Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
against

William Walsh

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

— William Walsh —

of the CRIME OF FORGERY IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said William Walsh,

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Twenty-fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty-ninth~~, at the City and County aforesaid, having in his custody a certain instrument and writing, to wit: an order for the payment of money of the kind called bank checks, which said bank check is as follows, that is to say:

"No. 480

New York July 24th 1890

J. & D. Wormser,

Pay to the order of J. H. Handley

Twenty-four ⁰⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars

#24#

Mamie D. Wormser "

the said William Walsh,

afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, feloniously did forge, and cause and procure to be forged, and willingly act and assist in forging on the — back — of the said bank check a certain instrument and writing commonly called an endorsement which said forged instrument and writing commonly called an endorsement is as follows, that is to say:

"J. H. Handley"

with intent to defraud, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

— William Walsh —

of the CRIME OF FORGERY IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said William Walsh,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid having in his possession a certain instrument and writing, to wit: an order for the payment of money of the kind called bank cheques, — which said bank cheque — is as follows, that is to say:

" No. 480 New York July 24th 1890
J. R. Warner
Pay to the order of J. H. Stanley
Twenty four 00/100 — Dollars."
J. R. Warner

on the back of which said bank cheque there was then and there written a certain forged instrument and writing commonly called an endorsement of the said last-mentioned bank cheque which said forged instrument and writing, commonly called an endorsement is as follows, that is to say:

" J. H. Stanley " with force and arms, the said forged endorsement then and there feloniously did utter, dispose of and put off as true, with intent to defraud, — the said William Walsh then and there well knowing the premises, and that the said endorsement was forged, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART III.

----- x
The People of the State of New York :

against

J o s e p h W o l n i s k i
----- x

: Before
: Hon. Fred'k Smyth
: and a Jury.

Indictment filed August 18, 1890.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, August 25, 1890.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Assistant District-Attorney A. D. Parker.

For the Defendant,

Mr. J. F. Moss.

E D W A R D H A M B L E N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a private watchman at Nos. 64 and 66 White St.
in this city. The firm of Robert J. Hoguet occupy premises on the first floor. I am employed on the floor above that. On the morning of the 14th. of August at about nine o'clock I saw this defendant and another young man come upstairs. I was on the second floor. We had a sale of ribbons on that floor on that day and I was stationed at the head of the stairs to see that nobody carried anything out or brought anything in. This young man and another man with him came up the stairs. They acted kind of suspicious. They came up and looked around and went downstairs again to the side-walk. The other one went to the elevator and the prisoner sneaked in and snapped up a bundle. I saw him go into the store of Robert J. Hoguet & Company on the floor below, pick up a roll of silk that was on the counter and come out. I grabbed hold of him and had a tussle and he dropped the bundle and got away from me. I ran after him and at Broadway and White Street I caught him and brought him back to the store.

Q You kept him in sight ?

A Yes, sir.

Q When you brought him back, what did you do with him ?

A I brought him right back. I didn't say anything to him except "I want you" and I brought him back.

Q What did he say to that ?

A He didn't say anything.

Q When you said to him, "I want you", did he make any reply to that ?

A I don't think he did.

Q Didn't he say he would go back with you ?

A I couldn't say.

Q Did you see the silk after that ?

A A young man picked it up and brought it back into the store. When I brought him back the silk was shown to him and he said, "There's where I took the silk from" (pointing to one of the shelves). When I got back they sent for an officer and he was taken to the Station House. I am not employed by Hoguet & Company but by the firm on the floor above them. The only suspicious thing I saw these men do was walk upstairs and then down again, and one of them went to the elevator while the other sneaked into the store. I came downstairs when I saw him sneak into the store. When I ran after him he only got about 75 feet away from me.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

The conversation which I have related is all that took place between the defendant and myself.

Q Isn't it a fact that it was the other young man that took this silk and that when you grabbed him outside he had the silk in his hand ?

A When I grabbed the defendant on the sidewalk he had the silk on his left arm.

Q Didn't he say at the time, "What are you arresting me for? I don't know that this silk is stolen"?

A No, sir he did not.

Q Did he say anything like that ?

A No, sir.

Q Are you sure of that ?

0734

4

A Yes sir, I am positive sure.

Q He cut and ran ?

A Yes sir, he ran and I caught him.

Q Did you make that same statement in the Police Court about his running ?

A My affidavit is there.

Q Do you say in your affidavit the statement that he had the silk under his arm ?

A Yes sir, I stated that.

Q This is your affidavit: "Joseph Wolniski, now here, stole the property from the fact that deponent saw the defendant depart with said property and that he had the same in his possession outside of the premises without having any right to the same"?

A That is what I said.

Q You did not swear that he ran, in the Police Court?

A The paper is there.

F R A N K F I E L D, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an employe of the firm of Wilmerding, Morris & Mitchell at Nos. 64 & 66 White Street in this city. I was in their employ on the 14th. of August. At about 9 o'clock on that day I saw this defendant on the sidewalk in front of those premises. I was coming out of our door way when I saw the defendant tussling with Mr. Hamblen and he had a piece of silk under his left arm and, as he was tussling with him he got away, dropped the silk and ran. He ran towards Broadway. I saw him running and saw Mr. Hamblen running after him. I was present when the defendant was brought back. The officer came in and another gentleman whose name I forget, and he identified the silk. The defendant said that he took it. There was not any more talk there at that time that I heard.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

Q Let us know the exact words that this defendant uttered when he was brought back ?

