of No. 1816 Third Avenue Street, aged 25 years, Patrick Brown

occupation Saloon Keeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 5th day of November 1889 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, David R. Edwards, now here, did utter and pass upon Depovent, with intent to defraud Depovent, a certain forged false and fraudulent instrument in writing purporting to be a check drawn by one D. M. Williams on the Mount Morris Bank for twelve dollars and fifty cents, and the defendant said to Depovent at the time of receiving the said check money for the said check, that the said check was good. Relying upon said statements of defendant Depovent gave to defendant the said twelve dollars and fifty cents for said check. Depovent is informed by D. M. Williams now here, that the said paper is in resemblance of checks usually used by him drawn on said bank. Depovent thereupon charges defendant with the crime of forgery, and asks that he be dealt with as the law directs. The said check is herewith annexed.
