City & County of New York:

John H. Holling being duly sworn, says; that he is thirty two years of age and resides at No. 353 West 40 Street in the City of New York, and ~~is~~ engaged in the milk business.

My business necessitates my arising about two o'clock every morning to begin my route. On the morning of Sunday, August 23^d 1888, I arose about two o'clock and prepared my horse & wagon for my day's business. About three o'clock on that morning, my wagon and horse were standing in front of my door, and Peter Malone was standing alongside of it on the side walk. At that time the complainant's wagon was standing a few doors below my house, when two men got upon the side of the complainant's wagon, and took the reins and drove the horse away driving from one side of the street to the other, the complainant being at at the time on his wagon. All during this time Peter Malone remained at my wagon, and called to the men on the wagon to "let him (meaning complainant) alone".

I have known Peter Malone two or three years and always knew him as, and found him to be all right. I never knew any thing wrong about him, and believe him to be of good reputation.

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Amelia Catharina

~~and Maggie O'Brien~~ (now here) having at the time the care and custody of a female child under the age of six years (to wit two days old.) did desert the said child in Mulabandon it, for the reason, that about the hour of 8 1/2 o'clock P.M. on the night of the aforesaid day, while deponent was coming through Mulberry Street said Amelia ~~and said~~ ~~Maggie~~ stopped deponent and told deponent if she would leave the said child in some body's doorway they would pay her two dollars therefore upon deponent's replying that she would do it said Amelia told deponent to wait in said street with said Maggie while she went after said child and while deponent was waiting, she deponent informed Arthur Price police, what was going to take place.

Shortly thereafter said Amelia returned with the said child to where said Maggie and deponent were. And then gave said child to deponent together with

William M. Penny Esq.,

Secretary to the District Attorney &c.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter to our Superintendent of February 1st, requesting particulars in possession of the Society relating to the case of Madelena Mascherpa, convicted of abandonment on October 12, 1885, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary by Judge Gildersleeve, the facts of the case are these:

The prisoner is an alleged midwife, residing at 67 Park Street. She attended an unfortunate girl, and three days after the confinement she was paid $25. to take the child to a good place where the mother could receive it when she recovered from her confinement. Instead of doing so, she gave a young woman named Maggie O'Brien $2. to place it on a door-step or anywhere else. She not only defrauded the woman out of her money, but in addition caused the child to be exposed in a public place when it was only three days old, endangering its life thereby. The jury had no hesitation in finding her guilty, and I see no reason why her very lenient sentence should be abridged.

I remain, with great respect,

Minio T. Gerry

12

The People
Edward ^{v.} McCall } Court of General Sessions Part I Before Recorder Smyth
Monday, October 12, 1885. Jointly indicted with John Meeks and John Sullivan for rape Sarah Butler sworn and examined.
I am a tailor and cloak maker; on the 20th of Sept. I was living in Twenty Ninth St. and First Ave. I remember that Sunday evening I was down at the corner of Twenty Ninth St. and came back again up to the corner of Thirtieth St.; it was about nine o'clock when I came out of the house; it was a quarter past nine when I got to the corner of Thirtieth St. I was alone. I first saw the defendant McCall near Thirtieth St. in the middle of the block; it was just before he was arrested, about 20 minutes past nine; the first attack that was made upon me was in the corner of Thirtieth St. and Second Ave. I was just turning that corner when two or three men came up. I dropped ten cents, and one of the men said, "That are you looking for?" I said I dropped ten cents. One said, "I will pick it up." I could not tell who he was. I first saw McCall in Thirtieth St. on the other side of First Avenue, he was amongst the crowd.
They were all strangers to me. I would know them if I saw them. I have identified two.

I saw John Meeks, Sullivan and McCall in 30th st. I was grabbed by a crowd and thrown down. None of those three men grabbed me first. I was thrown down and then got up again and got away from them and I was grabbed again by the other party (Sullivan, Meeks and the defendant). Meeks was the one that held me down. Sullivan was standing up; he did not do anything to me. McCall was the one who had connection with me. he was on top of me, and whilst he was having connection with me. Meeks held me down by the shoulder and Sullivan had his legs across my body. McCall had his pants undone and my dress was up, it was forced up by some of them. McCall I am sure had connection with me. I tried my utmost to get away but I could not when I was held down. I tried to raise myself up. I cried out and officer Sargent came. I was not able to do anything when he came. Some of them ran away. McCall was lying on top of me and the officer pulled him off at the same time then and there. This was in Thirtieth street - not in a house, but in the street on the sidewalk about 9/12 at night on the 28th of Sept. My clothes did not get torn. I never saw these men before in my life.

