor Place from Broadway on the 1st of April about 12 1/2. I was going to my lunch. I live on the east side. I saw the defendant put his hand in the vest pocket of Mr. Ross; he was lying on the sidewalk. I supposed he had fallen; he was lying on the sidewalk near Lafayette Place and the prisoner put his hand in his right vest pocket and took it away again, but I could not say that he took money out of it. Then he walked away from Mr. Ross and left him there and walked in an uptown direction. I kept my eye on him and then the crowd gathered around there and I heard somebody say, "that young man has went through this man." I also said so, and just as I accused him the officer came along and took him and I was a witness. The whole thing did not take five minutes. Cross Examined. The prisoner when he stood over the complainant had his face toward me. I never saw the prisoner before that day. I am not acquainted with a bar tender named Joseph Gibbons. I was employed by the firm in Astor Place about a year and a half. I was employed before that at 52 Beekman st. in the same business. I did not lost sight of the prisoner from the time he took his hand out of the right hand pocket of the complainant until he was arrested. I could not say whether he had his hand by his side. I followed the prisoner in a little while after I saw him put his hand in the man's pocket.

0840

David A. Tully sworn. I am an officer and arrested the prisoner corner of Astor and Lafayette Place; he said he did not have any money in his pocket; the last witness on the stand charged him with taking the money and he said he did not have it. I told him to put his hand in and fetch it out; he put his hand in and brought out a comb, a scrap of paper and a laundry ticket; then I put my hand in and fetched the money out and when I got to the station house I found it amounted to $4.55 - four dollars in bills and 55 cents in change. This was about 20 minutes to one in the day time. I brought the prisoner to the station house and went back and got the complainant at Lafayette Place; some citizens had him trying to get him away; he was able to walk by my taking hold of him; he had $2.60 left distributed around his clothing. Martin M. Narnara sworn for the defence. I am an engineer and machinist and at present I am employed in Temple Court. I was formerly employed in the Gramercy Park hotel. I know the defendant four years; he has worked for me and I always found him very faithful and honest. If I had a situation I would take him in my employ now. George Hopcraft sworn. I keep a restaurant at 57 Franklin St. the prisoner was in my employ. I always looked upon him as being honest.

Frank Kearns sworn. I generally attend bar. I was employed in the Hoffman's house five months. I left the 10th of March and was paid $25. I had been waiting for a job which I was promised in Seventh Ave and 36th St. the money that was found on me was my own. The complainant was lying on the street as I came across from Third Ave. and Ninth St. I thought it was a fit he had. The man Barter asked me if I would give him a hand? I said, yes. We picked up the man and sat him on the sidewalk. I had hold of his legs and Barter his two arms and shoulders. The pants of the complainant were open and I closed them. I swear positively that I did not put my hand in his vest pocket and did not take any money from him. I did not tell the officer I had no money. I have always worked for my living.

Frank Barter was recalled and said that the prisoner did not help him with the complainant.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

The People
vs

Court of General Sessions. Part I James Kelly & Before Judge Cowing. April 29. 1884 Indictment for robbery in the second degree Herman H. Mees sworn. I live 70 West 126th St. and have been there about three years. I was passing through North Third Ave. and 134th St. on the 28th of March about 4 1/2 in the afternoon and I saw the prisoner.
 I never saw him before. I had pantaloons on my arm; he took hold of the pants and asked me how much the pants cost. I said, I did not know, I could not tell; he said, "I want to know, I want to have a pair like them." He walked on after that, I told him to let them go; he would not do it. As soon as we got to the corner he took the pants with one hand and struck me right in the face; then I let the other goods that I had on my arm drop. I had never seen the prisoner before.
 He pulled the pants off my arm. I got them back. As soon as I went for him he dropped the pants. The blow did not knock me down but pretty near; the officer came up and arrested him. Cross Examined. It was perfectly light when this happened. I don't know where the prisoner came from. I did not see him till he took hold of the pants.

