PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Harry Neaderthal

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant is the main support of a widowed mother, and since his arrest has been working steadily, and his habits and character have been good. He is related by marriage to me, and I believe the punishment already meted out to him will be a lesson to him the balance of his life.

Agreement

Know all men by these presents, that we, Henry Edward Nolte of the City, County and State of New York, party of the first part and Gustav Buske of the same place party of the second part do hereby agree as follows:

The said Henry Edward Nolte, being the owner of a certain Real Estate office situated at ~~N. 47 E. 2nd St.~~ the said City of New York, agrees to employ the said Gustav Buske as a collector and clerk in the said real estate office and to pay him a salary of ten dollars a week.

The said Gustav Buske agrees to work for the said Henry Edward Nolte as a collector and clerk in the said real estate office from 8 o'clock in the morning till 6 o'clock in the evening, except Sundays.

It is also agreed that as the said Gustav Buske in his Capacity as collectors will have certain moneys belonging to the said Henry Edward Noote on hand, the said Gustav Guere in order to secure the said Henry Edward Noote shall and does hereby give to the said Edward Henry Noote the sum of Two hundred dollars as security, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged. These two hundred dollars together with interest thereon at five per cent per annum must be returned by the said Henry Edward Noote to the said Gustav Guere on the day of discharging their mutual relations as employer and employee.

This agreement remains in full force till any of the parties desires, but a four weeks notice must be given by the party desiring to dissolve their said mutual relations.

It is also agreed between the said parties that the said two hundred dollars shall be put in some bank on their both names, in

Gustav Busby

of No. 444 Washington Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 29th day of December 1890

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Dependent read an advertisement in a news paper published in this City to wit: The New Yorker Staats Zeitung. That said advertisement read: Wanted a German with two hundred dollars deposit steady work off. Earn 2nd then said news paper being hereto annexed. That defendant went to said place in answer to said advertisement and, there, Edmund Nolte and Alexander Schmidt were in said place that said Nolte then and there informed defendant that he would employ defendant as a clerk and collector that defendant would be required to deposit said sum of two hundred dollars with him Nolte. That defendant did believe such statements to be true and gave said Nolte said money, for which he received the annexed receipts—

Defendant has since ascertained that the defendant Nolte has no business whereby to employ defendant and that said Nolte has stolen said money from defendant by trick and device. Defendant further says that he requested the defendant who agreed to go with defendant to Notary Public for the purpose of drawing a legal agreement with him, that when said instrument was written by Benjamin J. Gretsch that Nolte refused to sign said agreement. That defendant then demanded said money from said Holtz and that he refused to give said money to defendant. Defendant further says that he caused the arrest of defendants by Officer Meyer that said officer informed defendant that said Holtz had informed said officer that he had given said money to Alexander Schmidt. Defendant therefore charges the said defendants with having stolen said money and prays that they be held to answer. Defendant says further that he was informed by said Holtz that he was to receive the sum of ten dollars per week that defendant had no services to perform and that he was received no compensation.

January 9th, 1893.

Hon. Frederick Smyth, Recorder.

SIR:

Following is report relative to Frank Nugent, who plead guilty before you on January 5th, 1893:-

Nugent's real name is Frank Vandam, and he admitted to Inspector McLoughlin, when brought to Headquarters for identification, that he had been sentenced once for petit larceny for stealing a book. His picture was taken for the Rogues' Gallery. There have been recovered two overcoats which he stole, one from the Post Building, Dec.
18th, 1892, and one from 9 Stone Street, Dec. 23, 1892. He has lived at numerous lodging houses on the Bowery for several years past.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. Trainer
