The People
vs.
George Wilson.

{ Court of general sessions, part I.
Before Judge Gillersleeve.

December 31, 1886.

Jointly indicted with Thomas Mack for robbery in the first degree.

John M. Scott sworn and examined. I live in Chatham Square and on the 5th of December met Wilson in Mulberry Street, I asked him if I could get a cigar, the places were closed up Sunday night, we went in to a place and had a glass of beer and a cigar at 59 mulberry street, we went up an alleyway, I do not know whether I left when Wilson did or not, he was inside, he was the young man who took me in but I cannot swear that he was the man who took me out; after I left the saloon I was going towards the street as I thought, there was some party said, "this is the way, and called me back, I turned and went back and as soon as ever I turned some one got hold of me by the neck, I did not imagine they were going to rob me but before I made an attempt to do anything it seems officer Murphy caught this chap right off at my back; the officer said it was Mack who pleaded guilty but I do not know whether it was Mack or who it was, it was in a dark alleyway. I have not been drinking anything to-day, I think Wilson was the man whom I met in mulberry street and with whom I had a cigar and a drink but there was two alike, I had somewhere about ten or twelve dollars in my pants pocket, there was nobody tried to take any money from me.

Cross Examined. I think this happened a little after eleven o'clock, I spent the Sunday in 206 Chatham Square which is a lodging house, I have been working for Farrell on the Bowery as a cabinet maker but I left that and was working at printing, I was never in that street before, I did not see any officers around the alley; a man had his arm around my neck when the officer grabbed him, I did not know that he was an officer until after because he was in citizen's clothes, I was sober that night, I thought it was a little bit of a lark that the youngmen were engaged in, my coat was not unbuttoned at all.

Jeremiah J. Murphy sworn. I am an officer of the 6th precinct and on the 5th of December about midnight I was in Mulberry Street in citizen's clothes, I was in the alleyway at 59 Mulberry Street and saw the complainant and Wilson and Mack, who pleaded guilty yesterday. On that evening about midnight I was in the Station House and a man came in inquiring about a seal skin hat that he told me he lost in Mulberry Street. I went out into Mulberry Street and went into this alley 59 about fifty feet from the sidewalk, I staid there for about three or four minutes and while the gentleman and me were standing there this crowd came in, Wilson, Mack and two others; this Mr. Scott came in about the center of them and when they got near the end of the alley Mack jumps up behind Scott and catches him by the throat and raised him right up, I was standing at least six or seven feet in front of him looking at it, Wilson was right in front of him, he turned around and I saw his hand on his stomach and he caught hold of his coat and at that moment I jumped over and grabbed Mack by the back of the neck with my left hand and grabbed at Wilson, Wilson got away from me but I held on to Mack, he jumped over the fence which leads out into Baxter Street, I brought Mack to the Station House and Wilson was arrested by Officer Winner two days after, I am positive that Wilson is the man that assisted in the assault upon the complainant that night, I know him by sight.

Cross Examined I was in citizen's clothes, I did not see the complainant go into any saloon, I saw Wilson catch hold of the complainant's coat and put his two hands on his stomach; it was dark in the alley but there is a lamp shining in from the street, I could see Wilson's face plainly, I knew there was something wrong when these people came in the alleyway. The complainant was excited at the time and he felt like tackling me because he did not know I was an officer until I brought him to the street, I knew the complainant was going to be robbed right away when I saw them hugging him. I was notabit excited in the dark alleyway.

John J. Winner sworn. I am an officer of the 6th precinct and arrested Wilson on the corner of Mulberry and Worth Streets, I took him to the Station House and showed him to Officer Murphy who identified him.

John M. Scott recalled. I do not know that anybody had their hands around my stomach, they did not touch me that I know of.

George Wilson sworn. I did not assault or attempt to rob the complainant, I was not there that night and don't know anything about it.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of attempt at robbery.

Henry H. Williamson being duly sworn deposes & says:

I am the Secretary and Treasurer of The Globe Manufacturing and Importing Company, a corporation whose principal store and place of business is at No.
3 Union Square in the City of New York.
Between about the 10th day of June
and the 22nd day of November 1886, one Theodore G. Mackay was employed by said The Globe Manufacturing and Importing Company as an <sup>assistant</sup> book-keeper at said place.

On information and belief I charge that during ~~the~~ that period said Theodore G. Mackay unlawfully and feloniously took and carried away from said store, articles of personal property consisting of silver ware, stationery, jewelry & fancy goods of the value of about four hundred dollars. That said articles are enumerated and described in the annexed affidavit of Mrs. Eliza E.
Mackay dated the 2<sup>d</sup> day of December 1886, hereto annexed. That said property is & was owned by said, The Globe Manufacturing and Exporting Company, from whose possession it was stolen by the said Theodore G. Mackay.