0054

Don't you remember he accidentally rushed against you? No; he told me he wanted to have a pair like them; that is what he said. Was he not drunk when he came up to you? I do not know. I could not tell. Did you not notice he had been drinking? I could not tell. Did he get the pants away from you? Yes sir, he did. He took them out of my arms, I went for him right away and the pants dropped. Some people halloed out, "What are you doing? are you robbing?" and he ran away from me. Did not he walk away and did not you walk in the other direction? No, he ran away. Bernard O'Rourke sworn. I am not a policeman at present, but I was so on the 28th of March. I arrested the prisoner. I was standing on the corner of 134th St. about a quarter to four o'clock and Third Avenue with another officer. Looked across the way on an opposite corner and I saw two men tusseling on the corner. I started across the street, and when I got to the sidewalk I saw the prisoner let go of the man and run on the street. I asked the complainant what was the matter. The prisoner ran down the street. I called to the other officer and told him to go through the next street above

0855

He ran towards the canal in 134th St. and I ran toward the same street after him and the other officer ran through 135th St. and headed him off crossing the fence on the 135th St. side; he ran through the lumber yard and attempted to cross the fence and the other officer headed him off. That is where I arrested him. Was the prisoner intoxicated? Not that I noticed. Sober as far as you could see? Yes sir. Cross Examined. I was attracted by the scuffle going on between the prisoner and the complainant. I saw the coats and pants lying on the side walk; he ran about a block away.

James Kelly sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am 20 years old. I am a truck driver and have been in no other business since I have been able to work. I have been working for the Jordan L. Mott iron works at Harlem. I have worked there off and on for five years. I used to drive a coach in the Park before that. I was steadily employed up to a week of my arrest. I was never arrested for any criminal offence before this. I remember this day in question. I left home about seven o'clock in the morning. I was around the foundery all day. I had been drinking pretty freely all day. I remember going in several saloons. I had come to this Lager beer saloon between 134th and 135th sts. and had been fooling inside with a friend of mine, skylarking. Coming out of the door I happened to meet the complainant and suddenly bumped up against him and I excused myself and walked with this gentleman about twenty feet. We had a few wads and I admit hitting the man but as far as the robbery is concerned I am an innocent man. I never made any attempt at taking the property from the man. Why did you strike the man? It was all through liquor, I was intoxicated at the time, it was through passion that the whole thing occurred. I was under the influence of liquor and was never arrested before for any criminal offence. Cross examined. I have worked for Jordan L.

 Mott off and on for five years. I could not say whether he knows me, but that I know him. I have gone by the name of McDaniel because my mother was married twice.
 After I hit the man I did not exactly run away, I walked pretty lively away. I did not want to be arrested. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.

The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I Edward Kielblock } Before Judge Leeming. April 14, 1884 Indictment for Burglary in the third degree.

John J. Maguire, sworn. I am a merchant at 263 Grand St. I was there on the 31st of March last. It was on Monday night the 31st of March it was robbed. The cashier told me that on that night the defendant went down to the back part of the store about seven o'clock to the water closet; we closed the store that night about 7 1/2 o'clock; the store is secured by two doors bolted inside with bolts and outside that is two wire doors which are bolted well inside and nobody can get in without breaking the doors; the third door is in the middle and it is locked from the outside; the wire doors extend from the ground probably five feet and above that is an open space so that a person could get over it by standing on a chair. These doors are so arranged that a person inside of the store is completely closed, locked for the night they could slip one of the bolts off the side door and pass out and with a chair climb up over the wire door and get away. We left in the store 0934

$245.50; the safe was out of order and I told the cashier to put this money amongst full boxes in the fixtures in one empty one I was not there; my business is lace and fancy and straw goods. I did not see the defendant in the store at all. About half an hour after the store was closed to the public it was closed for the night. Cross Examined. I had eight or nine employees on this particular day, the cashier, the porter and myself left the store together. I could not swear that I saw the cashier put the money in the box that night or not. I have known the defendant six or seven years. About two weeks before his arrest he came to me and told me he was going out West, to New Mexico or some place with a young man down town; he asked me for a certificate of character and I gave it to him. He used to watch the goods outside of my store on Saturday nights for years, and up to this time I had nothing against him. There are three doors leading to my store. I saw personally that all these doors were locked, I saw that the shutters on the two windows were locked. There was no way of getting into the store after we left it except by breaking into it.