Cross Examined. I was convicted once for soliciting. I did not go to the Island. I was fined five dollars in Essex Market. I know Charles Hoffmann is a night watchman at Thirtieth St. and East River. I am not in the habit of going down to the dock and drinking with him. he had connection with me once and that is all at 5 Delancey St. in a house. I stated in the Court that I had connection with him. I worked at cloak making two months ago for Luke in Catherine St. I worked there four weeks. Before that I had nothing to do. A gentleman gave me money to get along with; he did not sleep with me but he had intercourse with me. Sullivan did not have intercourse with me by my consent; he did not have connection with me by my consent before McCall did. The only person that had connection with me was McCall. I said I wanted to get up and make water. I got up and wanted to run away and they grabbed me back; that was the second time I was grabbed. That was the exact language you used. What did you say? I said to make water. I said, "Leave go of me till I make water."

4) Edward G. Glennon sworn. I am a police officer attached to the 21st precinct. I was on duty the night of the 20th of Sept. My post was from Fourth Ave. to Twenty Ninth St. and the East river. I went on duty at six o'clock. After nine o'clock I was standing on the corner of Twenty Ninth St. and First Ave. some young men came down to me on the corner and said something. On my way to Thirtieth St. I met two little boys and I sent one of them down the Avenue towards Twenty Seventh St. and the other towards Thirty Fourth St. to meet my side partner and tell him that I wanted him at Thirtieth St. and First Avenue. I got to Thirtieth St. and First Avenue. I waited a moment or two to see if he came along. In waiting for him I heard a scream and I ran down the street. It was a woman's scream. I ran down Thirtieth St. towards the river from First Ave. I went down on the north side of the street. I saw a crowd opposite to me and I crossed over and three or four ran away. As I got down there this woman was lying down and one man had her by the shoulders and there was another man on top of her.

I don't know the man who had her by the shoulder; the man who was on top of her was McCall. I could not say that his clothes were open; her clothes were raised. I could not say if the lower part of his body was exposed. As soon as I got there of course they all ran, but McCall, I got him; she jumped up, I could not hardly have time to grab him, he tried to run and I caught him. I took him to the station house. All I said to him on the way to the station house was, "You ought to be ashamed of yourself," and he said, "That is all right." I took him to the police court. I asked him who were associated with him and he refused to tell. He said, I don't know; and he afterwards made a statement to Judge Hornum. The judge asked him what he had to say? and he said what the officer said is true; "I did not bring her down there. I made a statement to the judge of the condition I found him in. He was told that the serious charge of rape was made against him. I did not notice his clothes when I brought him to the station house. The woman was sober as far as I could see. I did not know the woman before this."

The case for the Defence

Charles Hoffman sworn. I live 230 Christie St. and am a night watchman at Thirtieth St. and First Ave. I have been there five months. I have known this woman the complainant two or three years; she is a prostitute. I had connection with her twice; she was down on the dock two or three times; we drank liquor down there. Cross Examined. I don't know where she got the liquor, but she brought the whiskey in a bottle. Mr. McGowan and Mr. Meeks were with me. I don't know whether they gave her money to go for the whiskey or not. Another young man and I occupy rooms together at 230 Christie St. I had connection with her once at 6- Delancey St. and one time down at Thirtieth St. back of the office; it was in a building; this was about three days before this happened that I had connection with her the second time and the first time was two or three years ago. I never had connection with her again until the second occasion at Thirtieth St. I did not pay her anything for it either time. I have seen her solicit persons on the street; she solicited an officer named Stebbins; he looked her up and gave her a month. I saw her soliciting men in Josephine St. I am know particular friend of McCall's. I know him from seeing him around since I am working up there. I know Sullivan since I am working up there and know Meeks. I told Meeks that I had connection with this woman before the crime of rape was committed. He told me to keep her away from there and I told her to keep away.

