CARRIE PAKER, being duly sworn, testified that she lived at 182 Elizabeth Street. She met the defendant, on the evening in question, at 82 Elizabeth Street. She saw the defendant in the back room of that house. He had a razor in his hand and all in the room ran out into the back yard, or the street. The witness ran down into the cellar.

-----000-----

Under cross examination the witness testified, that she did not meet the defendant in the street, and that he didn't give her 50 cents to have connection with her. She went into see Fanny, a chambermaid in the house. She, the witness, did not refuse to have any connection with him after she had received the 50 cents. She first saw the defendant coming down the stairs into the back room of the house with a razor in his hand. The house at 82 Elizabeth Street is a furnished room house, frequented by women of the town.

-----000-----

FANNY FEALD; being duly sworn, testified that she lived at 82 Elizabeth Street. The defendant entered the house at about half past ten, or 11 o'clock, with a girl, and went up stairs. He remained about 5 minutes and came down stairs again with a razor in his hand, and began to chase the girls with a razor. She went into the street and cried murder, and Mr. Laughlin came. The girl that he went up stairs with was unknown to the witness.

-----000-----

MARY ANN KOPPINGER, of 82 Elizabeth Street, corroborated the previous witness. The defendant, when he came down stairs, said to her, the witness, that if ^{she} would not give him 25 cents, he would cut her throat, and he made a motion at her throat with a razor. She gave him 25 cents back and he ran after the girls with the razor. They made an outcry and an officer came and also Mr. Laughlin.

-----000-----

Officer Martin Hogan, of the 14th precinct, being duly sworn, testified that he arrested the defendant running through Elizabeth Street, about 20 minutes past ten, on the evening on question. He had a razor in his hand. The razor was stained with blood. The complainant was cut up on the arm, and across the shoulder and there were twelve stitches put into the cuts.

-----000-----

Under cross examination the witness testified that the defendant was cut in ^{the} back of the head. He had a scalp wound.

-----000-----

For the defense, Dominico Delico, being duly sworn, testified that he was a laborer and he lived in Brooklyn. He testified as he was coming down stairs in the house in question, Mr. Laughlin attacked him with a club. When he came to the door it was locked, and he could not get out; then he took out the razor to defend himself. He was called into the house by a girl there. He went in and paid his money and the girl ran away, and did not give him satisfaction. Then she called Mr. Laughlin in to beat him
