Assault - 2nd degree.

J o h n O ' B r i e n

-----X

The defendant, a police officer, stands indicted for assault in the second degree, committed upon James E. Duffy upon the first day of May, ult.. The complainant charges that the defendant wilfully and maliciously struck him several blows on the face with a club, which he, said O'Brien, held in his hand, cutting deponent's face, breaking deponent's nose and making loose one of deponent's front teeth.

The case is now referred to me upon an application for the dismissal of the indictment.

Submitted with the application is a statement of the complainant for withdrawal, declaring that defendant had no intention of doing complainant any harm; that he was a police officer in the discharge of his duty, and that he believed he was doing his duty when the assault was committed, and that he had no criminal intention; and that a civil suit instituted by complainant against defendant, has been settled.

The civil action alluded to was brought by complainant to recover damages for assault, which is the subject matter of this indictment, and has since been voluntarily settled by the plaintiff -- the complainant herein, and a general release of the cause of action executed to defendant. Such said general release has been exhibited to me by defendant's counsel. It covers, in terms, the cause of action upon the assault. I have conferred with complainant who acknowledges the release, and statement for withdrawal, and reaffirms his declarations therein contained.

The statement for withdrawal and copy of said release are hereto affixed.

Upon all these facts, I recommend that the indictment herein be dismissed.

years of age, and an expert appointed by Hon. JOSIAH K. BROWN, the New York Dairy Commissioner; That at the times hereinafter mentioned one Thomas

O'Connell was a Retail Grocery Dealer, and had his Grocery Store in a room in No. 707 2d Avenue Street, in the said City of New York, and occupied and controlled such room; That on the 15 day of December, 1886, deponent went into said O'Connell's store and such room so occupied and controlled by him, and said to a clerk of said O'Connell in O'Connell's that he ^{deponent} wanted to buy some Butter; That the said Rabeman in presence of O'Connell and O'Connell in response thereto then and there sold and delivered to deponent one pound of the manufactured substance hereinafter mentioned, for which he asked and deponent then and there paid him thirty cents per pound; That it was so sold and delivered to deponent by said Rabeman and said O'Connell as and for Butter, the product of the dairy; That thereafter and on December 6, 1886, deponent delivered a portion of such substance so sold to him by said Rabeman and said O'Connell to Edward

M. Martens, a Chemist of No. 44 St. Avenue and 49 Street in said City of New York, and caused the same to be analyzed by such Chemist; That the certificate thereof made by such Chemist is hereto annexed; That such substance so sold and delivered to deponent by said Rabeman and said O'Connell was not Butter, the product of the dairy, and was not made from unadulterated milk or cream;

That it was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from milk or cream, and had been made by mixing, compounding with and adding to natural milk, cream or Butter, some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils; ~~not~~ produced from milk or cream, so as to produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter; That the said substance had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby said substance was made to and did resemble Butter the product of the dairy, and was so colored thereby in semblance of and to resemble natural Butter; That on said 15 day of October, 1886, deponent in said O'Connell's offered for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or cream in the ordinary course of said O'Connell's Grocery business.

Deponent charges that the said Thomas O'Connell against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of New York and the statutes in such case made and provided, unlawfully, wilfully and knowingly so, had such manufactured substance in his possession with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated milk or

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Thomas O'Connell

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Thomas O'Connell

(Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3.)

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Thomas O'Connell,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 27th day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty six, at the City and County aforesaid, one pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did intentionally sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Joseph J. Dorogon, as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 8. as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 3).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas O'Connell

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Thomas O'Connell,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, unlawfully did unintentionally sell and cause and procure to be sold to one Joseph J. Dorogon, one pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), as and for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THIRD COUNT: (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1).

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas O'Connell

of a Misdemeanor committed as follows:

The said Thomas O'Connell,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one Joseph J. Sweeney, one pound of a certain substance, not being butter, and commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Joseph J. Sweeney to be butter; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Section 430, Penal Code)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas O'Connell

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Thomas O'Connell,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one Joseph J. Sweeney as an article of food, one pound of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas O'Connell

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing one pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy,

and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law in such case, to deliver to the purchaser thereof, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail, to one

from a certain box which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and unlawfully did not then and there deliver therewith to the said

such purchaser as aforesaid, a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SIXTH COUNT: (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Thomas O'Connell

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said

Thomas O'Connell

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Joseph J. Saragun, one pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SEVENTH COUNT: (Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 7, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 2.)