Sarah Butler recalled. I stated here to say that I did not deny before Judge Gorman that I had connection with Hoffman. I was only asked by the judge, and I said I did.

Joseph Moss sworn. I am a lawyer and live at 305 East Twentieth St. I was in the Police Court at Fifty Seventh St. where the examination in this case took place - in the case of Sullivan and Meeks. I saw the girl there who just left the stand. I was only present at one examination. I was informed that the defendant had been committed the day before in default of bail to stand trial. I was not present at the examination of McCall. The woman was asked if she had had connection with Hoffman the night watchman at the foot of Thirtieth St. and the East River and she swore she never had connection with him. Hoffman was afterwards put on the stand and swore he did have connection with ~~her~~ I am in the office of Mr. ~~Howe~~ ~~Harmon~~ McGovern sworn. I live 525 First Avenue, I have seen the woman who is the complainant here on the dock the night of this occurrence around half past nine o'clock Sunday evening. I recollect the arrest of McCall. A friend of mine and myself were coming up the dock I saw this woman standing up; she passed the remark, "Let me pass and I will fuck the crowd. Then I saw her go over and lie down and my friend and I passed up the Avenue; the policeman came down and made the arrest. I did not hear her cry out while I was there. There was no screaming at all. I stood on the corner afterwards. Cross examined. I am a Truckman and work for Luther Bros. ~~Thomson~~ Meeks was with me on the dock that night; he watched the lumber for the boss who has a mill in Thirtieth St. I saw no one on the dock. I saw Sarah Butler first where this thing occurred. I have seen her before, but that was the first time I saw her that night. I could not recognize any one who was with her at the time it was so dark. I never saw

0654

McCall before. I saw Meeks that night but not with the crowd. I saw him going up and down the dock; he went down ahead of us and came up in front of us. He was not in the crowd that was attacking the woman. I know John Sullivan about a year or so but I am not a friend of his. Sullivan went down with Meeks. Sullivan was not in the crowd that were around that woman. I do not remember seeing McCall in that crowd. There was some people there. I do not know them. I saw the woman there. I knew it was her as I passed her; there was light enough to see her face; the people were not doing anything as I passed them; there were four or five standing around. Then the policeman came back about 15 minutes after I learned that McCall was arrested. The policeman asked us if we heard no hollering down there. We said, we did not. I saw the woman lie down in the doorway of the stone yard about the middle of the block between the River and First Avenue. I recognized the woman because I knew her by the dress. I did not wait to see what was done. There were four or five people around her at the time.

Thomas Meeks sworn. I live 337 East Thirty sixth st. and work in a molding mill for Mr. J. Wundersdunk. I was at the dock the night of the alleged rape. I was sitting on a rail and saw a couple of men going down the street. I was in charge of the lumber yard. I saw this girl standing up and passed her by. she passed the remark, if she got a chance to piss she would fuck the crowd. I left them there; my brother was sitting alongside of me at the time before we went down. I know McCall four or five years and know Sullivan. I did not see McCall have to do with her. I did not recognize McCall. Meeks nor Sullivan in the crowd. I heard no screaming at all.

Edward G. Gorman recalled. I told Judge Gorman that I heard a woman scream and that is how I came to go down there. I was on the north east corner of Thirtieth St. and First Ave. it was loud enough for me to hear. Her clothes were all dirty. As far as I could tell the woman was sober; she cried as she first got up. I was in uniform. I testified before Judge Gorman. I made my statement to the clerk and not to the Judge.

Patrick Tobin sworn. I live at 318 East Twenty Fifth St. I work in a lumber yard, Joseph Darrows East Thirty Fifth St. I was not down on the dock this Sunday night. I was on the corner of Thirtieth St. when I saw this woman standing talking to some fellow. The fellow walked down Twenty Ninth St. and she walked down ~~towards~~ the river behind some lumber piles. That is the last I saw of her; she walked down herself alone. Cross Examined. This was somewhere about 9 o'clock. I had my supper home Sunday night and left about six o'clock and walked up Thirtieth St. I was talking to a young man on the corner named James Smith at 6 1/2 o'clock; he remained with me up to 10 1/2 o'clock. I first saw Sarah Butler about 9 o'clock when she was talking to this fellow. I had not known her before; it was a bright night. I saw the woman again when she came up with the officer. I saw the defendant with the officer but I did not see him before that night. I did not see Meeks or Sullivan either, but I know them. I know Meeks' brother, the watchman of the lumber yard. I did not see him that night. I did not see any crime committed that night. I saw the officer down the street a quarter or half an hour after this woman had gone down. I did not follow the officer. The pile of lumber was 20 or 25 feet from that corner; she got out of my sight. There was no other woman around there that night. I did not watch the man at all.

