Samuel Igel

City & County of New York: D.S.

Deura Barker
being duly sworn says that he is managing clerk for Benno Lowy of No 200 Broadway, an attorney & councillor at law and Notary Public

That deponent went to West 32nd Street New York City on the 29th and 30th days of September 1887 and procured the affidavits taken and sworn in regard to the character of the defendant
Samuel Igel.

That deponent found the parents of said defendant, Morris Igel and Henrietta Igel living in a basement at No 220 West 32nd St, and the father both times when deponent called was working as his trade that of a Cattle or Horseman in the said basement and although the surroundings indicated poverty, yet the place was clean and, and Lida and both parents Morris Igel and Henrietta Igel were sober. I also saw in the same building the landlady and she informed me that they were respectable people, had lived in her house for over eight years and had always paid their rent promptly. I enquired in the neighborhood of divers persons, storekeepers, mechanics and laborers and was informed by all that the said Morris Igel and his wife were poor but respectable and hard working people, and that their son the defendant Samuel Igel had a good reputation, and that nothing had been heard against him until the present difficulty.

The neighbors did not like to sign affidavits as they feared that they would be taken from their business to court and hence deponent was unable to get affidavits from a greater number of persons.

Seen & before me this 1st day of Oct 1887.
