 Hugh Mulholland Senior, being duly sworn says, I live at No 214 East 38th Street and have lived there for about three years I am in the employment Messrs Popheim & Co whose office is under the 5th Avenue Hotel for nearly thirty years. Up four years and six months I served in the Union Army. I am the father of the defendant Hugh Mulholland who is now about twenty years of age. The defendant is a cripple and has been lame for ~~seventeen~~ seventeen years. Three years ago the defendant tried to learn the trade of tin-smithing but was unable to do so solely because of his lameness - he then tried cigar making - but I was compelled to take him away from that business because of his illness. Since then he has been helping about my house cooking, and working about while his mother was out washing. She writes of 1883 & 1884 he was confined to the house with Rheumatism for five months; he was then attended by a Dispensary Doctor who told me on his recovery that milk and fresh air would alone save his life. She has also had epileptic fits. She has never been accused or arrested for stealing, and I never knew him to do a dishonest act in his life. He has been arrested for playing in the street, and for disorderly conduct. She is the only child of a large family, & many at home, six are dead and one the other surviving child is married and away. Her wife is an old woman and since her sons arrest is almost wild with grief. Of the circumstances attending the commission of the offence charged against him I know nothing - but I am informed that the prosecutor has no wish to have her punished.

Martin Murphy.

Before Judge Cowing.

April 10 1885.

Indictment for grand larseny in the first degree.

Thomas Kitt, sworn. I live No 11 West Street, I was in the city of New York on the 26 of March, I had a silver watch worth 20 dollars belonging to me in my vest pocket. I met the prisoner in Morris Street on the night of the 26 of March at a quarter of ten o'clock. I was going from No 11 West Street to a drug-store in Greenwich Street, I was crossing Washington Street, there was a large boiler in the street and there was a crowd, of people, I saw the prisoner and another one, standing at the corner of Washington and Morris Streets; the prisoner turned about, and snatched my watch and ran, I turned after him, he went in a dark passage-way which is by a barber-shop between Washington and West Streets. I did not capture him, I am positive that he is the boy who stole my watch, I have not got it back; he was arrested the next morning. Cross Examined. This boy was dressed with a light cap, kind of light green pants and a dark coat; the other boy was not dressed anything like him at all, he had kind of ragged clothes. I did not see the ragged boy's face or the colour of his hair because I was running after the other boy.

William Flynn, sworn. I am an officer of the 27 th precinct and arrested this boy on the 27th of March near the corner of Morris and Washington Streets on the complaint of Mr Kitt. He came to the station-house the next morning and informed me that he lost his watch; he gave me a description of Martin Murphy, I went down Washington Street and stayed there a few hours and saw him go into a store in Morris Street, I went over and arrested him. Going up Morris Street he asked me what I arrested him for. I explained to the defendant what I arrested him for, he was so small, I told him his rights that I would stand him up between a lot of boys of his own size. So he said he would go round and see the man anyhow; then his brother came past, I took him around to II West Street and three or four boys followed after him about his size. Mr. Kitt was upstairs when I went in and I took two boys each side of him and as soon as he came down stairs I asked him could he see the boy and he went over and put his hand upon the prisoner; he picked him out of the three without any hesitation. Two of them were bigger than him, I should judge a head over him but one of them had light hair like himself Murphy was in the middle of the two; Mr. Kitt gave an exact description of him I did not get the watch back.

THE PEOPLE

Cross Examined. I heard of a boy named Hart, I do not know him personally, I heard his description, they say he has light hair like this boy. I do not think the defendant has the same suit on that he had when I arrested him, I do not know about the pants, he did not have that coat on, I think it was a greenish coat, it looked as if there was dust on it where he was working; he informed me he was working at the corner of Laight Street in a cracker bakery. The defendant said to me that Abbie Hart was the boy that took the watch. He did not tell me whether Abbie Hart had offered the watch to him. He did not say anything about seeing Abbie Hart take it.

Martin Murphy sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I live at 32 Greenwich Street, I remember the day I was arrested by officer Flynn for stealing this man's watch. I asked him what he arrested me for? He said, for stealing a watch. He says, "Will you come down West Street before the man who lost the watch, or go up to the station-house before four or five boys?" I says, well, I would rather go down to the man

I believed him for he was so sure I told him his watch was I believed him for I expected to see the man who who lost the watch. So ~~that~~ then he took me down before the man and he put me beside two boys a head over me. None of them looked anything like the boy that took the watch.

So then he took me up and I told him a boy named Hart showed me the watch the night before. HE is about my size and has got light hair. He had a cap and black coat, vest, and pants. That night I had this hat on, a brown coat, and vest and these pants. I worked in a bakery. I did not steal this man's watch, I did not see him the night before. I told Mr.
Flynn that Hart showed me a watch I do not know whether it was was the man's watch or not. Cross Examined. I was sent to the house of Refuge in December, 1883 and stayed there one year. When I came down I went to work in Gilmore's bakery, I stayed there for about a month and a half, they had no work for me and then I got work in Holme's and Coutts bakery, I was there when I got arrested. I was arrested one time for stealing butter and was sent to the Catholic Proctectory for about thirteen months.

John Murphy, sworn. I am a brother of the defendant he worked in this cracker bakery that he speaks of. He wore a brown coat and vest and that soft hat all blotted with flour. The time he was arrested he wore those clothes because I was after knocking off work myself, I met him coming up Morris Street. He told me the next day in the Tombs about Abbie Hart, I made every effort to find him, searched high and low and tried to get the watch to see if I could not square things the best way I could. Cross Examined. I did not say to the complainant that if he would not prosecute my brother I would return him the watch. I told him I would make every every effort in my power to get him the watch back. I saw

v.
Martin Murphy.

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,
District Attorney &c.

Dear Sir:

The investigation by the Society in this case shows, that this boy was arrested once before for stealing shirts in Chatham Street, for which he was committed to the House of Refuge for one year, and from which he was discharged December 20, 1884. At the present time he is employed in Holmes & Coutts cracker bakery, corner of Franklin and Washington Streets, where he has been working two weeks at $3. per week. His father has been dead six years, and his mother Maria resides at 32 Greenwich St., top floor, where she has lived for the past seven years. The boy says he will be 15 years old the 15th of next month. The mother appears to be a temperate woman, and has a neat and comfortable home. On interviewing her, she stated that this is the first she had heard that he had been arrested, but admitted that he associated with a bad set of boys who were reputed to be thieves.

I have the honor to remain,
With great respect,

Wm. J. Gerry.
