The People
vs.
Nicholas Viereto.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

December 8, 1887.

Indictment for robbery in the first degree.

Paul Connelly sworn and examined. I live at 1958 Third Avenue, I am a school boy; on the 3rd of October at about half past seven in the evening I was on Third Avenue near 108th Street coming down from the baker store when they met me, I got change at the 116th station on Third Avenue, I was sent for a loaf of bread at the Howe bakery and coming home I met the Italian the defendant, between 108th and 109th Streets, near Brook's shoe store, he asked me if I would show him a number, he would give me fifty cents in 108th Street, I do not remember the number, I went down there and as soon as I got down three-quarters of the block he grabbed me by the mouth and the other fellow took the money out of my pocket; the amount of money was forty dollars and it belonged to Mr Brower; I tried to halloo when the defendant grabbed me by the throat and then he put his hand over my mouth. When the money was taken from me the other fellow ran and the prisoner knocked me in the gutter; they stood at the corner of 108th Street and First Avenue, I ran home and told my mother and she went over to Mrs. Brower and they went down to 88th Street and got a detective. I got the forty dollars from W.A. Brower, 154 East 106th Street, he is a broker, I was not employed by him, he sent me out to get twenty dollar gold pieces changed, I was playing with his boy over in the house, he sent me to Mr Carroll's liquor store to get the change, it was on my way up that I met the defendant and he asked me to show him the number, Mr. Brower is not in Court, he wanted to give his wife some money and he had not enough change and he asked me to get change for him, I was in his house at the time, his boy is not as big as I am, I don't know why he did not get the change himself, he is in Middletown, Conn. now, I got the change at the elevated railroad station, I did not go to Carroll's liquor store, I thought the elevated station was the nearest, I did not know the man at the station, I got thirty dollars in bills and ten dollars in silver, I was on my way to get a loaf of bread which Mrs. Brower sent me for, I was coming back from the bakery when I met the prisoner, they had no bread, I did not go to Mr. Brower first before I went to my mother.

Cross Examined. Where was Mr. Carroll's store? Corner of 108th Street. Where did you start from, what street? 106th Street. Did they ask you to get bread at the same time they asked you to get the change? Yes. Where was the bakery that you were to go to? Howe's bakery. What street is that in? 110th Street. Between 2nd and 3rd Avenue? On Third Avenue. On the corner of 110th Street? No, one door from the corner of the liquor store. Whereabouts were you when you met these men? Between 108th and 109th Streets. That was on the road from the elevated station up to the bakery? That was coming back from the bakery I met these men. Did you get the change before you went to the bakery? Yes sir. He was not arrested on this night, was he? No sir. He was not arrested for some time after? No sir. I did not see him arrested. How long after the robbery did you see this man again?

Two nights after. And where was that? 106th Street Station, going up the stairs. Did you have him arrested then? No sir. Did you tell the officer then? No sir. How was he dressed the night you saw him going up the station at 106th Street? Just the same way as when he robbed me. What kind of clothes did he have on? He had a striped collar, a black long coat and black pants, I could not tell the rest of the clothes. You never had seen this man before the night you lost that money? No sir. Two nights after you say you saw him going up the stairs of the elevated railroad? Yes sir. Why did not you get a policeman and tell him this was the man who robbed you? There was no officer around. Why did you go upstairs and tell the station man about it? I do not know sir, I wanted to go home to tell Mr. Brower I saw him. Did you tell Mr. Brower you saw him go up? Yes sir. I saw the defendant afterwards at the central office. Were there other men in the room that you saw him in? Yes sir. How many more men were there? I noticed two playing dominoes on a table and Mr. Brower was down there and he was standing up against a table and the prisoner was brought up in front of us, I do not know who spoke to me then but somebody spoke to me about this case. Did they ask you if that was the man that robbed you? Yes sir. Did you say he was? Yes sir; the man at the desk asked me about the robbery and I told him all about it, and then he sent a man down with me and George Brower to recognize him. He sent you down stairs to the cell, is that true? Down stairs, a little room down there with George Brower who is a witness in my case and another man; they brought the prisoner out and asked me if I can recognize him. I said yes, that is tye man.

