GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

----- x
The People ex rel, Ann Gardner, :
Complainant, :
-against- :
William Gardner, :
Defendant. :
----- x

City and County of New York. ss :

I, Ann Gardner, the Complainant herein, being duly sworn, says :

I am the wife of the defendant, who is my second husband ; I am also his second wife ; we each have children by our former marriages, each having four ; and I have one child, a girl about 6 years old, the fruits of my marriage with the defendant.

Since my marriage to the defendant he has treated me uniformly brutally and unkind, and I have frequently had him arrested therefor.

On the 18th day of March, 1885, the defendant for one of said assaults upon me pleaded guilty to assault in the third degree, and sentence was suspended by Recorder Smyth on my earnest solicitation in behalf of my husband, and upon his promise made to me and to the Court that he would mend his ways and treat me kindly in the future, and such sentence still remains unimposed.

The defendant has in no sense kept his word, but on the contrary his conduct towards, and treatment of, me has been as cruel and scandalous since sentence was suspended as before, but the occurrences have been more frequent.

The following are a few of the instances of his treatment of me since sentence was suspended:

On the way from the Court, the day such sentence was suspended, at the corner of Chamber Street, and while in a car going up-town, he abused me scandalously, and refused to pay my fare, and to avoid exposure I was compelled to leave the car which I did, as did also the defendant ; I re-entered another car when defendant joined me and again renewed his abuse, and said he had a good mind to again beat me, but did not.

We finally reached home, where I succeeded in pacifying him, and I took up my residence again with him, and on and off have lived with him up to July 5th, 1885, as hereinafter referred to. During such period, my life was made perfectly miserable, his abuse was almost daily and I lived in daily fear of being killed, but I refrained from extreme measures in order to avoid exposure, and because I did not wish to send him to jail.

During the said month of March I was keeping house at 647 Second Avenue, and defendant's conduct was so bad, his talk so loud, and he became drunk and abused me during nearly the whole time, and on one occasion he broke open the door leading to my apartments, because he was too impatient to wait until I could open it, and finally I was dispossessed from said premises owing to his bad conduct, and while I was in the act of moving my furniture, he came upon the scene and unhitched the horse from the wagon containing the furniture, one half of which was on the sidewalk and the other half on the cart, and I was compelled to seek the aid of another horse to remove my effects.

I moved to 468 Second Avenue ; the first night I was there he broke open the hall door of the house, degrading and humiliating me in the eyes of the neighbors ; and I was compelled to apologize to the landlord in order to be permitted to remain.

This condition of affairs continued more or less until the 5th of July, 1885. ^{where I left him} At about dinner time of that day I was preparing to go out riding with defendant and our daughter ; he was slightly under the influence of liquor and he demanded more liquor, which I refused to send for, giving as a reason that he had had sufficient already, and I reminded him of the fact that he was going out riding with me and our daughter, and I was afraid to trust myself with him if he partook of any more drink ; a moment later, while I was standing at the mirror dressing my hair to go out riding, and while my back was turned towards him, the defendant, without warning, threw a large table knife at me, which struck me upon the right shoulder blade, penetrating my clothing and entering my skin from which wound the blood flowed, after which assault, I left my apartments in fear of my life, and sought refuge in the apartments of Miss Fannie Hogan, with whom I remained for two (2) days and two (2) nights.

I gave no provocation to my husband for this assault, nor for the subsequent assaults below stated.

During the same month of July 1885, the defendant committed an assault upon my daughter by a former marriage, and was in the Tombs for about 7 days on that charge.

On the night of August 3rd, 1885, about ten o'clock, while I was in the apartments of Miss Fannie Hogan, in the premises 553 First Avenue, defendant came in uninvited and without any provocation took hold of me, and dragged me out into the hall, down the stairs, into the apartments occupied by him, tearing my dress completely off, and otherwise very roughly handling me.

On or about the 8th of August, 1885, at 555 First Avenue, while I was in a vacant room therein, the defendant drew from his pocket a large pen-knife, and with threatening and murderous gesticulations toward me, swore he would kill me, and I was placed in bodily fear for some time lest he would do so.

During said month of August, about the 14th, while I was temporarily absent from the rooms I occupied occasionally in the premises No. 555 First Avenue, my said husband and his son Fred., amused themselves by destroying my shoes, by cutting them, and my dresses and clothing generally, by tearing them into shreds, and totally destroying them so that they could not by any possibility be repaired and utilized. They, or one of them, also appropriated a ring belonging to me, and the defendant took forcible possession of $10. of money which I had in my stocking, and which he removed while I had said stocking on.

Through this act and his violence on my return I was again compelled to leave the house and occupy furnished rooms apart from said premises.

On or about the 3rd day of September, 1885, I met defendant on the stairs of said last named premises, when he used vile and threatening language toward me, and assaulted me by pushing me upon the stairs, and attempted to thrust his hands into my pockets with a view to extract therefrom the rents which I had that day collected from the tenants in said house, but owing to my resistance he did not succeed in getting possession of said rents.

On October 2nd, 1885, I visited the house No. 555 First Avenue for the purpose of collecting the rent from the tenants ; the defendant met me on the stairs ; he asked me what business I had there, and called his children by a former marriage, and told one of them Polly to "go for me and lick me" and then called upon them all to go for me. Polly, Fred. and Lena, aged respectively 18, 20, and 16, then jumped upon my back, tore a handful of hair out of my head, tore my bonnet, and as I was trying to run away, took hold of my dress and tore it nearly off my back.

