We cannot understand it, as we have known him always as a honest and straightforward young man, and we feel the greatest of sorrow for his family, whom we know feel greatly the disgrace brought upon by his indiscretion.

And in consideration of this most worthy family we hope that as much leniency as possible will be shown the young man

50TH ANNIVERSARY

— OF THE —

FOUNDING OF THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

It is proposed to celebrate, at 8 p. m., April 10th, 1891, at the Metropolitan Opera House in this city, the 50th Anniversary of the founding of THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, by Horace Greeley.

From its origin, THE TRIBUNE has been identified with lines of public policy, which have, in a measure, contributed to the employment of the whole people in profitable industries, the population of the West, the development of America's natural resources, the freedom of man, the promotion of sobriety and morality, and the greatness of the Republic. As a journal, THE TRIBUNE has not been without its influence on the public mind in the direction of right thinking, integrity and patriotism. A dignified and brilliant celebration, devoted to reminiscence, congratulation, and consideration of the future, seems fitting upon the 50th Anniversary of the founding of this paper.

A number of men of national reputation and distinguished ability have consented to speak on this occasion. Among them are the Hon. James G. Blaine, the Hon. George William Curtis, the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, and the Hon. Roswell G. Horr; and, it is hoped, the Hon. Charles A. Dana, and the Hon. William McKinley will also speak.

The whole house will be seated by ticket, and applications for seats should be promptly made.

Court of General Sessions. Part I
Before Judge Martine. April 7, 1891
Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.
Charles Marbach, sworn and examined, testified.
I live at No. 64 Broome street and I am a vendor.
I sell fruit, anything in a wagon to make an honest living in and about the city of New York.
I have a stable at No. 50 Sheriff street and in that stable I keep my horse, harness and feed.
I have wagons but they are out working today.
What wagon did you own on the 12th day of March of this year? A green bodied wagon, red running gear, "the little Mammie" on the tail board; it was painted on it. On the 12th of March where was that wagon? I was working all that Thursday and when I got through with my work I took my wagon in front of my residence where I live No. 64 Broome St. I took my horse out and fetched my horse to the stable; the wagon was there. I went out that same night, Thursday the 12th of March and came home at twelve o'clock and my wagon was still there yet in front of my residence. I went down again at half past one o'clock and my wagon had disappeared. I have got a dog and I took him down stairs. I missed my wagon and I went and reported it at the station house. What was the value of that 0058

wagon? one hundred and twenty five dollars.
 After you reported the loss of your wagon at the station house when next did you see it? I did not see it until detective sergeant Cottrell came and notified me. Where did you go?
 He took me to No. 16 Gouverneur Street and I saw the wagon there; it was secreted up in a hay loft all taken apart; the wheels
 were put in one corner <sup>and</sup> all scraped,
 the paint was scraped off, the running gear was in another corner and the springs in another; the whole wagon was taken apart. There was straw over the springs. Did you ever see the defendant before? Yes. I know him through a party who worked for me named Charlie Knapp. How long have you known him? About a month. Did you know him to speak to him? Not very much.
 Did you ever speak to him in your life? Yes.
 Did you see him after you discovered the loss of your wagon? No sir. When did you last see him before you missed the wagon? On the Monday pass my residence - the Monday previous to the Thursday that the wagon was stolen. What did ~~he~~ say to you then? Nothing; he only nodded. Did you ever speak to this man in your life? Yes. I just said "halloo" and that was all. Was anything ever said by the prisoner to you concerning the loss of your wagon? No sir. Has anything ever said in the way of expression of sympathy for the loss of your wagon by him? No sir not by him. Whose place was it, if you know, that you saw parts of the wagon? The place was hired by Campbell, 16 Gouverneur St.; it was a stable.

Cross Examined - Do you know who took your wagon? No sir. I was told that Campbell hires the place 16 Gouverneur St. I went there with detective Cottrell and his partner officer Tomas. I did not see Mr. Campbell there. What day was that that you went there to 16 Gouverneur St.? On a Saturday, the next week after I missed it, the 21st.

John Cottrell sworn and examined. I am an officer in the staff of Inspector Byrnes and am acquainted with the defendant. I saw the defendant before he went to Trenton prison. (Counsel excepted to the answer of the witness and the Court instructed the jury to disregard it.)

