Testimony in the case of Edward Donnelly
filed Feb. 1993.

The People
 Edward Donnelly } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Before Recorder Smyth. March 9. 1883.
 Indictment for burglary in the second degree.
 I am master of the sloop Leonida lying at the foot of Delancey st. East river. I live at Cold Spring harbor, L.I. There is a cabin on that sloop where I eat and sleep and where I am in New York I live on it. There are two doors sliding from the top which open outward and they are fastened by shoving the slide over. The vessel was loaded to go away and I wanted to get away at six o'clock that morning. I went to bed about nine or half past and the latch was closed over the doors. I got up at five o'clock and went on deck and the doors were closed. I found it was blowing very hard and cold and I went down to the cabin again and closed the doors as before, fixed the fire, left the light burning in the cabin and laid down again. About twenty minutes or so after that I heard the doors open. I did not think anything of it.
 The wind was blowing so hard I thought it was the wind blew them open. A couple of minutes after that I heard the money jingling in my pantaloons pocket, which I had hung up. I turned over and looked and ~~saw~~ the defendant standing with the pantaloons in his hand. I asked him what he was doing there? He started and got out; he did not reply to that. I followed him. I chased him about half the length of the dock and then he threw the pantaloons away. After he threw the pants away I stopped, picked up my pants and gave up the chase. I looked in the pockets, the money was all there, except my watch, it dropped out but I found it again on the deck; the watch was in my pants pocket when I went to bed. The pants were worth three dollars, the watch was <sup>silver and was</sup> worth three dollars and there was fourteen dollars in silver. There were two other persons sleeping in the cabin at the time. The doors were open, but there were no marks upon them. Cross Examined. It was a dark morning but the lamp was burning brightly in the cabin. A party entering the cabin would have to go eight or nine feet to get to the pantaloons. I followed him about a hundred yards off the boat. I never was a good runner. He had the advantage of me. I was bare footed and had no clothes on and it was very cold and frosty. I am positive the defendant is the man whom I saw in the cabin. It made an impression on me when I saw him. I saw his face at the time, he was not facing me fully. I saw his side face. I made a complaint at the Delancey street station house.

0532

John McCauley, sworn and examined. The foot of Delancey St. is in the Thirteenth ward. I arrested the prisoner at the corner of Delancey and East streets a week following the robbery. The complaint was made on the 12th and I arrested him on the 19th. I brought him to the station house, I got the complainant, I placed the prisoner in the back room of the station house, got three or four men from the street and the complainant came in and directly pointed out the prisoner. Cross Examined. I guess I have known the prisoner 15 or 16 years. I never have known him to be arrested for stealing or anything like that; he has been arrested a number of times for drinking; he has always lived in the neighborhood and for all that I know he has been a hardworking man. Edward Donnelly, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have heard Capt Wright accuse me of this theft, I have lived in New York twenty one years and was never arrested for any crime. I was not on board that sloop. I swear that positively. I did not

Edward Durnelly, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified (continued) Is there anything the matter with your leg? Yes sir, I have the St. Vitus' dance in the knee, it weakens once in a while, I cannot run. I have been examined by the doctors. I was doing nothing on the 11th of February, but I was working on the 12th. I work whenever I get a chance. I was in bed between five and six o'clock on the morning of the 12th of February. Cross examined. I was living in Columbia St. It is a lodging house, I do not know the number. I cannot tell the name of the man who keeps the house, I was there about a week. I paid 15 cents for my bed. I have been living most all winter that way. I worked for Mr. Rapp unloading pine wood vessels and I worked in a brick yard for Mr. Klotz. I have only been arrested before for being intoxicated; four or five times I was sent to the Island for that. I never was arrested in my life for stealing. I always worked hard. James Wright recalled. I saw the prisoner before I saw him in the cabin. I knew him by sight for two years. I have no doubt in my mind but he is the man who was in the cabin. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree.
