Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, } 55.

of No. Rossu Alexander Street, aged 48 years, occupation Fruit Dealer being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 22 day of April 1890 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

A Quantity of Fruit of the value of Twenty Dollars.

the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by George Paer (now here) from the fact that deponent is informed by Officer James Brown that at or about the hour of 4 A.M. on said date he caught the said Paer and two other persons who yet are in the act of breaking open deponent's fruit stand in front of premises No 164 Suffolk Street. Deponent therefore charges that the said Paer and unknown persons did break open deponent's stand with the intent to take and carry away said property.

I have consulted with the agent (Mr. Stocking) of the S. P. C. C. and from what he informs me I do not think the people are in possession of testimony that will brandish them in placing the defendant on trial. It is not possible to prove that the girl was not 16 yrs of age at the time of the alleged abduction. The proof obtained by the Society from England shows that the girl was over 16 yrs of age. I recommend that the indictment be dismissed.

of No. 108 Mulberry Street, aged 32 years, occupation Laborer being duly sworn deposes and says, that the premises No 108 Mulberry Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a tenement house, the apartments in the top floor of and which was occupied by deponent as a living apartment and in which there was at the time a human being, by name to wit; deponent, and his wife Budget, and two children were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening a window of deponent's room, leading to a fire escape fronting the same, (and which said window had been closed) on the ~~twenty~~ fifth day of April 1890 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

A quantity of wearing apparel of the value of $5.00 the property of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Joseph Bradley (now here) for the reasons following, to wit: deponent and his family were asleep, when deponent was aroused by hearing the barking of his dog. Deponent jumped out of bed and saw defendant with one leg on the window sill, making his departure. Deponent watched and waited, and saw Defendant entered the room through the said window he had forcibly opened, and when deponent saw defendant's whole person in the said room, he attempted to catch him. Defendant turned, and ran away. Deponent went after defendant, who had meanwhile reached the stairs from the roof, chased defendant down the stairs into the street, where defendant ran into the arms of Officer Thomas J. Dowdican of the 4th precinct who had been attracted by the shouts of deponent. Said Officer then arrested defendant (Bradley) on deponent's charge of burglariously entering his apartments. Wherefore deponent prays that defendant be held to answer deponent's charge of forcibly and burglariously entering his apartments, and attempting to take, steal and carry away the property of deponent and his family from the possession of deponent.
