Court of General Sessions. Part 7.

Before Judge Cowing Jan. 9. 1884.

Indictment for robbery in 1st degree.

George Reichenbacher, sworn and examined through the interpreter. I am working on a farm in Westchester Co. I arrived here on the 24th of Nov. last at 6 1/2 o'clock. I was alone. I had a nickel plated watch for which I paid five dollars. I carried it in the right side of the vest pocket. I had a chain; This is a piece of the chain that I found on the sidewalk (producing it) One part of the chain was in the button hole and the other to the watch. I had $37.85 in money in a pocket book, which was in the right side pantaloons pocket. There was $37 in paper money and the rest was in change; it was all my property. I did not see the prisoners until they came over across the street and robbed me when Kernerly held me. I saw them on the 24th of Nov. When I came out of the saloon it was seven o'clock. I was about to go to Morris St. in a boarding house. This saloon was at 72 Greenwich St. in this city. A man named George Smith left the saloon with me to show me the boarding house. About five minutes after I left the saloon I saw the prisoners. I was walking.

They crossed from the opposite sidewalk to the side where I was. Fennerty threw me on the ground and the prisoners held my legs. Doran with his right hand my knee against the ground and with his left hand ~~he~~ took out, he tore away my watch chain with his left hand; the other one, Julian, with his right leg pressed against my right knee and ~~with~~ his right hand he opened my pocket and with the left hand he took out the pocket book with the money in it. They got up and one, I don't know who it was, knocked me with his foot in the face; they ran away. I got up and cleaned my face a little. All three of the prisoners crossed over to the other side of the street. When they reached the other side of the street, Fennerty and the one who took the pocket book ran ahead and Doran followed them. For about fifteen paces they were running slowly and looked over where I was and then they commenced to run faster and disappeared. Smith whilst Fennerty was holding me he was standing right in the carriage road in the middle of the street. I was calling for "Police". No one came to my help. The robbery was done very quickly. I called three times "Police" and the fourth time I could not call any more. Kinnerty came from behind and touched me on my right shoulder and when I turned my head around I recieved the blow. After the blow he held on to me with one hand by the shoulder and with the other hand he pulled me by my collar and then with his foot he knocked me down. He remained on his feet and I fell. Immediately these two prisoners came and got hold of me by my legs; they all three went off together. These two prisoners were arrested on the 1st of Dec., they were in the Tombs. The robbery took place on the 24th of Nov. Kinnerty was arrested on the 24th of Nov. I dont know where he was arrested. I saw him in the station house. I did not see any officer until I went to the station house. I went over to the Greenwich St. Station house and notified the police and complained of being robbed. I told the police how the prisoners looked, the police arrested Finnerty the same night. I saw him that same night and identified him as the person who knocked me down. I am certain that Duran and Julian are the two who came from the opposite side of the street and took my money and watch. Cross Examined. The prisoners came from the opposite side in a direct line with a wagon which was there. Finnerty hit me first on my mouth and when I was lying on the ground he hit me in the eye. All three men left me at once. I had never seen any of the men before. There was a man brought before me in the station house who was arrested, who bore a resemblance to Duran. There are elevated railroad pillars near where I was robbed. I could not tell whether there were any trains going above me. George Smith sworn. I was with the complainant on the night of the 24th of Nov. I came up to 72 Greenwich St. something about seven o'clock and the complainant and the boss of the beer saloon ~~told~~ at the door. I started with him from the saloon up to Morris

0352

0354

St. Finerty, Doran and Julian crossed the street. I recognize these prisoners. Doran followed us down to 64 and he pushed the complainant; we walked down to 56 and at 38 Finerty knocked the complainant down. I stayed behind at the present time four or five feet. I looked around for an officer. The complainant halloed "Police" three times. I did not see an officer anywhere, and the other two fellows jumped on him and robbed him of what he had. I cannot tell what he had I did not see any money about him. I saw Doran and Julian jump on him. Cross Examined I saw Finerty holding him down and standing over him; the complainant was lying across the pavement; the other men jumped on him; the whole thing was done in two minutes. I saw the two prisoners on the Thursday before this occurred in the night time. I saw their faces plainly. Doran was on his knees at the complainant's feet and Julian was over his body. In the morning I attend bar and in the evening I was watching the boarding house. I never saw the complainant before that night. I saw these prisoners on Friday night about a week after this at 8 o'clock. I told the officers how these men were dressed. A man named Smith was arrested and was discharged. Smith did not look like these two prisoners; he is a good deal stouter. I thought he was the one.

