STATE OF NEW YORK,

of the City Prison being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 21st day of February 1880, at the City and County of New York,

committed and detained in the City Prison of said City, under the following circumstances to wit: That one Denis Driscoll was on the 21st day of February committed to said Prison on a charge of felony and said Reilly was serving at said time a term of ten days on a charge of intoxication. That while in confinement in said Prison and after a concerted plan was agreed to by said Reilly and said Driscoll, the said Reilly exchanged his hat and coat with Driscoll, assumed Driscoll's name and said his name was Driscoll and that he was charged with felony. That Driscoll, taking advantage of this statement said his name was Reilly and passed out to the outer office to pay the fine imposed on Reilly for intoxication and did pay said fine and was leaving said Prison when charges said Reilly with feloniously aiding and assisting said Driscoll to escape from said Prison.

On Saturday last at about 1 PM I saw the Complainant in Fulton St near Gold. I saw a man take off his overcoat and then approach an other man and speak to him. I was walking behind them. When I reached Gold Street & had crossed a street I observed that the passage way was obstructed on account of moving some article and there were several persons congregated and seemed to be crowding in both directions. I saw the man who had taken off his overcoat turn back and go around the corner. I then saw the Complainant then come down the street and go over to the corner and stop two or three men.