A He said: "I acknowledge -- I admit that I took the silk".

Q Those were his words ?

A Yes, sir.

Q You are sure ?

A Yes, sir.

R O B E R T S U L E M B I A, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at the foot of West 140th. Street. I am in the employ of Hoguet & Company at No. 64 and 66 White Street in this city. On the 14th. day of August this year I saw the defendant. I also saw the silk which was picked up in front of our premises by the first witness who was called. I identified the property as the property of Hoguet & Company.

Q How much was that silk worth ?

A $60.

Q Do you know what it is worth ?

A Yes sir, I can give it to you exactly.

Q How long have you been in the employ of Hoguet & Company?

A A little over a year.

Q And you are familiar with the value of goods of that character ?

A Yes, sir.

Q You sell silk ?

A Yes sir; I consign it.

Q You saw that piece of silk ?

A Yes sir; there was 70 yards at $1.85 a yard, making $59.50.

Q Did you hear the defendant say anything ?

A No, sir; I didn't hear him say anything.

Q Were you present when the officer took him away ?

A I was present. I went to court.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Q How many yards of silk in that roll ?

A 70 $\frac{1}{2}$ yards.

Q How do you know there were 70 $\frac{1}{2}$ yards of silk in that roll ?

A Because I know that silk is in pieces of 70 $\frac{1}{2}$ yards.

Q Is that all the knowledge you have on the subject as to the number of yards in that roll ?

A Yes sir, that is all.

Q You didn't measure that yourself ?

A No, sir.

Q As a matter of fact you can't swear that there was more than 30 yards in it ?

A I didn't measure it, but the goods are measured, and I know a roll of silk contains that amount.

Q How long ago was it you consigned this particular piece of silk, if you know ?

A About eight months ago.

Q Of your own knowledge you don't know whether it was 20 yards or 15 ?

A Yes sir, I know there was 70 yards and a half.

Q How do you know that ?

A Because it has been measured by the finisher.

Q Where ?

A In Paterson.

Q How long have you been engaged in that business ?

A About nine months.

Q That is all your experience in the manufacture of silk ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now, could you tell by the weight of this bundle if there was more than 15 yards in it ?

A Yes sir, I could tell by the feel of it. I opened it and examined it after it had been brought into the store.

J O H N D. M c L O U G H L I N, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am attached to the Seventeenth Precinct. I was so attached on the 14th. of August last. On the morning of that day I saw the defendant about nine o'clock in the morning. I was called into No. 64 White Street and I saw a number of people standing around the prisoner. The witness Hamblen was one of them. I asked them what was the matter when I was called in there, and they told me that this boy took a roll of silk of the value of $60. I asked them where the silk was and they said inside of the counter. I inquired who was the owner and a gentleman spoke up and said he was. I asked the boy what he had to say about taking this piece of silk, and he said: "I took it; I will go along with you but don't make any show of me". We went to the Tombs and I afterwards took him to Inspector Byrnes' office. That is all the conversation I had with him. I took him up to Inspector Byrnes' office and the detectives there failed to identify him.

D E F E N S E:

J O S E P H W O L N I S K I, the defendant, sworn, testified

I am nineteen years of age. I was born in this city. I have never been arrested before for any crime. I have worked for Jacob Goldstein in the shoe business on Eighth Avenue for two years. Since that time I have been in the theatrical business. At the time I was arrested I was playing at Perry's Glass Pavilion on Coney Island. On this morning I came to New York and I met a man whose name is Smith, and who had been a waiter at Coney Island at the same place I was employed. I met him coming out of a store on Broadway and he asked me where I was going and I told him I was going home, and he says: "Won't you wait for me, I am going up to White Street to a couple of places." I says: "I have a couple of minutes to spare and I will go round with you." I went and waited in front of the door, right at the entrance. He went in and stayed there ten or fifteen minutes and came out and handed me a roll of silk and he says: "Hold this. I have lost something. I want to go back and find it". He went back into the place and I stood there with the silk and a young fellow came and grabbed hold of me in front of the door. I asked him, "What is the matter" and I told him that I got this silk from this other fellow who handed it to me. I never took the silk from where he claims I took it.

Q Did you know it was stolen at the time it was handed to you ?

A No, sir; I never took it.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Q Do you believe in an oath ?

A Yes, sir; I do.

Q Have you testified falsely ?

Q If you want me to give you an answer I will answer it.

No witness or anybody seen me take that silk. They saw me with it in front of the door.

Q Is that what you rely upon, or is that what you depend upon --- that nobody saw you take the silk ?

A Yes, sir.

Q That is what you depend on ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't you take it whether they saw you or not ?

A No, sir. I never took it.

Q You heard them all say that you said you took it ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Didn't you hear the witnesses say so ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you say that ?

A No, sir. I never did. I never took the silk and I never said so.

Q What is the name of the man who gave you the silk ?

A Smith is his name, and he is a waiter at Perry's Glass Pavilion.

Q Is this your right name that you have given here ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Where did you get this watch and chain from ?

0741

11

A I bought the chain.

Q Where did you get the watch ?

A The watch I bought at Coney Island.

Q It was found upon you ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you buy the watch from Smith ?

A No, sir.

ANNIE HOLZSTEIN, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am in the shoe business on Sixth Avenue with my husband. I have known the defendant for some time. I know his character. He is an honest man.

The jury returned a verdict of "guilty of grand larceny in the second degree".
