PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Levi Corn.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I do so because I have been informed that it is the defendant's first offense. And he is now employed by his father, a reputable merchant in this city, and I think his release will be the means of making him a good and useful member of society, as his arrest on this charge has been a warning to him, the property which was taken was valued at $30<sup>00</sup> and has all been returned.
