in the Abdomen. I said I was shot and asked some one to get my the woman; I called for help; Her name is Eliza or Liza Coleman.
I was acquainted with her for past 5 months, but had not seen her to speak to her for past 2 months; Her Husband came to me on Saturday and asked me if I had seen Liza.
I said no. He asked me if I knew where he could find her; I told him I don't know where your wife is; I had not seen her. I told him I had nothing to do with his wife; I told him he might find her at Bob Lang's in Christie St. Her Husband then said my wife is a damn. atinking Whore. I am fully convinced; I ~~was~~ not acquainted with Mr Coleman before; the woman represented herself as a single woman to Mr Lang and myself; I had a suspicion she was married the last time I visited her at her House, and on that account I did not visit her again.
She lived at 86 Catharine St. I had visited her before 2 or 3 times; Had I known she was a married woman, I would not have gone to visit her.
I became acquainted with her in the Theatre; never gave her any strong drink or drugged her; never visited her in 6th Ave and the only place I went with her, was to a house in Astor Place with the exception of her house in Catharine St.

Statement of George Coles now lying dangerously wounded at Chambers St Hosp in the 3 Ward of said City and County, on the 20 day of July 1881.

Question.—What is your name?

Answer.—

George Coles.

Question.—Where do you live?

26 E. 4th St.

Question.—Do you now believe that you are about to die?

Answer.—

I don't know; I can't tell,

Question.—Have you any hope of recovery from the effects of the injury you have received?

Answer.

I am badly hurt; I feel great pain I hope to recover.

Question.—Are you willing to make a true statement, how, and in what manner, you came by the injury from which you are now suffering?

Answer.—

Yes; I was in the Theatre (Marry Miners) about 9.30 PM, I asked Mr Moore to relieve me at the ticket office; I then went to the Balcony, when a young man, light complexion, about 22 years' old, came to me and said a Lady wanted to see me; I asked who she was; he said he did not know; he said he was not with her; she wanted to see me alone corner Bowery and Broome Sts; I went there; she said my Husband knows it all and she fired; I said nothing to her previous to her firing; the whole affair did not occupy more and a few moments; I was shot

PEOPLE, ON MY COMPLAINT, versus

William Cook

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant is but sixteen years of age, a native of this City and just arrived from Chicago. His parents are very respectable people and perfectly competent to bring up the boy properly. I am satisfied that the offence in question is his first, into which he was led by some bad boys into whose company he fell ~~in~~ on his arrival here from Chicago. He was intoxicated at the time. I do not think he is a bad boy, and believe that it will be better for his future and better for the State if he is discharged from the indictment against him.

The People vs. Charles Coyle } Court of General Session, Part I Indictment for felonious assault and battery. Before Recorder Smythe. Aug. 10. 1882

Green Green soon and examined testified I live on Mangin St. I don't know the prisoner personally. I never saw him before the night of this assault. I was in Grand St. between Lewis and Cannon Sts. That is where our party met first on the sidewalk; we went from there into a saloon corner of Madison and Jackson Sts.
John Butler, Joseph Laughlin and George Pillson were with me; the prisoner stood in the private entrance here and another young man, the same door that we entered by; after we went in the prisoner and his companion came in; we called for four glasses of soda water. I believe the man's name who was with the prisoner is James Higgins; they called for drinks also. Coyle seemed very much vexed because he could not have his drink paid for by our party and gave us a great deal of impudence; he called Laughlin vile names.
He could do anything with him, he could thrash the life out of him, and wanted to fight; that was about the pith of his language.
He drank our drink and came out on the sidewalk. I tried to make peace with the prisoner. I told him to go home, for he seemed to be under the influence of drink. I told him he was too intoxicated to say anything to anybody. I turned to leave him and in turning to leave him he used the knife on me. I left him with disgust. I did not have any words with him. He cut me three times in the left arm. I have in this bundle the white shirt and undershirt I wore at the time; the three stab wounds went through them (the witness showed the shirts to the jury). After he stabbed me I moved away to where my company stood, four yards away. I felt a dazed condition or sensation and I said, "I am stabbed" right away. The prisoner was gone like a flash of lightning; he ran away in a tenement house right over a liquor store. A policeman stood on the corner of Grand and Jackson St. and heard us talking about the stabbing. Right away he came to us and said, "Who stabbed you?" of course we told him. The officer called for assistance and in about two minutes another officer came. They went into a tenement house over the saloon looking for this man. I went with them. They did not find him. There is one entrance in Jackson and another in Jackson St.; they can go in one way and down another. Where was he arrested? I think it was about the 15th of July, no, it must have been later than that, it was six weeks after. I went to the station house I had my wounds dressed by an ambulance doctor in the station house and then I went to the Bellevue hospital the day after. I went there every day to have my wounds dressed from the 29th of May to the 21st of July. I never worked for five weeks. I am a machinist. Cross Examined. I was cut on the upper part of the shoulder and the large cut is on the soft part of the arm. I never met the prisoner before that night. I rather think Laughlin met him before that night, I am not positive. I have been acquainted with Laughlin about a year; he does not work in the same place with me. I did not quarrel with the prisoner at all. There were no parties fighting there; the prisoner was not fighting with anybody except stabbing me. I was perfectly sober. I left the house to take a short walk up Grand St. previous to retiring to bed; it was a very warm night. I did not feel like going to bed; this was the 29th of May. I am a married man and have got a wife and family. I drank nothing but soda water this night; the four of us drank soda water; the prisoner followed us right in there. I could not tell whether Joseph or the other man called for drinks. I think the man's name who keeps the saloon is Devlin. George Pillson, sworn. I was with Green when he was stabbed but I did not see the stabbing. I was too far off from him.

There was no one near Green when the stabbing was done but the prisoner. Four of us went in to have a drink, the complainant, myself and two others; the prisoner and another man came in after us. I ordered drinks and they stood up at the bar and called for drinks. and they did not want to pay for it; he wanted us to pay for them and I would not do it, and the other young man made the prisoner pay for his drinks; the prisoner said we were a set of snoots and he abused me by calling me bad names.
We went out and Mr Green followed us and we heard him call back; he said he was stabbed; the prisoner disappeared. I did not go to the station house with the complainant but I went to the hospital the next day with him. I saw the three stabs on his left arm. Joseph Laughlin was examined and testified substantially the same as the preceding witnesses. The prisoner pleaded guilty to an assault with intent to do bodily harm. He was sent to the State prison for three years and six months.
