PETITION

For Inquiry Into Doings of Aqueduct Commission

HON. GEO. B. McCLELLAN, MAYOR,
CITY HALL, CITY :

It having been alleged by The Merchants' Association of New York that the Aqueduct Commissioners have not properly performed the duties imposed upon them by law, and that the City has through their alleged neglect suffered much money loss and been exposed to danger of a water-famine and increased fire-hazard, you are respectfully requested to cause an investigation of the doings of the Aqueduct Commission, and to take such further action in the premises as the result of such investigation may warrant.

Name, Geo. Schoenchen

Date, April, 1904.

Address, 622 Ninth Ave
