Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County of New York, ss.:

Patrick O'Neill

of No. 111 Cherry Street, aged 59 years, occupation Barber being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 27th day of June 1889 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the name, the following property, viz:

Three Hundred Dollars in good and lawful current money of the United States ($300.)

the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John O'Neill for the reasons that on said day and date Deponent left said John O'Neill in charge and care of Deponent's rooms, on the third floor of said premises and said money was in a bag, and said bag was in the pocket of the petticoat of Deponent's wife; when this Deponent left said room said money was in said room in said bag and pocket; said John O'Neill

Sworn to before me this 1889 day of June Police Justice.

Was the only person in said room. Deponent left said defendant in charge of said premises and was gone about two hours. When Deponent returned said defendant was not there and said money was not to be found. Wherefore Deponent was charged said defendant with taking, stealing and carrying away said money and prays that he be dealt with as the Law directs.
