The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Abbie Neuendorff and Louis Neuendorff

(Sec. 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL-FAME, committed as follows:

The said Abbie Neuendorff and Louis Neuendorff, both late of the 19th Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty-fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and on divers other days and times, as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill-fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said Abbie Neuendorff and Louis Neuendorff on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

(Section 385, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said Abbie Neuendorff and Louis Neuendorff, both late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the Twenty-fourth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred

THIRD COUNT—

(Section 322 Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A DISORDERLY HOUSE, committed as follows:

The said Abbie Neuendorff and Louis Neuendorff, both late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the <sup>twenty fifth</sup> day of <sup>March</sup> in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-<sup>nine</sup> and on divers other days and times between the said day and the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did keep a certain ill-governed and disorderly house, the same being a place of public resort, and in the said house and place of public resort, for <sup>her</sup> own lucre and gain, certain persons, as well men as women, of evil name and fame, and of dishonest conversation, to frequent and come together, then and on the said other days and times, there unlawfully and wilfully did cause and procure, and the said men and women in <sup>her</sup> said house, at unlawful times, as well in the night as in the day, then and on the said other days and times, there to be and remain, drinking, tippling, gambling, rioting, disturbing the peace, whoring and misbehaving themselves, unlawfully and wilfully did permit, and yet continues to permit, by reason whereof the peace, comfort and decency of the neighborhood around and about the said house were, and yet are, habitually disturbed, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Dear Sir!

Excuse the liberty I am taking, in addressing these lines to you. I am the unfortunate young man who has been arrested at the complaint of your bookkeeper for stealing 2 packages of Pens from your store.

My dear sir, I appeal to your mercy & tender heart to forgive me for what I have done in a moment of temptation. I am of very respectable parents whose hearts would break have one child of 16 months my wife who is now again in a delicate condition expects to be confined in a short time. My dear sir, if you are a married man you will know what it is to leave a wife & child in such condition, I appeal to you to forgive me for what I have done & to withdraw the charge your bookkeeper has made against me.

You can perhaps imagine the mental sufferings which I have to undergo while being confined here & the disgrace I have put on myself, have pity on me for my wife & child's sake who is my dear love. Let it be enough punishment & do not have me sent to States Prison, as my wife is wholly dependant on me, I promise you dear sir I will let this be a life's lesson to me & will remember you in my prayers to Him who forgives when we are penitent. Do not ruin the life's career of a young man, who did not realize at the time, what a terrible crime he was committing I know I have done very wrong, but show me mercy