Patrick J. Keeney sworn. I am an officer. I arrested Doran about a week after I heard of the robbery on the 24th I believe, the night it occurred; it was after 9 o'clock. I saw the complainant in the station house. I received a description of the parties and from that description made the arrest. Officer Flynn arrested Finnerly I believe before that. I was going up through West St. and the last witness came down West St. with Officer Pickett and they stopped me. Pickett says, "Smith" seen them two going down Washington St. and he told Officer Coghlan and I. So I met them on the corner of Battery Place. They were crossing Battery Park. I had no conversation with them; they were out of my precinct. He crossed over; they ran and we ran after them. They ran when they saw me into Battery Park - Doran and Julian. Officer Pickett caught Julian.

behind a tree. I followed Doran and got him about the middle of the track. As soon as I came up where they were they started to run. Smith was with me at the same time. I had not accosted them in any way; when they seen us - we started over - they ran and we followed them. I suppose they say Smith with me, I don't know. Cross Examined. I did not know whether they were the men or not. Smith told me they were the men who committed the robbery. I arrested them there and then; Smith gave a description of how they looked. Thomas Mulvey sworn. John Kennedy was arrested through my instruction in Washington St. by officer Loughlan between 11 and 12 o'clock on the night of the 24th of Nov. I had nothing to do with the arrest of Doran and Julian. I know nothing further of the case.

William Flynn sworn. I did not arrest the prisoners, but I was looking for them that night of the robbery and for a whole week after; they were brought into the station house by officers Feeny, Pickett & Loughlan. I did not hear the prisoners make any statement except they said they did not know anything about it.

Cross Examined. I did not see Julian the time I arrested Smith; Smith was arrested the night of the robbery in a saloon corner of Washington and Morris Sts. I don't know where the prisoners live.

8

Nellie Cully sworn and examined for the defence.
 I am ten years old and go to the Sisters School St. Peters. I live 15 Morris st. with my father and mother. I saw the German robbed; these two prisoners were not there. I saw the whole transaction from beginning to end. Cross Examined There was two men knocked down a man and one was looking up and down while the other fellow was robbing him. I have seen the German man here who was robbed. This was Saturday night about five or six weeks ago. I think it was Nov.. I was coming down from the bakery.
 One of the men who committed the robbery was a tall man and the other was a small man. I stood there while it was going on. I saw Smith walk down before the German; the German called for the police, and the small fellow chased me away; the small fellow was a dark thin man. I know that it was not the prisoners, for I know them about two or three months. I saw them a couple of nights after the robbery. I was up at the candy store; they were walking up on the corner.
 I did not talk with them. I have not seen them since. I don't know when they were arrested. There was nobody talking to me about the case. I only knew Finnerty was locked up. I did not know the prisoners were. I did not go to see Finnerty.

0358

I got a subpoena from the Court to come here. I knew Timmerty before the robbery and the prisoners also. I could not say that I had ever seen the men who knocked down this German or not before that night. I would know the small fellow if I saw him. I don't know his name. There was only one robbing the man and one watching. Two little girls was with me. I don't know ^{how} the men who were robbing these men knew that I was there or how they found out my address. I don't know how they came to be a witness. I did not tell Julian and Doran that I was in Greenwich St. that night and I do not know how they found out I was there. I never told anybody so I was not examined before the Judge in the other Court; only my name was taken. I know what it is to take an oath. If I tell a lie I will go to hell. I told my mamma when I went home that I had seen a fight. I could not recognize the boy who was robbing the German; his back was turned to me. I know these prisoners. But I don't know the fellow who robbed the German. I did not see the faces of either of these men that night. I saw the face of the man who told me to go away from there; he was the one who was watching up and down; the lumps were lighted. I knew those boys before, but they were never in my house; they used to be around our way, always around on the other corner; they never gave me any candy; this baker's place was on the corner of Greenwich and Rector Streets. Thomas Pruder sworn. I live at 63 Washington St. and work at Castle Garden trucking. I know these two defendants. I saw a German being robbed; neither of these prisoners were there. Cross Examined. I am 23 years old, I weigh 147 pounds. I guess I was near enough to see who was robbing this German. I was walking along with a gentleman about 25 years old. I was standing there, I did not know that they were robbing. I seen them pulling and dragging one another. I did not know what it was. I stood over on the corner of Church and Morris Sts. I saw two men leaning over a man. I heard the man hallooing "Watch". The tallest fellow had something in his hand. I and my friend did nothing but went on. I know Kinnerty; he was not there that night. I did not see Kinnerty there. I have been questioned before whether Kinnerty was there or not. I have said. I did not know. I did not see his face. I have not seen Doran or Julian since they have been in the Tombs. I dont know anything about one of these parties writing a letter about me. I dont know that it was in consequence of that letter I was brought to the District Attorney's office and was examined about this case. I spoke to a young man named Devine the next day after the occurrence. I heard about the arrest of Doran and Julian. I did not go to the Police Court until I was subpoenaed, that was a couple of days after. I dont know how the prisoners found out I was in Greenwich St. that night. I dont know that the parties who were robbing this man know me or not. They were strangers to me. I did not see the face of the German who was being robbed and I did not see the faces of either of the men who robbed him. Smith was over by one of the piles that keeps up the shade. I said a little while ago that we went over on the other side of Church and Morris Sts. I saw the two fellows running over and standing there a few minutes. One of them was a good deal taller than what these men are and the other was smaller. I judge from their size and not from their faces. Finney is taller than either of these prisoners at the bar.