0935

Alexander B. Stewart sworn. On the 31st of March last I was cashier for John T. Maguire at 263 Grand St. I closed up the store that night. I first bolted the two side doors and then went out of the middle door with Mr. Maguire and the porter and then locked the door from the outside; the wire doors are locked on the outside. I was in the front of the store ten minutes before it was closed for the night. I could not see all persons going in and coming out at that time. After balancing my books I counted the cash and put it in a box which was over the head of the desk and placed in a fixture. There was about $260 in the box and some loose change. The loose change was not taken. When I returned to the store I found at the end of the door a board reaching to the side of the door where it was put on to let it drop down so as to hold it instead of bolting it; the door had been unbolted, but it was bolted the night before. The officer called my attention to it at half past seven; he told me he put the board there. I have known the prisoner seven or eight years and saw him in the store that evening half an hour before we closed up. He came down to the desk where I was and spoke to me, and from there he went around to the water closet; he was there when I was handling the cash; I saw him the next day when he was arrested. He was not employed that day in the store to my knowledge.

Cross Examined. This affair took place on Monday night; the defendant had been working in the store the Saturday night before. I was not at all surprised to see him around there that Monday night, for he has been around there often waiting for his sister. There was $2.45 taken and $15 left, which was loose change. I am in the habit of paying the help. I did not pay the defendant anything the week before. I don't know whether Mr. Maguire paid him anything or not that Saturday night. The bills were two fives, two and ones. There were two five dollar gold pieces and 50's, 25's and ten cent pieces in silver. When the defendant went to the water closet I did not see him return and did not see him after that. In a kind of a half jest he said to me before he went to the water closet, "Mr. Stewart, do you want a Superintendent?"

Annie Sullivan sworn. On the 31st of March I was in the employ of John S. Maguire 263 Grand St. I left the store that night about 25 minutes after seven. There were three or four in the building when I left - Mr. Maguire, Mr. Stewart and the porter. I went out of the middle door; the other doors were closed. I saw the prisoner in the store that night. I saw him when he walked down to go outside and then I saw him just as we were closing up going up stairs about five minutes before I went out; the doors were closed when he went up stairs. I saw him go up the front stairs to the salesroom above. I did not see him come down. I was standing in the middle of the store; he did not come down and pass out while I was there; he could not have gone out of the store without my seeing him. Cross Examined. When I saw the defendant first he went outside to the closet. I did not notice whether he stopped to speak to the cashier. I did not see anybody else go towards the closet. I made no remark to any person about his going up stairs. I don't know whether anybody else was up stairs or not. I was engaged in covering up the goods.

0938

When the defendant went up stairs the store was closed. I know I left Mr. Maguire, Mr. Stewart and the porter there when I left, but I cannot say what others were left there. There was a young lady who works up stairs who came down, and she is the only one who came down; she met him up there. The defendant could not have gone out of the store without my seeing him. I did not see him go out. Alexander C. Stewart recalled. The bills were done up in rolls and the $15 loose change was in a little hosiery box which was put in a larger box. There was a gold watch also in the box which was not taken; it was done up in white paper. This store is next to Lord and Taylors. (The witness described at length the interior of the store by the aid of a diagram.) John H. Layton sworn. I am an officer of the 10th precinct. I discovered the door of 863 Grand St. to be open on the 31st of March. The door nearest the east door on the side; the grating was loose; there are two braces on each side that holds the grating from the top; the grating goes down to the bottom. I saw two screws on the top of the chain. I pulled the grating back and went inside. I called another officer and searched the place and could not find anything. Both bolts were pulled back - one on the top and one on the bottom; the chair was standing between the iron grating and the main door, so that a person standing on that chair could have got over it. I supposed it was an accident - that they did not lock the place; I reported so, but the next day I heard a burglary was committed. I called the attention of the man who relieved me to the condition of the door at six o'clock. Thomas W. Mubrey sworn. I belong to the Central police office and arrested the prisoner on the 1st of April about 1 1/2 in the afternoon corner of Delancey St. and the Borey. I searched him at the Central office and found $72 in money and tickets for New Mexico, a gold watch and chain, a pin, and a check for a valise, which was at the Occidental hotel where he told me he had stopped the night before. He afterwards told me how he registered. I went to the Occidental, presented the check and got a hand bag which contained underclothing, stockings, cigarettes, a revolver and cartridges. The prisoner said he occupied room No 132, and upon looking at the Register, I found that room was occupied by one "Ed. Allen." I went down to a ticket agency place 407 Broadway in company with Mr. Maguire; he presented the tickets to see if he could get the money refunded. We were told that a young man, who gave his name as Ed. Allen, whose description tallied with the man I had arrested, bought the tickets there that day; they refunded the money for the tickets.