Edward McCall sworn. I am one of the defendants, I live in Corona, L.I. I run a freight elevator 579 Union Square for Leon Reines, wholesale importer of French millinery goods. I heard what the woman testified to. I do not know what the word "exculpation" means, which was used in the examination before the Magistrate. When I said "I am guilty" I meant that I had connection with her. I did have connection with her that night but not against her will; she told me that I might. She says, "Wait till I piss and I will lie down." She went over to the gutter and she came back again; she laid down herself and then the officer came down and arrested me. I was on top of the woman when the officer arrested me and he took me off the woman. I did not try to get away; the officer took hold of me whilst I was on the woman and held me. She made no resistance.

It is not true that while I was lying on her another man stood with his legs across.
I was having connection with her in the ordinary way and I was the only one upon her. My head and face were over hers.

Cross Examined. My usual habit was to go home at night to Corona, but this time I thought I would stay in the city over Sunday.
I went to the Theatre with Sullivan - I went to a couple of Museums in the Bowery. We were drinking lager beer all the evening. When we left the Museum we went to Brennan's liquor store in First Avenue between 30th and 31st Sts., about one o'clock. I drank soda water to sober on. I was not very drunk. I cannot remember when Sullivan left me on Saturday night. I remained in Brennan's about half an hour. I went to go up to the Thirty Fourth St. ferry to go home, but I fell asleep in the ferry house and woke up early in the morning.
I don't know what time it was. I woke up myself and saw the men who attend the gates. I came out again, it was near six o'clock in the morning. I commenced to drink again in Brennan's lager beer. I stayed there half an hour, and when I left Brennan's I stayed around First Ave.
I saw Sullivan and Meeks there. I saw Patrick Tobin Sunday about five o'clock in the evening in Thirtieth St.; he was standing talking with a lot of fellows. I know pretty near all the boys who "hang out" on that corner. I don't know who he was talking to; there were three or four fellows. I was pretty drunk. I had been drinking all day. I saw Sullivan that evening just before I got arrested. I saw John Meeks that evening in Thirtieth St. about 9 o'clock. I had a conversation with him, but I do not remember now what it was about. I did not see Sarah Butler till I went down the dock. Tom Meeks went down with me, John Meeks' brother; he knew me very well. I have known him for some time. Meeks did not say that he ~~never~~ knew me before. McGowan said he did not know him. I went down with Thomas Meeks to where this woman was; she was in the doorway of the stove yard. I did not know her before that night. I asked her for it and she said, "yes." Meeks and Sullivan were there; they had no conversation with her. She laid down; the street ran down to the river straight, there is no dock there; it is not true when the officer said he found us on the sidewalk. I believe Meeks and Sullivan went up the street; when I was having intercourse with the woman they were not doing anything; they went up the street; they were not by me at the time; she did not scream or say a word. They said in the Police Court that I was charged with a serious offence. I know the difference between "guilty" and "not guilty." I did not know I was charged with rape. The clerk asked me if I was guilty of having connection with the woman and I said, yes. I do not remember that the Magistrate or the clerk read over to me the affidavit of the woman. He told me what the woman had stated. I was not close to the woman when she was making her statement. I did not hear what she said. They told me the woman made a complaint against me for rape. She said there were five men dragged her down to the river, and I asked her did I drag her down and she said, "No." The Judge asked me if I was guilty and I said, yes. I meant that I had connection with her and nothing else. The clerk told me I was charged with a serious offence and that I would get twenty years. The Judge asked me who the other two fellows were. I had money with me; she did not ask me for any but she just laid down.

