Dear Son William

I will go to see the boys father to Monday night and have him with me at the District Attorneys office on Tuesday next before court appears and have all arrangements made in regard to refunding the boy his money.

I expect his Honour has suspended Sentence in your case from the manner in which he talked to me his Honour asked me if I would give the boy his money and I said I would but it would take me two weeks before I could be able to do it so he said that was all right and then he remanded you for two weeks longer and as soon as he remanded you I turned back again and asked his Honour

0267

If I could get the money, I would be satisfied and he said at any time.

So you see your chances are very favorable in getting out on Tuesday next.

If your case is brought up before Tuesday you can show this to his honor.

I will send you in something to eat to-morrow so good by for a while.

J. S. S. and Maria are well at present.