I know the prisoners ten years; They are not friends of mine but I am acquainted with them. I belong to the Houser Association, the defendants are not members, Harry Houser for whom the club is named gave a statement in the Sunb; he was a witness for these prisoners.

Thomas J. Gowan, sworn and examined
 I keep a liquor store at 135 Liberty St. I know Dran. I remember the night of the robbery; there was a meeting that night of the Buck Rangers in that saloon to prepare for a parade. Dolan came to me at six o'clock; he asked me for a ticket; he asked me if I was one of the Secretaries. I told him, 'yes.' He says, 'give me a ticket.' I says, 'No, wait till the other Secretary comes and I will get a ticket for you.' I says, 'he is attending to that business, I have got other business to attend to.' He sat down and he waited there; there was about seven or eight in the place; he was playing pool; he waited there till 8 o'clock; he was in the place at that time. That is all I know about it. He got a ticket for his costume, but he did not get it till 8 o'clock. There were no tickets given out till that time? A. No sir.

Cross Examined The Buck Rangers used to meet Wednesdays and Saturdays occasionally. I am sure Saturday was on the 24th. I was behind the bar that night; there were not a great many people coming in and out. I had my eye pretty much on Doran from six to eight o'clock; there was only about seven or eight in the place. I put him out in the afternoon. I did not want him to play pool. The Buck Rangers did not assemble till 8 o'clock, but Doran came up at six to get a ticket; he went out and got his costume with a young man named Burns. They were preparing for Thanksgiving day.

Theodore Mackey sworn. I live 153 Greenwich St. I am a bar keeper. I am not one of the Buck Rangers. I was present at the night of their meeting on the 24th of Nov. I know the defendant Doran. I saw him that night; he came in the saloon at six o'clock; he came in before I did right in front of me and he stayed there until nine in the evening or 8 1/2 o'clock; he was playing pool part of the time. I was conversing with him about the Buck Rangers - what part he would take in it on Thanksgiving day.

James P. Funnell sworn. I am a driver and live at 23 Thames street. I drive for my uncle John Cornell, an express man. I did not see anything of the robbery. Do you remember the night of the 24th of Nov.? Yes sir. Do you know these defendants here? I know one of them, Doran. Did you see him that night? Yes sir.

Q What time and where? I was with him from about five in the afternoon till a quarter to nine that evening playing pool in Mr. Howan's place. You are sure he did not leave your company until a quarter to nine that night? No sir, he did not leave my company until a quarter to nine that night. Telling him Mr. Doran good night. Cross Examined. Where were you on the 18th of Nov. at 7 o'clock at night? I was home having my supper I guess. How do you know? I know I was. Tell me how you remember the 18th of Nov.? I do not remember it very good, but I know I was home and had my supper at the time; that is generally all the time I go to my supper at 7 o'clock. On the 24th you did not go to your supper at 7 1/2 o'clock? I went asleep, I got off at 3 1/2 in the afternoon. Do you remember anything about the 18th of Nov.? No sir. How came you to remember the 24th of Nov.? Because there was a meeting of the Buck Rangers Association. There was a meeting on the 21st? Not as I know of; it was the next to the last meeting of the year. I do not know whether there was a meeting the Wednesday night before. Were you a member of the Buck Rangers? No sir. I go into Gowan's place every night when I come home from work. I was to the theatre on the 21st, I was in there on the 22nd. I remember the 24th because they were arguing about some tickets for a ball that Gowan had. I know it was the 24th for the following Sunday I went to work. I took a cylinder up to Twenty Fifth St. for my uncle to one of the Atlas Steamships from the Albany Iron Works. Doran and I played pool there after.

James Julian, sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live 19 Pearl St. The last time I was working it was for the Board of Health. I saw the complainant on the stand yesterday. Did you rob him on the night of the 24th of Nov. or at any time? No sir. At that night were you in company with this defendant? No sir, only for a short while, that was about 20 minutes after ten at night. I was in 15 Washington St. Pat Turley's store. John Oliver, foreman of the telegraph climbers was there and Thomas Murphy and Aggie Bowden. Officer Pickett arrested me on the Battery. Officer Coghlan was going along Battery Place and we were fooling about 10 1/2 o'clock!

Doran and I walked over on the Battery; we sat on the chain and saw Officer Coghlan looking up and down the street; then he thought there was somebody on the corner, I could not say who it was; it was a pretty good distance from one side of Battery Place to the other. Coghlan, Flynn and some other officers came over; we saw them run over and we ran through the Battery. I ran away from Coghlan because he has got the reputation if he catches you on his beat he will give it you with a stick. I did not see the witness Smith who was here yesterday at the time I ran away. I did not see Smith at all till the officers got hold of me. I don't know the other boy who was with Doran. Cross examined. We were pulling and shaving me another outside the liquor store. I went by the name of John Jones five years ago. Judge Cowing sent me to the State prison in 1879 for a burglary at 4 Battery Place. I was in front of 10 Battery Place the night I was arrested.
 I don't think the officers knew I committed a burglary. Smith and the officer said they wanted to see me up at the Station House.
 The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree. The prisoners were each sent to the State prison for ten years.