In the month of March did you see the defendant? Yes where did you see him? I arrested him in the alley of 16 and 18 Gouverneur St. He had a stable there; he showed me receipts for the <sup>renting of the</sup> stable. Why did you go there on the 12th of March? I had been watching this man for a couple of days. I went there the night before I went in the stable on the 20th of March. From information you received you went to these premises? Yes, in company with a man. He is now in Court, by the name of Devlin. He stated at Police Headquarters that he had lost a horse. It was information you received you went there? Yes. I asked the defendant how many wagons he had there was it you saw Campbell? In the stable on the 20th of March at 8.30 in the morning. I asked him how many wagons he had and he said, two; one was on the ground floor. I asked him where the other was, and he said, "in the loft." I asked him where he got that wagon in the loft? He said he had it a year before he moved into that stable, that he got it from the West side. I said I know different from that chick, - I did not call him Campbell. "That wagon is all taken apart. I am satisfied that you did not have it a year." Well, he says, I bought it for twenty two dollars off a fellow outside in the alley I asked him about other property which was there which he claimed was his. Did Marbuck go there with you? Yes sir. When was that? That was on the 21st. What did Marbuck do? Marbuck went up in the loft. There was a bulldog up there and we pulled him out, and Mr. Marbach identified the wagon as his property. All the wheels where were they found? They were all in different parts of the loft; the springs were partly covered with a little straw; the wheels were in another part, the body was taken apart all separate - the shafts were in the loft.

By the Court. Was the wagon there entire - did you put it together? No sir, not until we took it out of the loft after, I brought it to the Police Headquarters. Did you see the tail board? Yes, it had "little Marnie" on it. After I found the wagon in pieces I went and saw the defendant at the bar. What conversation did you have with him? He told me I had enough cases against him, that I ought not to pound him. I arrested him on the 20th of March and took him to Police Headquarters. He made the same statements there that he had made over at the stable.

Cross Examined. When I first saw the defendant and asked him how many wagons he had he said he had two; he told me one was in the ground floor and the other was on the loft. That was correct. I will not swear that the statement he made to me that the wagon he bought for twenty two dollars was not true. The parts of the wagon that were taken apart were not broken; there was a little scratch on the wheel; there was a paint pot up there. Charles Marbach recalled by Counsel. There a stable. In connection with your business is it not a fact that you purchase horses and wagons continually? No sir.

By Mr. McIntyre. Your place is at No. 64 Broome street? That is my residence; it is between ~~Clinton~~ and Lewis streets. Where you went to identify your wagon you went to No. 16 Gouverneur street? Gouverneur street in the alley.

By the Court How far away from your place is Gouverneur street? It is about eight blocks east.

Michael Devlin, sworn and examined by Mr. McIntyre testified: Where do you live? No. 46

Watt street. What is your business? Truckman. Have you trucks of your own? Yes sir. Were you with Officer Cothrell on or about the 20th of March in 16 Gouverneur street? Yes sir. What were you doing there? I was looking for a horse.

Counsel. I ask that that be stricken out as immaterial to this case.

The Court Yes, I will strike it out.

By Mr. McIntyre Did you see the defendant there on that occasion? Yes sir. Did you see any component parts of a wagon under hay or straw? No sir. Did you see any parts of a wagon at all on that day? I seen a wagon altogether down stairs, not up stairs. Were you up stairs at all? No sir. What sort of a wagon was it that was altogether down stairs? It was a top wagon like a grocery wagon. It is not claimed that that was the wagon in question? No sir, it is not.

By Counsel This was the defendant's own wagon? I do not know whose wagon it was.

Mr. McIntyre The people rest.

The Case for the Defence.

Charles Marbach, recalled by counsel for the defendant. How long had you your wagon in use? I just bought the wagon twelve days before. I owned that wagon twelve days. How much did you give for it when you bought it? One hundred and fifty dollars. Where? Up town. Give me the name of the firm, that is all? Pennell. For the wagon alone? No sir, for the horse, wagon and harness. I bought this all complete. How much did you give for the harness? For the horse, wagon and harness one hundred and fifty dollars. Was the harness that you bought new? It was as good as new.

By the Court Was it a new harness? No sir. Was it nearly new? Yes sir.

By Counsel How much was the value of the horse? Twenty five dollars. How much for the harness? I do not know, sir. The wagon itself was not an entirely new wagon was it? No sir. Had not that wagon been used before? Yes sir, before I got it. How long had that wagon been in use? I do not know, <sup>my</sup> you cannot tell us the value of the harness? No sir. How much would be about the value of the wagon by itself? One hundred and twenty five dollars. You make no allowance at all for the harness because your horse is worth twenty five dollars? I refused one hundred and twenty five dollars for the wagon. Counsel moved to dismiss the case on the ground that there was no evidence to go to the jury. The defendant was indicted for grand larceny in one count and for receiving stolen goods in the other. It had been proved that the wagon, which was alleged to have been stolen was found in his premises - premises said to have been hired by him; and also that he was in a line of business in which a wagon is purchased and sold; that there was no evidence as to who stole the wagon and the detective would not say that the statement made by the defendant at the time that he bought it for twenty two dollars was not true. The District Attorney said he would go to the jury on the count for receiving stolen goods. The defendant offered no testimony. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

New York, April 15th, 1891.

