Augusta Brangue, the complaining witness, being duly sworn, testified as follows, through the official interpreter, Sr. Gustav St. Albe

Q Where do you live? A - 70 Mulberry Street

Q On the 27th of August last was anything taken from you? A - Yes Sir

Q What was it? A - Ten dollars

Q Was it your property? A - Yes Sir

Q Where was this money taken from?

A - From the till in the store. I keep a grocery store

Q Did you see him take it?

A - Yes Sir

Q Tell us all that you saw?

A - I was in the store with this other woman, here in Court - We were weighing out Macaroni. When this defendant came into the store, and he asked for an envelope. I told him that I had not got it.

I -

Then he went out again and came back with two other fellows. They told me they were <sup>stealing</sup> ~~selling~~ cabbage. I did not want to go out. While I was held by the two other boys this defendant went and opened the till and got the money out.

Q Did they all come in together?
A Yes sir

Cross examined by Mr. John Hoyer

Q Who was in the store with you?

A - Margaretta was with me, the other witness in the case

Q And how many Italian men were standing on the outside?

A - No Italian was there at all

Q Well, how much money did you have in the drawer altogether?

A - $117.

Q And was this ten dollars mopped together with the rest of the money?

A - No sir

Q Well, how far was the ten dollars away from the bulk?

0456

a - In another drawer
Q Or in the same drawer?
a There were two drawers, one to the right, and the other to the left.
These ten dollars were to the left,
it was a one ten dollar bill

Court of General Session

The People vs

Anna Kissner

City & County of New York ss.

Anna Kissner

being duly sworn says, I am the defendant in the above entitled action, and was, arrested on the 24th day of August 1887 and charged with the larceny of the property mentioned in the complaint herein. I immediately confessed having taken the articles but did then deny and still deny having taken any money as in said complaint alleged. or have I any knowledge concerning the taking or stealing of said money if any has been taken.

Deponent further says that she is 17 years of age and the wife of David Rissin whom she married several months ago, and that defendant is pregnant with child between four and five months.

At the time of the com-
-mission of the crime charg-ed against me, my husband and myself resided with my parents in the same house with complainant
at 752 E. 144th Street, this city. I frequently had access to the rooms occu-pied by complainant <sup>and</sup> on the day in question while in said room calling my sister I noticed the articles lying upon a table and upon the impulse of the moment I took them and put them in my trunk, im-mediately upon my arrest
a few hours thereafter I informed the Police Officer where I had placed the articles, and I believe

they have since been restored by said Officer to the complainant.

Deponent, further says that she has never before committed any crime that prior to the day of her arrest in this proceeding she has never been accused or arrested upon any charge whatsoever, that she has always resided with her parents in the City of New York excepting on two occasions when she was employed as a domestic once by Mrs. Osenkoup, who resides at 157 Street and Courtland Avenue this City, and again by Mrs. Smith of 570 Collin Street Brooklyn N.Y. both of which places she left of her own accord.

Deponent therefore prays this Court, that in its judicial discretion it may feel warranted in suspending sentence upon
