President French,

(Dear Sir,

I am given to understand that my case has already been brought to your notice by my counsellor, Mr. Seymour.

I candidly admit that many actions of my past life have been very foolish, but that I am innocent of any criminal intent in this charge.

0320

If such a thing were possible, and you would intercede with Judge Cowing on my behalf, or rather on account of my mother, who depends upon me chiefly for support, and who is in feeble health, and very much prostrated, by this trouble — if you would do this, I would ever remain your debtor, and would endeavour by my future life to prove that the month's incarceration which I have already undergone has taught me the folly of evil ways.

0321

My case comes up for trial tomorrow.

I must beg you to excuse the liberty I have taken in addressing you.

of your kind intercession,
believe me to remain,