A p p e a r a n c e s :

For the People,
Assistant District Attorney Wauhope Lynn,

For the Defendant,
Mr. Frank J. Keller.

A N T O N    A L B O N I E S O, Jr., a witness for
the people, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 339 Vernon Avenue, Brooklyn. I know the premises No. 623 Water Street in this city. I manufacture skylights and cornices in that building.
I had three sets of harness in those premises last month.
There was one set on the store floor and there were two sets on the floor above that. On the night of the 22nd of February last between five and six o'clock, I securely locked those premises. The set of harness which was mentioned in the indictment in this case was in a closet in those premises at the time I locked it up. On Monday morning, the 23rd, I came to the store at about half past seven o'clock in the morning; I found the side door wide open; and the ahll door wide open. It looked as though a chisel or something had been used to pry the door open. I made an investigation of the premises and found that a set of harness which was in one of the closets was missing. I did not see that harness again until I found it in the stable kept by this defendant at No. 16 Gouverneur Street. When I went into the stable, I saw my set of harness hanging up on the wall. The only change that I saw in it was that the letter A, the initial had been removed from each one of the eyelids; you could see the two places where the letters A were. I had no conversation with the defendant at the time.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The defendant is a stranger to me. It was exactly a month after I lost the harness that I found it in the stable of the defendant. The harness was hanging in that part of the stable where it is usual to hang such things. I would not say that a hrness of this kind would be in the line of the defendant's business. I value the harness at $35. I missed no other property from my premises at the time this set of harness was taken.

J O H N C O T T R E L L, witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am a detective sergeant connected with the Central Office. In company with Detective Formosa, I arrested the defendant at his stable, No. 16 Gouverneur Street on the 20 of March. The complainant was with me at the time, and he identified the harness which was hanging up in the defendant's stable as his property. I inspected the eye-blinkers and saw that the letter A had been effaced, but there was still an impression of the letter A upon each one of them. The defendant was arrested on the different complaint. I said to the defendant, "Where did you get that set of harness hanging up there?" He says, "I got that up at Van Tassel's about four months ago." I said, "I know different, you are not telling the truth, you know you lie. I am going to lock you up anyhow." He said, "To tell you the truth, I bought that off a young fellow in the alley for 25 cents."

CROSS EXAMINATION:

This harness was hanging up in the stable the same as harness usually hangs in a stable. I know the firm of Van Tassel & Kearney. I believe that the statement the defendant made in reference to them was not true. I did not go to Van Tassel & Kearney's to find out whether it was or not.

CHARLES FORMOSA, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer connected with the Central Office. I was present in company with the last witness at the stable of the defendant on the day mentioned by him.

Cottrell asked the defendant in regard to that particular set of harness and the defendant said he had bought it four months previous at Van Tassel & Kearney's. Cottrell said, "I know better than that; you did not buy it there." and the defendant said, "I am going to tell you the truth; that set of harness was sold to me by a boy for 25 cents. I said nothing but simply listened to the conversation.

D E F E N C E.

J A M E S C A M P B E L L, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am 38 years of age. I have been convicted before and was discharged after serving ten months in the Trenton State Prison, on the 27th of August, 1886. Since that time I have been leading an honest life. I have managed to get money enough together to buy a horse and wagon and I peddle merchandise for a living. When the officers came to my place, the set of harness which has been referred to was hanging up in my stable plainly in sight of any one who came in. I bought that set of harness at Van Tassel & Kearney's and paid $8. for it at an auction sale. I made no other statement to the officer except that I bought it at an auction sale. I do not remember exactly the date when I bought the harness.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I think I bought the harness some time in March, but could not tell who the individual was that sold it to me. All the other property in the stable belonged to me. I have never bought any other harness in Van Tassel & Kearney's. I think it was nearer to the first than it was to the 19th of March when I bought the harness. I refuse to answer about the horse which was in my stable at the time I was arrested. I was never convicted in Staten Island of any crime. When Officer Cottrell began to talk to me he called be a convict; he also called me by the nickname of "Chic." I am positive that I paid $8. for this harness at Van Tassel & Kearney's.

FREDERICK G. FLEMING, a witness for the people, in rebuttal, sworn, testified:

I am an assistant employed at Van Tassel & Kearney's. I have the books with me containing all the sales of harness made in the month of March last. I have carefully examined those books and I do not find any sale of a set of harness at the price of $8. to any person during that month. I do not find any where in these books the entry of a sale of a set of harness to a person by the name of James Campbell. The entries in these books are in the handwriting of the assistant bookkeeper. I can only testify as to what appears in the books. I have no memory independent from the books. It is possible that such a sale might be made and no entry of it appear in the books. All I can say is that it does not appear on the books.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods.
