The People vs. William Kopp } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Indictment for assault in the first degree. Before Judge Cowing. Dec. 28 1883.

Reynold E. Welch, sworn and examined.
I remember the night of Tuesday the 18th of Dec. at 20 minutes after 10 I was passing along Fifth St. I have seen the defendant as I passed on my way to work, though I never spoke to him. I met three girls and stopped and talked to them. I saw a lot of little boys come and build a big fire; the defendant keeps a lager beer saloon; after the fire went out the boys went and got snow balls and fired at the window. Then the defendant came out with a pistol, walked out to the mud gutter and fired at me. I was standing across the street at the time. He hit me in the eye. I do not know whether I will lose the eye or not. I don't know whether the ball will come out. I did not go to the hospital, but I went to a doctor, Dr. M^cDonald in Seventh St. I have been under his treatment ever since I have been shot. I can feel the ball in my eye. The defendant said he did not give a damn who he shot. What the hell did he care who he shot was the very word he used. I guess I had been standing there an hour before I was shot talking to the girls. I did not do anything to the defendant - never spoke a word to him; I did not throw a snow ball. Cross Examined: I drive a truck for a living. I think there was about a dozen small boys around there. The boys fired at the window once, then ran away and did not come back again. I could not tell what else beside snow balls that they fired. I have been around this place fourteen years. I never fired stones or coal or anything at the defendant's place. I have seen a crowd of boys around there, but I have never seen them fire anything before. I have seen the officer chase them off the corner for hallooing. I could not tell what the boys fired at this place for this time. I had no conversation with them. The defendant was in the saloon at the time they fired and came out. There was nobody else but me to fire at. The three girls and myself stood there. There was two trucks there, but he could see me. There was a lamp post on the corner and one in front of his saloon.

0468

The defendant said, "What the hell I care who I shoot? He went to slam the door and when I went over to tell him he kept the revolver pointed at me all the way over inside his own door. I told him he shot the wrong man, that I was not the one that fired, that I did not do anything to him. The defendant did not say, "I cannot help it, I am very sorry." I have lived in Cooksackie - I was arrested for breaking in a place in Fifth St. and served a term in the penitentiary. That was the only time I was ever arrested. I did not ask the defendant for any money and did not get any money. I did not make a demand for twenty five dollars of Mr. Koppe; his barkeeper did not give me five dollars - not a cent. I was able to walk home that night. I have never been laid up. I went to Dr. McDonald in Seventh St. for my eye. I cannot work with it. Mr. Koppe's saloon is on Fifth St. near Avenue D. right next to a stable. I was on Fifth St. on the opposite side. How far from being directly opposite were you? I guess it was a couple of steps. These tracks lay in the road there.

0469

~~Kate~~ Phelan. sworn. I remember the 18th of Dec. I met Welch in Fifth St. with two other young girls; we stood talking to him and a party of boys were making a fire near Avenue D in Fifth St. right near the sidewalk. One boy fired a piece of snow and hit Mr. Koppe's sign, and then the boys ran away; Mr. Koppe came out while we were standing there; we stood an hour in the one place. We had nothing to do with making the fire. We did not fire stones or anything else. Koppe came out alone; he had a big dog inside but I did not see him. Koppe walked to the middle of the street and fired a shot and struck Mr. Welch. There was a truck there and I was standing about a foot from it. I was standing directly in front of Welch. I turned round and saw the defendant fire. When I saw him run out the boys ran away and one of the young girls said that he might accuse us. I saw him raise his arm to fire. Welch did not fall. Welch went over to Koppe's saloon. Koppe went right back into the saloon after he fired the shot and Welch followed him. I did not go over, I stood where

0470

I was. Welch told Koppe he shot the wrong man, and he said, "What the hell do I care." Then he went inside and I went away. Cross Examined. I live in 15th St. I am around Fifth St. almost every night. I saw the defendant point the revolver. I never saw Mr. Koppe before. I heard Koppe say what I have already repeated. He spoke loud and in English. I have had no conversation with Welch about this case. Rosie Willis sworn. I remember the night of the 16th of Dec. I was in company with Welch and two young ladies in Fifth St. and Avenue D.; we stopped and talked together. I never saw Koppe before that night. I saw a lot of little boys around there making a bonfire and they fired snow balls at the sign across the way. I saw Koppe come out of his saloon. I was standing beside Katie Phelan; he came out very fast; he came in the middle of the street and fired a shot. I saw him raise his hand and fire. He pointed it over toward us; there was no one else around. Welch was shot in the right eye. I ran away with the other young girl. Cross Examined. I could see everything distinctly.

0471

I live in the same house with Kate Thaler. I have had no conversation with her. There was a wagon there. I could not exactly swear as to the position of his arm, but he held his arm high enough to strike the young man. I did not go near the saloon. Kate Thaler went into the saloon with a policeman after the defendant was shot. John B. Lewis sworn and examined for the defence. I have resided in this city eight years. I kept the lager beer saloon before Mr. Koppe. I am acquainted with him about six months; he is a peaceable and orderly man as much as I know. Joseph Foster sworn. I have resided in New York about 26 years. I am a cooper and have known the defendant about three months. I am a neighbor next door to him and always found him peaceable. Francis Eckenroth sworn. I have lived in this city 30 years. I am a wood turner. I know Koppe four years. As much as I know of him he has never harmed anybody. I can give him the best recommendation.

Counsel I have other witnesses as to character. Mr. Vincent. I do not attack his character. The Court. The people concede his character for peace and quietness to be good.

Wm Kopp sworn. I have lived in this city 22 years. I reside at 156 Lewis St. I was the proprietor of the saloon in 5th St. near Avenue D at the time of the shooting about three months. I was troubled almost every night through big boys I went out some nights and chased them away, but that night on the 18th I was troubled for over two hours. They fired coal, snow balls bricks and stones as big as my fist and went right through one of the wire screens outside. So I went out a couple of times, I ran after the little boys, but that was about 8 o'clock when I chased them out of the block, but they kept on firing and firing. By about ten o'clock Officer Phumatter opened my saloon door and looked in and asked me if I was going to the Bowling club tomorrow. I told him, no, I was going to the funeral of a friend of my wife on the 19th. Just as he went round the corner the same firing commenced again. I took the revolver with the intention of firing it in the air, so that the roundsman could hear it, so he could come and get the boys away or take one or two in, so I could make a charge against one of them and stop it.

0473

When I came to the door the shot went off. I cannot tell how; it was in front of the door and not in the middle of the street. Four or five fellows then ran up to Ave. D. and one fellow halloed, "you shot the wrong boy?" I put the pistol in my pants pocket and went to the middle of the street. The complainant came over and said, "you shot me" and you shot the wrong one." I said, "I am very sorry. I did not intend to shoot you." I went back to the saloon, I got myself ready, looked for my coat and I was waiting for an officer to come to arrest me. That is all I can recollect. The officer came with a little girl and she made the charge. I did not intend to shoot any one. I made frequent complaints to the officer on duty about the place being troubled and he said, "Why dont you take a big stick and club hell out of them." I have a big bloodhound in the store. Cross Examined. I took the pistol out of the drawer, I knew it was loaded. It had only one barrel. I cannot tell when I loaded it. I was a little excited. I was not angry. I did not know whether I shot him or not. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.