I was about to have them arrested when defendant called me into his apartments and apologized for inciting the children, and promised that nothing of the kind should occur again.

I allowed the assault to pass over.

During the same month of October, while I was engaged in repairing the wainscoting in front of the hydrant on the second floor of said premises 555 First Avenue, the defendant came up to me and in a threatening manner, with a hammer in his ~~uplifted~~ hand, demanded money, and took hold of me and tried to tear the pocket out of my dress, I was therefore compelled to take shelter in the next house, where I was supplied with pins, to pin up my dress by Mrs. Detliffe, who has charge of the next house.

On or about the 1st of November 1885, (Hallow Eve Night) the defendant entered my rooms on 15th St., ~~as before said~~, during my absence, and broke and smashed all my glass ware and glass ornaments which I had not unpacked, and stamped into a large wash-tub containing dishes and smashed them all. This was done in the presence of my son, a boy about 13 years old.

On last Thanksgiving day (Nov'r 25th 1885) while I was his guest, in the premises No. 555 First Avenue, the two daughters of the defendant, Polly and Lena, aged 18 and 16, entered the room and totally destroyed my cloak by throwing acid upon it.

The defendant denied all participation in the act, and I must say, that I cannot accuse him of taking part in it, but the spirit thus shown by his children to me, was engendered and encouraged by the conduct of the defendant toward me.

On the 16th day of December, 1885, I visited the house 555 First Avenue ; I was sent for by the house-keeper in order to have repairs done to the cellar of the house ; while there, I was coaxed into the room occupied by the defendant ; before I was in there five minutes his children commenced to throw cups and other articles at me, and then the oldest son, a young man upwards of 20 years of age, struck me in the face and forehead with some heavy article upon his knuckles, knocking me down almost insensible, cutting three deep gashes in my face and head, causing two very black eyes, and while down the children kicked me.

I was under the care of Dr. Thompson for several days.

His letter on that subject is attached to this affidavit.

0104

The defendant was present and saw the whole thing and took no steps to prevent it, and I was convinced that the assault thus made, was the result of a preconcerted plan to get me into the room in order that the assault might be committed.

I was compelled to keep away from the house, because of the violent attitude of the defendant towards me, and I did not visit the house (except on one occasion about six weeks since when I visited the house in disguise to transact business with the housekeeper, about 11.30 P. M., at night, and then my husband did not see me) until ~~last~~ Monday the 22nd, March 1886, when I again visited the house in company with two plumbers in order to have some repairs done to said house.

I paid the men $5. as a fee to guard and protect me from anticipated violence at the hands of said defendant ; I did not see said defendant at this time.

I visited the house again on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of ^{the same} ~~this~~ week, but did not come in personal contact with said defendant, as I avoided him.

On Friday the 26th instant, I again visited the house by appointment to meet a carpenter, one of the firm of McKenzie & Ward, in order to have repairs in the shape of new windows and doors to the house, to replace those which said defendant had wilfully and maliciously removed and broken during this month ; and after I had been in the premises a few minutes, the man came ; I heard a noise outside the housekeeper's rooms where I was and on opening the door I heard the defendant talking loudly and telling the man he would not allow him to do any work there, and if he went up he would throw him through the window ; he was in the act of pushing the man down stairs. My husband then turned upon me and gave me a violent push with his elbow, staggering me against the ~~Housekeeper, Mrs Doyle, who stood near~~ ~~side of the door~~, he then put his clenched fist into my face and called me vile names and ordered me out of the house ; and I was driven to leave the house for fear of his violence ~~and dare not go near it again.~~

The foregoing are a few of the instances of cruel treatment of me by defendant since March 1885, when sentence was suspended as aforesaid, there are many others which I have not enumerated, indeed, I have lived in almost daily fear of being murdered since sentence was suspended and, I considered the better plan was to move away from the premises 555 First Avenue, and thus avoid the defendant, but I am the owner of said premises which is a double tenement house and compelled to go there on business ; the defendant is the patentee of an Ale Pump which he manufactures on the premises 555 First Avenue, and in addition he occupies rooms up stairs ; the rents are the only source of income I have to support myself and five children and to ^{pay} the interest on a mortgage of $9,000.00 on said premises ; the defendant in addition to assaulting me seeks to demoralize the tenants and in several instances tenants have vacated their rooms, and during my absence the defendant broke into the rooms left vacant, took out the windows, smashed the doors, and in other instances locked up the rooms, and prevented me renting the same, in fact he has driven away all those who have desired to become my tenants of the said rooms, ^{thus vacated} and on another occasion within the last two or three weeks he nailed up the front door of the premises so that the tenants inside could not get out neither could those without get access to said house without passing through the Liquor store on the ground floor. I was compelled to seek the aid of the Fire Department to get said door opened,

In view of the danger attending my visiting the house and acting under advice of Counsel, I was compelled to employ a real estate firm in order to collect the rents, but they are afraid to go near the premises lest the defendant should visit personal violence upon them inasmuch ^{as} ~~that~~ on several occasions they have been interfered with by the defendant, and on one occasion one of their men was grossly ^{assaulted by defendant} ~~insulted~~, while the other was given ^{by Defendant} in custody, but was at once discharged ^{by the Magistrate}.

For as much as the defendant has broken and violated his promise to the Court and to me, when sentence was suspended as aforesaid, I pray this Honorable Court, that the defendant may be again brought before the Court.
