Present, Hon. Rufus B. Cowing, City Judge and Justice of the Sessions: The People against Michael Sheridan and Michael Bohan, on indictment for attempt to commit grand larceny in the second degree, August 18th, 1887, attempting to steal one watch and chain of the value of $12. from the person of William B. Wilson. The defendants by leave, severally withdraw their pleas of not guilty and severally plead guilty. Judgment in the State Prison at hard labor for the term of two years and six months.

JOHN MULHOLLAND, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am a Sergeant of Police. I recognize the defendant John Reilly now at the bar as the same person who was on the 29th day of September, 1887, sentenced to State Prison for two years and six months, under the name of Michael Bohan.

MAX H. STRAUSS, a witness for the people, sworn, testified. I live at No. 178 East 95th Street? I am a manufacturer of net goods, having my factory in Brooklyn. On the 25th day of April last in company with Mr. Henry S. Baron, I boarded an elevated train at the 23rd St. station of the Third Avenue train at a quarter of six o'clock. The platform of the car, upon which myself and Mr. Baron were was quite crowded. I stood on the rear platform of one car, and Mr. ^{Baron} stood on the front platform of the other car. While I was standing on that platform, I had a diamond scarf pin of the value of about $100. in my necktie. I last saw my pin between 50th and 57th Street Stations. I saw the defendant Rilgy on the same platform of the car as I was myself. He stood alongside of me for quite a distance. He was about two or three feet away from me. When the car reached 57th Street the prisoner was in front of me. At 50th Street, he had gotten off the car to ~~let~~ get some other passengers on, and when he returned to the platform of the car, he stood directly in front. I ~~xxx~~ felt him have his hands on my clothes, but as we were pretty well crowded together, I did not mind that. I am certain that between 50th and 57th Streets, I felt my pin against my chin. At 57th Street I missed it. The prisoner got off the car in Company with another man. I immediately followed them. When they reach the bottom of the stairs, they held a brief conversation and one of them went one way and ~~am~~ one another. I followed this man, as I was sure he had taken my pin. After I had ~~xx~~ walked a block or two, I caught sight of an officer, and together we followed the defendant and arrested him. The officer asked the defendant what his name was, and I believe he said John Reilly. He asked him where he lived, but he refused to give his residence. The officer said to him, "This man accuses you of taking his diamond pin": he says "I did not take the pin." I told him that he took it when he was in front of me, and he said then that he was behind me all the time. The defendant said that he was no thief and that he would make me feel sorry for having him arrested.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The defendant was taken to the Police Court the following morning. I went to Police headquarters last week and looked at several pictures which were shown me there. I only had one person arrested on this charge of larceny. I was called upon and asked if I could identify others, but I could not.

Q How many times did you and this defendant get off the platform of the car in order to let people out?

A Once.

Q Was the defendant on the platform at the time you entered the train? A I did not see him there.

Q You are sure this man was in front of you? A Yes, sir.

Q Who was it discovered the loss of your pin, was it yourself or your friend? A I did myself. I felt my pin less than a minute before I missed it. I did not say anything to the defendant when I followed him down the stairs. I may have lost sight of him for a minute or two while walking in the street as I turned my back around.

HENRY S. BARON, a witness for the people, sworn, and testified:

I reside at No. 107 East 64th Street. I was in company with Mr. Strauss, the complainant in this case on the afternoon of the 25th of April. We boarded the train together at the 23rd St. Station at about a quarter of six.

Mr. Strauss was on the rear platform of one car and I was on the front platform of another. I noticed when we got on the car and up to the time that we reached 50th Street that Mr. Strauss had a diamond pin in his scarf. I also noticed the defendant standing beside Mr. Strauss and also in front of him. At 57th St. the defendant got off the car and the ^{complainant} defendant followed. Between 50th and 57th Streets, I noticed the defendant having his hands on Mr. Strauss's person.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

- Q You did not see the defendant take this pin? A No, sir I did not see him take the pin.
- Q Did you notice the pin all the time? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was it that attracted your attention to his pin particularly at 50th Street. A Nothing more than when he got off the train, I noticed the pin in his scarf. The platform on which he stood was ~~was~~ quite crowded. I did not get off the car at 57th Street, but continued on the next station and went home.

JAMES W. BARRY, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of Police attached to the 23rd Precinct. On the 25th of April, I arrested the defendant. I was on duty on Lexington Avenue, when Mr. Strauss came up to me, told me something, and then he and I together walked after this defendant, and I arrested him.

POOR QUALITY

I told him that Mr. Strauss accused him of taking his diamond pin on the elevated train. He said that Mr. Strauss must be mistaken. I asked him his name and he would not tell me nor would he tell me where he lived. I said to him, "I guess Mr. Strauss is not mistaken in accusing you", and he says, "You be careful how you accuse me." He had nothing more to say that I remember at this time. I then took him to the station house, and the Sergeant asked him the usual questions. He refused to give his residence, and refused also to tell where he worked or who he worked for. He gave the name of John Reilly in the station house. He did not make any statement to the sergeant in the station house about this matter at all. When I was taking him down to Police Headquarters, he said to, "They will know me down there, I have been down 7 or 8 times inside of the last two months, but they could not fasten anything on to me.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

When I arrested him he denied having taken this pin. He also denied it in the station house and in the Police Court. Mr. Strauss did not go to Police Headquarters with me at any time.