George Brower called. How old are you? Nine years old. Can you read? No sir. Do you go to church? Yes sir. Do you know what it is to tell a lie, what would be done to you? Yes sir, go to the bad place.

(The witness was sworn.) Where do you live? 154 E. 106th Street, I know the last witness, the other boy, my father's name is William A. Brower, I live with my father and mother, the other boy used to play with me, I recollect that hr was playing with me on the 3rd of October and my father gave him some money to go and get changed, he gave him two twenty dollar gold pieces and told him to get it changed and get a loaf of bread, I went with him, we went to the elevated station and he got change, thirty dollars in bills and ten dollars in silver, I saw the defendant and another man in the elevated station when the boy was getting the change, after he got the change we went up to Howe's bakery, the boy asked them if they had any bread and they said no and while we were going down between 108th and 109th Streets the prisoner asked the boy if he would show him a number down in First Avenue and he said yes, we went down there and got between First and Second Avenue and then I went home, I was afraid to go down that dark street. This was about haof pastseven o'clock at night, I never saw the Defendant before that night but I am positive he is one of the man, he had black pants on, a brown coat and a black and white striped collar. I went down with the boy to the police headquarters, Papa and another man and me, I was asked if he was the man and I said yes and Paul said so to, the other boy. Before we went down stairs to see the prisoner they said, "we got the man and to come down and see if that is him, we went down and said right away that was the man; they told us they arrested a man for the offence of stealing and wanted us to go down and see if we could identify him.

I had a good view of the face of this man and the other man, there was plenty of light on the elevated station when I first saw him and there was a lamp in the street and lights in the windows of the stores.

Antony Perrazzo sworn and examined. You are a Sergeant detective? Yes sir. Did you arrest this man? No sir. You saw these last two witnesses, these boys? Yes sir. Were you at police headquarters when they were taken there for the purpose of identifying anybody? Yes sir. State to the Jury what was done? By instructions of the acting officer I took the prisoner out of the cell and put him in a small room that we use as a sitting room and I went up and got the two boys and brought them down stairs. What did you say to the boys? I did not speak to them at all, I did not say a word to them, I put the prisoner with his back towards the table and then faced him with the boys, I asked the boys, "is this the man that robbed you?" and they answered, yes, the little boy in fact jumped up quite frequently and said, "I am sure that is the man that robbed you." I then asked them to be sure because it is a very serious matter, because there is a good many years of State Prison staring this man in the face. I am sure, they both answered, and that was all.

How many men were there in the room? Altogether five or six. Were they prisoners? Oh no, there was three detectives, myself made four, the doorman made five, Brower six, the prisoner seven and the two boys made nine, they were all in citizen's clothes. There was no distinction as to clothes? No sir. You are of Italian extraction yourself? Yes, Italian descent.

Stephen O'Brien sworn. What is your business, O'Brien? Detective sergeant, attached to the central office. Did you arrest the prisoner? No sir. When did you first see the prisoner? I will have to state how he came into my hands. What was the date? On the 11th of October Mrs. Meir -- You saw him first on the 11th of October? No sir, I saw him about the 16th. Where did you see him the 16th of October? I saw him at Essex Market. How was he dressed? He had a striped collar,, a kind of a brown sack coat and carried an umbrella. He did not have the clothes on that he has got now? No sir. Have you heard these boys describe his dress and does it correspond with what it was then? Yes sir. I brought him from the Tombs by order of the District Attorney and had him identified for two other robberies.

The Court: Strike that out.

The prisoner pleaded guilty to the indictment.

Fannie Mael, who was the complainant in another case against the Defendant was examined by the Court.

The prisoner was sentenced to the State Prison for eighteen years and six months.