Edward McCall recalled I have worked for Mr. Rheims a year and a month; he is not in Court; he is in Paris. I know now what rape is but did not before. I often read of the crime of rape in the papers. I can read and write, I am 23 years old. Knocking a woman down and having connection with her against her will is rape. John Sullivan sworn. I live 337 East Thirty Sixth St. I am a wire drawer by trade. I worked for my father in Brooklyn at the time; he is just starting in business. I was going down Thirtieth St. dock. I am in the habit of going down very often after work. I seen a party of three or four persons and this woman standing there. I was not acquainted with them. Afterwards I saw her lying down. I went over to see what it was and I stayed there a few moments. I saw a party have connection with her. I dont know who he was; he came from Twenty eighth St. I dont know any of their names. It was not the man who was jointly indicted with him. Then this ~~woman~~ got up that was on top of the woman she did not seem to say anything against it; she laid there of her own free will and I had connection with her.

Then I got up and went away. I did not see any more of it and I sat on the corner of Thirtieth St. and First Ave. where I was sitting before with Thomas Meeks and John Meeks and Thomas McGowan. I did not see Mc Fall have connection with her. I could not tell if the woman was drunk, she smelled of liquor. She said, "Take your time and I will give it to the whole crowd of you." There was three or four there at the time. Cross Examined. I work for R. H. Wolf & Co. Peekskill. I have worked in New Haven and Pittsburg. I have not worked for anybody in New York City. I have been in New York about a year and a half. I was unloading sugar vessels. I was out on Saturday night with the defendant. I met him between Thirtieth St. and First Avenue about half past eight; we went to a Museum in the Brewery; we were drinking together. I was under the influence of liquor but I knew what I was doing. John Meeks and I stood on the corner of Second Avenue and Thirtieth St. I went back to First Avenue again. Thomas Meeks and Thomas McGowan came back again and we sat talking there. Then a little after nine I saw this woman going down on the other side of the dock. I saw three or four persons. I don't know who they were. When I got down there they were having connection with her in the stone yard, the doorway below the new building; two of them were having connection with her while I was there. I have seen them but I do not know their names; when they got through I had connection with her. I gave her no money. I went up the First Avenue and stood on the north west corner about five minutes. John Meeks came and joined me and I sat down and then I saw the policeman arresting Mc Ball. I did not see Mc Ball when he went down the street. I had no conversation with him. I heard no screaming. Meeks saw me having connection with her. I did not know what Meeks did. I left him behind. I never saw the woman before.

Sarah Butler recalled. I lived in 73 Eldridge St. about six weeks ago. The house is kept by a German woman; it is not a house of prostitution. I know officer Stebbins by sight; he arrested me once a year ago for soliciting. I got one month and I was on Blackwell's Island for a week. I was living at the corner of Forsythe and Broome street.

John Meeks sworn. I live 337 East 36th St. and have been bailed by my father; he works in a lumber yard. I was at this place on the night when this girl claims she was raped. I was sitting on the corner alongside of my brother when she came along the Avenue. I saw her of her own free will walk down the dock and I saw three or four men around her and I came right up again; she was not carried down. I did not hear her cry out or any thing of that kind. I heard her laughing with these men. Cross Examined. The woman went down alone. I generally go down there every night between the hours of eight and ten o'clock. I did not have an appointment down there with anybody. Sometimes John Sullivan plays the accordion. I saw Sullivan this night on the corner of Thirtieth St. and was talking to him before the woman went down there. I did not see the direction he took when he left me. I walked down alone. I don't know exactly what brought me down. I first saw the woman where the policeman caught her, down at the stone yard. I do not know who was with her. I was not close enough to see. I am sure it was she. I never saw her before. I did not see her face. I did not see the faces of any one of the men John Sullivan was down ahead of me; he did not say anything to me about being with the woman. I was not there at the time he had connection with her. I did not hear any screaming while I was at the corner. I saw the officer coming down the block. I thought he was going down after the woman. I did not hear the policeman's club.

Edward G. Glennon recalled. Sarah Butler's complaint was made out by the clerk and the Judge called the defendant up; he said "You are charged with a very serious offense which may send you to the State prison for twenty years; it is a case of rape. You can demand an examination or you can say nothing as you choose. What have you got to say?" He said, "That the officer said about the case is true, I was with the woman against her will but I did not drag her down there."

Patrick Connolly sworn. I live 529 East Avenue and am in the notion business. I know M. Call for nine years; his general character is good. I have seen him in company with John Meeks and John Sullivan.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.
