PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

William Nagle

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The saloon wherein the offense was committed is owned by me and the Complaint against the defendant was originally made by my representative without my knowledge. The defendant broke the glass while in an intoxicated state, and it is claimed on his behalf that it was done accidentally. I learn that he is respectably connected and of good character, and has no insurance upon the glass, no one else, has interest in the loss besides myself, and for these reasons I am willing that the prisoner should be discharged.

Tried & Convicted Burglary

Burglary in the Third Degree
[Section 486, Code of Laws of the City of New York]

0329

Indicted for burglary in the 3rd degree.

FANNIE JONES, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a married woman living at No. ¹²⁰~~West~~^{East} 3rd street in this city. On the 11th day of August I left my home at about 8 o'clock in the morning. When I left there I left my clothes and other property securely locked in my room. I locked the outside door of my apartments. I returned at about half past two or three o'clock. When I got back I found that my bureau had been opened and things taken out of it. I missed several articles of wearing apparel. The door was all right but I saw marks as tho' some one had broken in through the window of the room. The value of the furniture and things in that room when I went out was about one hundred dollars. A pane of glass was broken in the window. Some of the property was on the floor. Five dresses were missing. The value of those dresses I believe to be about eighteen dollars. I met this defendant going down stairs with a bundle and I caught him a few doors away with a bundle under his arm . In the bundle I found my dresses . I positively identify this man and I positively identified the goods as my property at the time. I did not authorize the defendant or any other person to enter my room and take those articles of mine from it .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I have seen the defendant around that neighborhood quite often . I never knew him to steal anything before . When I found him in possession of my property I said to Him "Where did you get those"; and he said to me "Madam, if I knew they were yours I would not have taken them". When he was taken to the station house he made the explanation that he was sent to that house by some other man to get this bundle and that he was on his way with it when I caught him. I did not authorize any other man to send for them. They were secure in my bureau drawer at the time I left the house. I got all my property back.

PHILIP MINER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer in this city attached to the 16th precinct. I arrested this defendant on complaint of the lady. I asked him if he committed this crime and he admitted to me that he had these goods belonging to the complainant in his possession. He was recognised by the complainant as the man who entered her house on the 11th of August and took her things.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

He explained to me that he met a man on the corner of the street who sent him to this house for this package and that he did not know the goods belonged to the lady or were stolen. The remark he made was that if he had known that the goods belonged to the lady he would not have taken them. He told me that he was paid two dollars for going to this house and getting these things. I had no means of knowing whether that story told by him was true or not. I have not verified ^{it} since in any way.

D E F E N C E .

JOSEPH NELSON, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am the defendant in this case. I was arrested by the officer as he has testified. What the lady says in regard to meeting me with this bundle in my possession is true. I did have the bundle with me at the time she saw me. I did take it from this house. I was standing on the corner of Thompson and Bleecker St. on the afternoon in question when a fellow came up to me whom I had seen before but did not know by name: He said "Do you want to make two dollars". I said "Yes". He then told me that if I would go around to a house in Third Street and go up to the second story I would find a bundle there and to bring it to him. I went up stairs in this house got this bundle and brought it down. I met the lady on the stairs. She passed by me not noticing me. Afterwards she came down to me in the street and said I had some of those things of her. I told her that she was mistaken that the things belonged to a man on the corner of Thompson Street who sent me up there to get them. . She insisted that they were hers and I said "Well you look in the bundle and see if they are yours and if you say they are yours why you can have them . I do not want to take anything that belongs to any body else." She looked at them said they were hers, and took them away from me. I went back to the corner of Thompson and Bleecker Street and met the man who had sent me and told him he had got me into a nice fix. He did not say anything but went off and I did not see him again. When I was arrested by the officer and brought before the lady ; I told her that she should not have me arrested as there was another man who was guilty of this and not me. The man who sent me to get this package said to me before he went away "You will never have a chance to get me into this. I am going away". I have never seen him from that day to this.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The story I have told is the truth. The name of the man who sent me for this package is Chick. I have seen him around that neighborhood at times before this. I did not know him by another name than that of Chick. I explained to the lady at the time she caught me that I was simply acting as a messenger for this man named Chick. I have never been charged or convicted of any crime before this. The man who sent me for the bundle described to me just where in the house I would find this bundle of clothes; I went right there and without any difficulty found it. He also said that he was going to point me out as the man who did this so that he would not get into any difficulty himself over it. I was not doing any work fro anybody at the time this thing happene . Imwas shining shoes before that . I have always worked for a living. I worked for a time as valet for one of the sudents at the college uptown . He is now down South. Whenever he comes to the city I do all his work. He is now in Mobile Alabama .

The Jury returned a verdict of Guilty of Burglary in the 3rd degree.