The next morning going to Court, I said to the defendant, "Is this your bag?" He said, "yes." I asked him where he got the money? He said it was from savings and that the tickets were furnished him by Mr. Cohen. I arrested the defendant from information that Mr. Maguire had received from the prisoner's mother that he was seen that morning in a place in Delancey St. I went to Delancey St. and found where he had visited that morning. Cross Examined. I got information that he was not living home with his mother but was at Mr. Hillier's in Delancey St. He did not say to me that he was going to J. M. Cohen, New Mexico; he mentioned that he got the tickets from a Mr. Cohen, but he did not mention New Mexico.

Tuesday, April 15, 1884.

Daniel M. Brown sworn for the defence. I am in the sewing machine business in 282 Grand St. I know the defendant; he worked for me about three years ago. He took out goods for me C.O.D. and he always returned the money regularly to me. His character is good. I never heard anything against him or for him.

Gussie Morris sworn and examined by the District Attorney for the people. I am a cash girl in Mr. Maguire's store 263 Grand St. I left the store in the evening in question about 7 o'clock. I saw the prisoner that evening in the store; he was going upstairs; it was near seven o'clock. I did not see him come down. I was in the store all the time. I can swear that he did not come down while I was there. I left before the store was locked up. I went out of the middle door. I left Mr. Maguire, Mr. Stewart and the porter. Raphael Kanosa sworn. I was the porter at Maguire's store, 263 Grand St. on the 31st March. I saw Annie Sullivan going out of the store by the middle door. I was standing there; the side doors were shut. I know the prisoner. I did not see him in the store that night and did not see him leave.

I stayed there until every one had left.
Michael H. Keller sworn. I reside at ~~403~~ ~~Broadway~~ 30 King St. and do business at 403 Broadway. I know the prisoner. I saw him in the Railroad office 411 Broadway.
I am a ticket agent; on the 1st of April about 11 o'clock in the morning he came in to buy a ticket to Deming, New Mexico.
I sold it to him for $66 and $5 for a sleeping car to Chicago; he gave me the name of Allen. I knew him by sight.
Henry Miller sworn. I have known the prisoner two years. I reside 61 Delancey St. I recieved a despatch from the prisoner April 1st about 12 o'clock at noon, dated Occidental hotel, N. Y. "Meet me at the Occidental hotel. Ed." I went there and met the prisoner. I did not have a conversation with him in regard to his leaving nor in regard to the money; he told me Mr. Maguire was backing him to go out West; he said that he was backing another young man to go to New Mexico; the prisoner told me he was going to California and had a ticket in his pocket. The conversation was in regard to how he was able to go to California and he said Mr. Maguire was backing him.

Edward A. Fitzgerald sworn. I am clerk in the Occidental hotel corner of Broome St. and Bowery and was the night clerk there on the night of the 31st of March. I do not recollect the prisoner, but I recollect a person registered himself as Edward Allen at 1/4 to 12; no other Edward Allen than the one registered at the hotel on that night. Henry Miller recalled. The prisoner resided at that time in 89 Orchard St. That is where his mother lives.

Alexander C. Stewart recalled. I did not know that the defendant was going to Mexico. I keep the keys of the store at night.

Minnie Kielblock, sworn and examined for the defence. I am the sister of the prisoner. I know Mr. Maguire and worked in his store for the last six years every Saturday evening. I refused to work for him after my brother was arrested; he was working there the Saturday before his arrest. (Witness explained the diagram of the store) and said it would have been impossible for Annie Sullivan to have seen what she swore she saw of the movements of the defendant up stairs.) I was aware that my brother was going to New Mexico on Sunday the 30th of March. My sister, myself and brother started to go to Maguire's store on Monday evening the 31st of March; he intended to buy some under clothing because he could get them at a deduction if Mr. Maguire was in. He went in; we stopped outside. He came out and said Mr. Maguire was not in; then we walked to the corner of Lord and Taylors. I decided to walk down to Jewetts and there I bought him a gold watch. From there we walked up to see if Mr. Maguire was in the store; when we got there the store was closed. My brother was with us all the time; then we walked up to the Bowery and there we left him; that is all I know. When we got back to the store and found it closed it was about 7 1/2 o'clock. The watch that the detective found on him was the one given by me; it cost $25. I gave him the watch in case he might be in need and that he might have something to fall back on. My sister, Mrs. Young, gave him $25 the same night. He has often appeared in theatrical performances for charitable benefits and he went by the name of Allen. Cross Examined I would not go back to work for Mr. Maguire because he had accused my brother wrongly.

