Leopold Abrahams.

City and County of New York, ss.

I Leopold Abrahams being duly sworn do depose and say.

I am the above named defendant and am in the dry goods business at No 182 Third Avenue in the City of New York between sixteenth and seventeenth Streets. I have carried on said business on said premises for ten years past.

I am a man of family and have a wife and four children and prior to the present instance have never been arrested for or accused of any charge of any description or character whatever.

I am innocent of the charge of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen, and I solemnly aver that when I purchased the articles for which I am under indictment I did so publicly over my counter and exposed the same publicly for sale in my store window and when Detective Hildeberg who I did not know was a police officer, came in and made inquiry as to the goods in question, I at once told him all I about the purchase and showed him where the goods were exposed.

In many years past I have dealt with many merchants of this city all of whom will certify to my honesty and my integrity.