That the source of my information and the grounds of my belief are, first, ~~that~~ said Belia G. Mackay's affidavit, dated December 2<sup>d</sup> 1886; second, statements made to me by her; third, the fact that said Company has from time to time missed said articles from its store, but could not account for their disappearance; ~~third~~ fourth, the fact that some of the missing articles have been found ~~in~~ ~~the~~ ~~office~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~company~~ ~~from~~ ~~the~~ ~~residence~~ ~~of~~ ~~said~~ ~~Theodore G. Mackay~~ which was received at the office of said Company from the residence of said Theodore G. Mackay.

I further aver, on the information derived from said Belia G. Mackay, that a quantity of the said stolen property is now on the premises No. 108 East 124th Street, New York City, in the possession of the mother, father & brother of said Theodore G. Mackay, by whom it was given to them, and that part of said property is ~~now~~ in the possession of said Theodore G. Mackay for the purpose of concealing it, or preventing its being discovered - And that said Theodore G. My dear Sir:

Last Thursday, 9th inst., Theodore H. Mackey was held by Judge Driffy in $1000 bail to answer on a charge of Grand Larceny preferred by Henry H. Williamson, Secretary & Treasurer of the Globe Mfg. & Exporting Co. No. 3 Union Square.

Mackey had been a book-keeper in the employ of this Co. for about five months, and during that time, as alleged, carried away about $400 worth of <sup>goods</sup> ~~articles~~ jewelry, silverware & fancy goods. He made a confession to Detective Von Grichte when arrested, & some of the property was recovered.

I am attorney for the Company, and would like, & respectfully suggest, that when the papers are laid before the Grand Jury that the following named persons be summoned as witnesses:

As we have proof concerning the other articles, & they are described in the prosecuting affidavits, I would be glad to have you hear it — knowing that you are a good deal more thorough than committing magistrates generally are.

Then people
vs.
Mary Maloney.

Court of general sessions, part 1.
Before Judge gildersleeve.

December 30, 1886.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Ellen Amos sworn. I live 323 East 33rd street in this city, I have apartments there and was living there with my husband in November, the defendant visited me on the 19th of November; she came in at half past eleven and staid till half past one and during that time she examined the watch and I told her the spring was loose, to leave it down, I took it out of her hand and put it in the drawer, I was showing her a dress I just finished and going through my apartment she sat by the bureau drawer and then she got up and went off at half past one; she was just gone fifteen minutes when I missed the watch; it was my husband's watch but it was in my care. I have two babies and I could not make any row about it until my husband came home and then we went and looked for her in every place and she had just got out of there, she run across the roof from the detective. During the fifteen minutes that the defendant was in my room nobody entered the room and nobody was there during her visit.

Cross Examined. I keep house for my husband and I did do dress-making but I have given it up because my children were sick; my oldest child will be two years and a half at Christmas and the other one is one year; she was standing by the bureau drawer which was opened a little bit when I got a lead pencil out to mark down her address; she saw the watch and she asked to look at it, I am sure there was no other woman came into the room before she left, she was there two hours, she bid me good-day in a hurry; there was no refreshment brought into the room during those two hours, we did not drink beer.

Dennis McGarty sworn. I am an officer of the 21st precinct, the defendant was brought in by another officer, I was looking for her for about ten days, I traced her up, I found her in a room, I was not positive it was she for I never saw her before, I asked her if her name was Mary Mcganley, that was her name before she was married, her mother was there and I asked her if her name was Mary McGanley and she said no, I am Mary ganley. I went to the door to wait for the complainant to come up and identify the defendant positively and while I was at the door she escaped to the roof and I caught her about five or six days after, she was brought in by an officer and the complainant identified this woman as the one whom she said took her watch; that is all I know about it.

Mary Maloney sworn and examined in her own behalf, testified: I live with my mother 320 East 43th Street, I remember going to Mr Amos's house, I heard her testimony on the stand here, I never seen the watch at all, she makes a mistake when she said she showed it to me; I have never been arrested before on the charge of stealing anything. I went to the complainant's house I should judge about eleven o'clock, it was not half past eleven as she says and I staid there until about one and during that time I brought two different drinks in there; the house-keeper came in half an hour after I came in and staid quite a while, this other woman who lived in the house staid there after I left; the complainant said there was nobody else in the house, I know nothing whatever about the watch.

Cross Examined. I did not try to escape from the officer, I met him every day going to my work, he did not arrest me, he went upstairs and asked me what my name was, I told him my name was Mary Maloney, he staid at the door while I put on my sache and went right by him and not on the roof; he cannot deny that I meet him every day of my life; when the officer came up to the room he did not say a single word about placing me under arrest, I was working at the time of my arrest at 732 Eighth Avenue in a restaurant, I was finally arrested at 41st Street and First Avenue as I was going home, I work from seven in the evening until seven in the morning.

Dennis McCarty recalled by Mr Bedford.

She did not pass me by the door, I did not see her pass through the roof but I know she left the room and went upstairs aided by half a dozen of persons in the house, I stood at the door the whole time and she did not get out through the door, it is a four or five story house, I waited pretty near two hours in the door, and then I went through the building and could not find her, I saw everybody go in and out of that house because I stood on the stoop. I watched for her so that nobody could go in or out. When I first went to the room I did not tell her what I came there for.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