I live at 89 Orchard St. three blocks from the store. I never heard of any trouble my brother had with Mr. Young in regard to some gold that had disappeared. I was not around at the Police Court the morning my brother was arrested. I could not say whether my sister was or not. I had not heard that Mr. Young had lost some gold. Bertha Young sworn. I am a sister of the prisoner and my husband is in business at 183 Avenue B.; he is a gold leaf manufacturer. I own real estate in this city. I remember accompanying my brother and sister on the 31st of March from my mother's house; we walked up Grand St. to Mr. Maguire's store. When we got there I said to him, "you go in alone, and Minnie and I will wait outside. So we waited outside and Eddie went in, but in a very few moments came out again and said that Mr. Maguire was not in and that he could not get the goods at a bargain because he would have to pay the same price as any regular customer would. From there we started up to Jewett's; this might have been about seven o'clock. My sister bought him a watch as a remembrance as she thought in case of need he would have something to fall back upon or in case he would spend all his money. After getting through our business there we walked back again ~~thinking~~ Mr. Maguire got there by that time, but when we got there the store was closed. it was all dark, all the curtains had been put up. Were you aware of the intention of your brother to go to New Mexico before this? Yes sir. He mentioned it several times before. I gave him $125 in bills; we left him in the Bowery Cross Examined I gave him the money on Monday evening before we went out. My brother will be 17 next June my husband spoke of missing some gold but it was found immediately after in the barrel where sweepings are always put. My husband did not go bail for my brother I did not offer to go bail for him either. Edward Kielblock sworn. I was born in this city and will be 17 years old in June. I worked for my brother-in-law and worked for Mr. Maguire several years. I have never been arrested charged with a criminal offence before. I worked for Mr. Maguire two years and a half steady. I had occasion to work there every Saturday evening to watch the goods outside the store. On this Monday evening I was in Mr.

Maguire's store. I went there to see if he would not give me underclothing cheap. He was a friend of mine and always gave me a reduction on what I bought. I left my sisters outside, and I asked a young lady in the store if Mr. Maguire was in. She said he was up stairs. I did not feel in a hurry going out. I went back to the desk and asked Mr. Stewart in a joke if he wanted a Superintendent and he said, No. I went to the water closet and then went up stairs to see Mr. Maguire. There was a young lady there and I asked her if Mr. Maguire was there. She said he had just went down. The young lady was dressing to go home; she went down and I went down after her. I went outside and joined my sisters, and from there we went down to a jewelry store in Grand St., Jewetts, near Ludlow St., and my sister made me a present of a watch. When we came back the store was closed. I had no idea of any money being kept in a box as the cashier explained; while I was in Mr. Maguire's employ they always had a safe. I swear positively I had nothing to do with the taking of the money. The money that was found on me I got from my sister. I bought some underclothing and a valise with some of it and took them to the Occidental hotel. I intended to go Monday night but could not get the ticket. I had to wait till Tuesday night. I telegraphed to my friend Wm. Miller to meet me there as I had some time to spend with him. I bought a ticket for New Mexico. I did not tell the Police officer that Mr. Cohen gave me that ticket. I told him I was going to work for J. M. Cohen in Silver City, and that is where I was going. Mr. Cohen keeps a large dry goods store. Mr. Maguire knew him. There was a gentleman that worked in Maguire's store left to go to work down there. Cross Examined. I did not know Mr. Cohen personally - only through a friend - about six months ago (Joseph J. Rosenberg). I first made up my mind to go to Mr. Cohen about six or seven weeks ago. On Sunday my sisters informed me if I wanted to go very bad they would give me money. Rosenberg informed me that Mr. Cohen would employ me in Silver City, New Mexico. I paid $1.75 for the pistol, $2. for the valise, and a little over $5 for the underclothing. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.
