Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK, } ss.

Rudolph J. Andebauer of No. 265 Broome Street, Book Binder, aged 34 years, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 19th day of January 188*4*, at the day time in the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent with intent to deprive the true owner thereof, the following property, viz :

One gold ring set with eight small diamonds and a pearl in the center and being of the value of forty-five dollars

the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Charles Abele, now here, *from the fact that said deponent then lived in a room adjoining deponent in said premises. That he, said deponent, left said premises on or about the day aforesaid and deponent immediately thereafter discovered the larceny of said ring.

 That thereafter deponent was informed by Ernest Weber, now present, that he, said Weber, was* 0727

with said defendant when he, said defendant, passed a ring set with eight diamonds and a pearl in the center corresponding exactly with the ring so stolen from deponent. That before the arrest of said defendant, Deit. on the night of the 14th instant, he, said defendant, told deponent that he knew where said stolen ring was.

New York Wednesday March 12. 84.

To the very Honorable P. B. Alney, Esq.,

Dear Sir!

Allow me to state to you, that after appearing in court as a witness in the case of R. Seandebur versus Chas. Abele, four or five times and the case not being called on trial, I must to-day beg your kind pardon for not coming, as having a very severe cold on the chest for the last week. I am obliged to go in a hospital today in fearing an inflammation of the lungs. Should my testimony in the case be of any particular value to you, which I do not believe to be the case, as Abele can be convicted on his own evidence, please let me know till when the trial will be postponed.

Yours Very truly

Laurens Pensinger of 150 Nassau Street New York City being duly sworn deposes and says, that he has just cause to believe and verily does believe and says, that on the 8th day of February 1884 Charles Baker here present and Charles L.
Arwander did unlawfully hire and allow to be used a room, establishment and apparatus for the purpose of gambling and did keep and have in their possession certain papers, writings and documents in the nature of bets, wagers or insurance of draw numbers of a lottery, and did sell and offer to sell what are commonly called lottery policies.

Deposant further says, that he visited the premises situated and known as number 89 South Street in the City of New York, and there saw the said Charles Baker and Charles L. Arwander, and there saw the said Charles Baker sell and record what is commonly called lottery policy upon the manifold book kept in the said premises so occupied by Charles Baker and Charles L. Arwander for the recording of lottery policies, which said manifold book, one sheet of which is hereto annexed.

Depoent went into the premises of Charles L. Arwolder and there saw Charles Baker, and had conversation with him in substance as follows, Depoent said, let me see last night's slip, the said Baker replied, I don't think you have got anything, showing depoent a slip of paper with numbers upon representing the drawn numbers in certain lotteries purporting to have been drawn last night. After examining the said slip depoent said, well, give me 55 first in both lotteries. the said Baker then said how much?, depoent replied put 254 on it. the said Baker thereupon recorded the said number upon said manifold book, and depoent paid him the sum of 254, and saw the said Baker record the numbers upon said manifold book. Depoent descended the stairs to the street and there met Mr Joseph A. Britton and Anthony Constat and returned immediately up stairs, and was present when the warrant and search warrant was executed in said premises, and there saw the said manifold book again, which was seized in company with a large number of other manifold books and lottery tickets and policy slips Depovent further says, in the Barber Shop occupied and kept by the said Anwander ~~has~~ a door leading into a dark place partitioned off, that is filled with lumber and barrels, empty boxes loose papers, coal ashes, and within this small space so filled with rubbish and lumber, upon a board the said Baker transacted his business. The said Anwander was in and out of the said place so partitioned off, and stated in presence of depovent that he rented the apartment to the said Baker, and further the said Anwander informed the said Comstock that ~~he~~ a receipt which the said Comstock found in the words following to wit,

" W. 4. Jan 10 1884 "

Received from R. Baker the sum " of $20.00 for one months rent in advance "
 " for office room in 89 South Street W. 4 "

" Received

" R. L. Anwander "

was a receipt which the said Anwander gave the said Baker ^{for rent of said premises.} The said Anwander said also, that the door was always open leading into this department, that he had free access to it, the said 0752

Baker had been there about two months, that he and his clerks went in and out, and hung their outer clothes there. A quantity of towels were also stored here, and an old store.

Depovent further says, that on the 7th day of February he also saw gambling carried on in the said premises, and saw the said Amvander and Baker present in the said Barber shop, and that the said Baker did have other manifold books and did record other plays, which said manifold books as depovent is informed and verily believes were seized on the 8th day of February 1884 in the presence of both the said Amvander and Baker.

Depovent further says, that he visited the said premises on three different times on the 7th of February and saw other persons buy what are commonly called lottery-policies and purchased himself ^{lottery policies,} Baker and Amvander being present and this depovent visited said premises.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Charles S. Annander and
George Rice

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Charles S. Annander, and George Rice
of the CRIME OF KEEPING a room TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows:

The said Charles S. Annander and George Rice
late of the Second Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Eighth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep a Room in a certain Building there situate, to be used for gambling purposes, to wit: to be used for the purpose of therein conducting a certain gambling game commonly called playing Lottery Policies where money and property was dependent upon the result, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Charles S. Annander
and George Rice

of the CRIME OF KEEPING A Room TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SELLING LOTTERY POLICIES THEREIN, committed as follows:

The said Charles S. Annander and George Rice

late of the Second Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said Eighth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a Room in a certain Building there situate, to be used for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers, and documents in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public or private lotteries, and of therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers, and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Charles S. Annander of the CRIME OF KNOWINGLY PERMITTING A Room TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows :

The said Charles S. Annander

late of the Second Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said Eighteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, being then and there the Owner of a certain certain building there situate, known as number Eighty nine South Street in the said Ward, City and County, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did knowingly permit the said Room to be used for gambling by divers common gamblers whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, whom in the said room the said Charles S. Annander did then and there knowingly permit to engage as players in a certain gambling game commonly called playing lottery policy where money and property was dependent upon the result, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT.

Charles S. Annander

of the CRIME OF KNOWINGLY PERMITTING A Room TO BE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF SELLING LOTTERY POLICIES THEREIN, committed as follows :

late of the Second Ward of the City of New York in the County of New York aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the Eighteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, being then and there the owner of a certain certain building there situate, known as number Eighty nine South Street in the said City and County, with force and arms, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did knowingly permit the said room to be used by one George Rice for the purpose of therein selling and offering to sell what are commonly called Lottery Policies, and divers writings, papers and documents, in the nature of bets, wagers and insurances upon the drawing or drawn numbers of certain public or private lotteries, and for therein endorsing and using books and other documents for the purpose of enabling divers persons to sell and offer to sell lottery policies and other such writings, papers and documents, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