JOHN REILLY, the defendant, sworn, testified:

My right name is Michael Bohen; I served a term in State Prison of two years and a half for grand larceny. I am at present suffering with my lungs and the doctors say that I am in consumption. At the time of my arrest, I was living at No. 441 East 75th St. with my brother-in-law. He is a horse dealer and his name is Jacob Strauss. I was on the platform of this elevated car on the 25 th of March as stated by the complainant.

Q Did you notice whether or not he had a diamond pin in his scarf. ans sir

Q Did you take a scarf pin from him? A No, sir.

Q If a scarf pin was taken from him, do you know who took it. a no sir.

Q You were not interested in taking any pin from Mr. Strauss or any other property? A No, sir, I was reading the paper.

Q He says that when you got off at 57th Street, he saw you talking to some person on the platform; who was that person. A I may have spoken to some person on the platform, but there was nobody with me?

Q Where were you going at the time of your arrest? A I was going to meet my brother-in-law, who was buying a horse at 57th Street and 6th Avenue. I had engaged to meet him over there at half past six o'clock, and was on my way when the officer accosted me.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Since you got out of prison, what have you been working at? A I have been working with my brother-in-law in his stables on 74th Street. On this afternoon, he had nothing for me to do, so I went down town to Miner's Theatre. He asked me to come back at half past 6 and meet him at 57th Street and 6th Avenue, and bring a horse home for him that he was going to buy.

Q Why did you refuse to give your residence when you were asked for it? A Because I did not want my right name to get in the papers, as then it would be thought that I was guilty of doing this.

Q You started in after you came out of prison to lead a straight life? A yes, sir.

Q If that is so, why did you not give your address to the officer when he asked you? A I did not want to say where I lived, because my brother-in-law would then find out that I was arrested.

Q Why did you give the name of John Reilly if you were perfectly? A Because if I gave my right name, they would find out that I had been in States Prison..

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree as a second offence.

Indictment dismissed

Court of General Sessions
The People
vs.
Michael Robacco

Report.

From the annexed statement of the complaining witness it appears that the proof the People have in support of the within indictment, is so insufficient that a conviction of the defendant must be regarded as highly improbable, and furthermore that the nuisance has since been abated.

I, therefore, recommend the dismissal of the indictment herein.

Dated New York, June 5, 1890

Thomas J. Crystal, detective
6th precinct. That on the 22^d of February, 1890, I went into the yard building of 32 Mulcherry Street and there saw one prostitute lying in bed with a bed, having sexual intercourse with him. There were at the same time in the same room about five other prostitutes and about five or six men, who were drinking stale beer, and kept up a general brawl. They had a pale of beer there, which to
all appearance was stale.
I have seen prostitutes go in
and out and cruise in front
of said house prior to the said 22^d of February. I have seen the defendant on various occasions exercise acts of authority over the said premises, such as telling the prostitutes standing in front of said house, to move away
or to go inside, putting parties out of the premises, who were apparently drunk, talking with the prostitutes that meet in and out of the said premises in a manner that betokened his authority. When I entered ~~the said premises~~ on the afore-said day I approached the said house, the defendant, who was standing in the door, ran through the hallway and jumped over the fence into the adjoining yard. I have not been able to obtain proof that the defendant has been the lessee of said premises or the agent of the owner or lessee thereof. He may have been a mere inmate. The building has been torn down since the defendant was arrested. He was also charged with having stolen a sum of money from a prostitute, but this charge was dismissed, the said prostitute being recognized in the Police Court as an habitual thief who had been on the Island several times. This is all the proof I have against the def.

are as follows:

Thomas Curran, 26, U.S. Single, 432 W. 17th St

Mar. 30th suffering from acute alcoholism
and what appeared to be contusions
of eye and cheek. He gave no history, and there was nothing to make me suspect any foul play.
He was dressed by my assistant,
and walked out in about 10 minutes.
Several days later he came in again, saying that "Vitreol" had been thrown into his eyes, and asking for a certificate to that effect from me. From my knowledge of the case, I was unable to certify to any such fact, and gave a statement as above, for the court.
These are all the facts in the case. The wounds as seen by me, at the time, were not

state by what they may have been caused. If "Vitreol" was the article used, and if it had struck
the patient's eyes instead of his cheeks
the injury would have been a very severe one.

Hoping that the above statement
may be sufficient, and my presence
not required.

I am very respectfully,

Should you require my attendance, will

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Lawrence Ahearn and John Rooney.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The deponent further says, that he and the defendants were friends for a long time, before the occurrence herein, and are friends now. That the defendants are to deponent's knowledge decent and respectable young men. That the deponent has reason to believe and does believe that at the time of the occurrence herein the defendants ^{and deponent} were under the influence of liquor and that the act of the defendants was the result of a drunken freak, and was in no wise malicious and with no intent or purpose of doing injury or harm to this deponent. That deponent was but slightly injured from the acts of defendants. I now declare that it would be a source of satisfaction ^{to me} if the court would discharge the defendants.
